Final words: Who knows!

EXCLUSIVES

We've done it again! This month we bring you more exclusives, hot from the producers' development teams.

No.1 20 ZOO!

This ninja alien from the Nth dimension has already been a huge hit on the Amiga and he's set to enter the console world in November. We bring you the WORLD EXCLUSIVE preview of this excellent arcade adventure. Get yourselves ready for some wild action, courtesy of Gremlin Graphics.

No.2 50 FANTASTIC DIZZY

Yet another game converted from computer, Fantastic Dizzy has been a huge success in the past. This little egg-head from a far off land is set to take the Master System by storm. Check out the EXCLUSIVE REVIEW.

No.3 72 FANTASTIC DIZZY

Yes, we've got it on the Game Gear too! It's not often that an EXCLUSIVE GAME GEAR REVIEW pops up, so we can't help feeling this is a little special. Feast your eyes over some great graphics and marvel at the original gameplay.

No.4 68 ANDRE AGASSI TENNIS

He's starred in a coffee commercial, his face is everywhere and he's the cheekiest guy in town. Just who is this celebrity? Andre Agassi of course! We bring you the EXCLUSIVE REVIEW of his latest assault on the hand held.

SPECIALS

24 ALIVE AND KICKING

We have no less than five pages reporting on the development of football games on Sega consoles and there are reviews of every game that's still generally available in the shops. To cap it all, we have...

30 EA SPORTS' INTERNATIONAL SOCCER

The football season has started and we couldn't resist bringing you a feature on the latest football simulation. EA Sports have produced some fine simulations in the past and are hoping this will be their biggest game ever. We bring you an extra-special feature direct from EA's headquarters.

REGULARS

6 NEWS

Did you know that some TV programmes are banning beat-'em-ups? You would if you read ProNews! We bring you the biggest and best news pages, packed with all the information you'll ever need. Looking for international news? Check out our Japanese pages for some top-secret stories.

14 PREVIEWS

Over 20 new releases have been squeezed into just four pages this month. Among the top games for the next few months are Lethal Enforcers, Cool Spot (MS), Spider-Man and The X Men, Blades of Vengeance and Micro Machines (GG). Cramping them all in was a hard job, but you won't find more previews anywhere.

34 PRODATES

Want to know what games you should be buying over the next few months? Turn to Prodates, the only section in ANY magazine that covers EVERY release until November. You'll find everything you need to know about up and coming games, from the price to the game's content.

76 PROFILE

How do we do it? God knows how we manage to fit so much information into such a little space, but we do! If you need the low down on ancient game releases, readers' problems, or you need a game tip, this is the place to look.

91 PROGUIDES

Yeah, you guessed it. We couldn't resist bringing you the complete players guide to Mortal Kombat! Whatever console you have, the Pros bring you the biggest and best tips for the beat-'em-up of the year. All that and we still have space for more! Check out the second part of our Jungle Strike solution and an exclusive guide to Star Wars (MS&GG).

108 PROTEST

The CD debate is in full swing this month. Half of our readers think it is a waste of time, the other half think it's brilliant. What do you think? Read the low down on this important issue, among others, in our readers' section of the mag.

JURASSIC BLUNDER

I was bemused when rival magazines reviewed Jurassic Park from an unfinished version of the game. We were told that we could, as some other magazines had, review the game using these chips. We decided not to and, as we didn't receive a finished cartridge from Sega UK, we reviewed the import version from the States.

By now, some magazines will have reviewed the game from Sega's "unfinished" chips and I would imagine many came to the same conclusion that this is a fairly decent game. However, the US version was bugged and considering that Sega UK "couldn't" supply us with a finished cartridge, we can only surmise that the UK version will be similarly flawed. When we get hold of the finished game, we will inform you either way, but if you don't hear from us before its release, take care and demand a playtest before you part with your cash. If you can live with any bugs that may be there, then at least you know what you've bought.

Pat Kelly

PAT KELLY

"The last holiday I ever went on was my honeymoon and one of my worst experiences ever! Being a fair-skinned Scot, I became another sun-burn statistic soon after I stepped off the plane in Tenerife. Needless to say, the wife didn't take too kindly to my constant cries of pain and stubborn refusal to go anywhere near the sun! To top it all, the pubs were showing repeat episodes of Only Fools and Horses, which would have been fine had we not wanted to get away from the drudgery of old England."

SIMON CHRISTOPHER

"As I've never taken a holiday from my hectic schedule, I have only one distant tale to recount on the subject. As a wild, carefree student I felt in need of a rest. In a futile attempt to recreate a holiday atmosphere I hired a sunbed, bought in a supply of food, drink and cheap novels. I then sang 'La Bamba' whilst walking round the house in my swim shorts with sand in my shoes." Sad bloke!

SAM HICKMAN

"Last year, I visited my best friend in Turkey. All was well until we decided to take a bus trip to Istanbul. Not being able to speak any Turkish, I didn't realise that mass panic had broken out. Apparently, there was a terrorist on board who claimed that he would run riot on the bus. Fortunately, the police came whizzing up the motorway and yanked this weaselly looking bloke off into a Turkish jail. I never did find out if he was really a terrorist, but he certainly looked shifty to me."

JASON JOHNSON

"If you've ever been subjected to one of those family holidays abroad, you may well sympathise with me. About five years ago my parents took hold of this crazy idea of going away for Christmas. Who goes abroad for Christmas? Sunny Malta was our destination, but it rained all week. The hotel had a dingy downstairs disco and the biggest thrill was a magic show on Christmas Eve! Needless to say, I now try and stay this side of the water during the festive season."

MARK HILL

"My worst holiday nightmare was when I went inter-railing from France to Malta and all was well until I reached Italy. A mix-up in Napoli had me waiting a whole night for a train to Sicily that finally arrived the following morning - ten hours late! The station was a dump with queers and dirty tramps and there was no food or drink available. The following morning things got worse as the Sicilian bound train stopped in a country village due to a train strike! I was stranded for a night so dishing out £20 for a hotel room was the best decision I had made since I started out."

COLIN NIGHTINGALE

"The last kind of 'holiday' I had was a working holiday, picking grapes with a close friend in Switzerland. Unluckily, we had unlimited stocks of fine wine at our disposal and proceeded to drink to our heart's content. Within a week, the farmer fired us and we, thus, ended up hitching through Europe to Amsterdam, which was a far more rewarding experience."

PRO

SURFING IN THE UK

These days, it seems that Sega can't keep out of the water! They've currently got two liquid-based projects on the way and both of them are aimed at fashionable young things.

First up, Sega sponsored the Quiksilver's Surfmaster Championship, held earlier on in September. The world's top 44 surfers competed in the championships that had a first prize of $100,000! The Sega Quiksilver Surfmaster Championship featured a huge games playing area, where spectators could sample Sega's many surfing titles. Greendog also made a personal appearance and although the exhibition was mainly aimed at spectators, some of the competitors couldn't stay away. A self-confessed Sega addict, surfing legend Tom Carroll was spotted at the Sega stand, engrossed in a game. What was the title? Cool Spot by Virgin of course!

Staying on the subject of beaches and all things summery, Sega have another marketing strategy up their sleeve. They are currently touring American schools with their swim program for young children. Co-run by the Royal Life Saving Society, it promotes the necessity of safety in the water. The project has been a huge success in the states and will be coming to the UK in the autumn. Although Sega attract loads of attention wherever they slap their name, they do have a little extra help with this campaign. The TV stars of soft-focus, bouncing babe, TV series Baywatch are lending a helping hand (as well as other parts of their anatomy). Nicole Egbert and David Charvet have produced a video for the society and you'll be glad to know that they're coming to the UK too!

NEWS

FLETCH LIVES

Ever Since Dominik Diamond left GamesMaster, Hewland searched high and low for a new presenter. As reported before, they were looking for someone with more, shall we say, universal attitude than old Dominik. Who did they come up with? Not Take That, not Philip Schofield, but Dexter Fletcher. Who? Dexter is a small time celebrity who is probably most famous for his role in childrens' TV series The Press Gang. He also starred in major teen-movie, The Rachel Papers. According to Hewland, Fletcher is highly popular with his target audience, so he's just the man for the job!

Fletcher has been signed up for the third series of GamesMaster and to his credit, he's something of a mean games player. He's also helping to bring a more moody atmosphere to the show, due to be shot in a converted prison. Can he carry it off? Tune in to the new series and find out.

● The new GamesMaster series begins on 9 September and will run every Thursday evening.

EA are famous for producing innovative games, but they've also produced a novel advert. If you're ever in the Cromwell Road region (near Sega's HQ) why not check it out? The billboard poster features an almost life-size model of the Comanche helicopter featured in their latest smash hit, Jungle Strike. The helicopter comes complete with revolving blades and is perched on top of the billboard.

The billboard advert supports EA's massive publicity drive for the game and with adverts currently being shown on TV and the cinema, it should attract a fair bit of attention.

GANG BANNED!

The Night Trap saga lives on! It seems as if many TV companies have been a bit shaken by the hype and have decided to take the safe option when it comes to games choice. Movies, Games and Videos have decided not to feature any beat-'em-up games in its programme. As there is only a small amount of presenting, they feel that their show would come under a lot of scrutiny by featuring games such as Mortal Kombat.

Apparently, they are also worried by the wrath of the angry parent! The same goes for childrens' show Gimme Five. They refuse to promote Mortal Kombat and Street Fighter II and have never featured beat-'em-ups in their show. However, no one has taken kids' opinions into consideration. It seems that the decisions were largely made by the show's producers, who would rather play it safe than stick their neck on the line.

You'll be pleased to know that both Bad Influence and GamesMaster will be featuring beat-'em-ups, in particular Mortal Kombat and Street Fighter II. GamesMaster will even be dedicating a whole programme to Mortal Kombat and are not worried by the violence.

After all, they are only digitised images and let's face it, most kids know the difference between real violence and a few make believe characters on a TV screen.

COLLECTORS' STAMPS

If you ever buy games from a Virgin Store, then good news is on the way. Virgin have just introduced a scheme aimed at building loyalty among their customers. They are issuing all of their customers with a stamp collection booklet. Each time a customer buys a game, they will be given a stamp for every £10 spent. When they have collected enough stamps, they can exchange them for money off game products. Up to 30 tokens can be collected in all, giving the customer £40 off a game. The scheme will run for a year and has already begun in most Virgin stores.

WIN BUBSY GEAR

Bubsy the Bobcat seems to get everywhere these days. When he's not gracing the pages of computer games magazines, he often pops up in the national press and a few trendy magazines too. Bubsymania is everywhere and he's about to get bigger too! National adverts are about to hit TV and he's got his own cartoon show.

Anyway, Bubsy has been featured in good old SegaPro many times, so we thought it was about time to call in our dues. Bubsy owed us a favour or two so after a quick phone call, we managed to get hold of some freebies. In traditional SegaPro style, though we can't just give them away. You'll have to answer a question to win the goods. First prize is a copy of Bubsy, three second prizes of a Bubsy coach jacket and Bubsy mugs for ten runners-up. All you have to do is answer one simple question.

TOP MAN

In a recent survey in America, it was found that Sonic is the most popular character around. The survey was carried out amongst 6-11 year-old boys and Sonic beat Michael Jordan and Bart Simpson into runner-up positions. Tails, Sonic's furry sidekick, came fourth place in the survey, showing that kids seem to have identified with the fox rather well. Not surprising, really, when you consider that Sega have plugged these two characters to the hilt.

LASER QUEST

American Laser Games, the creators of arcade machines such as Space Pirates, are coming to the Mega-CD. They have five titles in all and their release dates vary from November until summer of next year. Their first release will be Mad Dog McRee (previewed this issue) followed by Mad Dog II, Space Pirates, Who Shot Johnny Rock? and Gallagher's Gallery. For those of you who are unfamiliar with laser games, the object is to shoot images of live actors. Many of the adventures have wild story lines and feature anything from Twenties' singers to spacemen from another dimension. It's undecided at the moment whether the games will use the Menacer, but it's a high possibility. While the concept of laser games may have been fun in the arcades, will it work in the home?

● Sega don't seem to be having much luck on the courtroom front. They've been summoned again. This time, a US company is suing them for £30 million. Beeshu Incorporated has filed 14 complaints against the company, including breach of licensing agreements and breach of copyright. Apparently, Sega were due to publish some of Beeshu's games, but released very similar games under their own name instead. Although the court room battle will cost both sides thousands of pounds, Beeshu are determined to win the case. However, it's likely that Sega will counter sue the company, so what happens is anyone's guess.

● News has just reached us that Microprose have closed two of their offices in the UK. This leaves them with a solitary head office in Tetbury. No one at Microprose was available for comment, but the company has recently restructured its American division after financial worries. We'll have more news on the subject next month.

● Konami are boosting their Mega Drive support and have a few releases planned for 1993. Although they haven't disclosed many of their titles, they are planning a Ninja Turtles follow up. Entitled Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles - Tournament Turtles, the game should be available in late November.

● EA announced record profits for the first quarter of the 1994 fiscal year. The company made $7,318,000, a 53% rise for the same period last year. Amazing really, when you consider the recession and all that.

● Codemasters have a whole TV programme dedicated to their latest character and forthcoming game, Cosmic Spacehead. It will be aired in October, although it will only go out in Central regions. Boo!

HOLD THE SPAGHETTI

You know the score. As soon as you want to play a two-player game, all the joypad's wires become tangled up. The result is one big mess and lots of frustrated games players. The situation could get even worse with the arrival of Sega's four-player Tap and EA's Four-way Play. Well, worry no more, because help is on the way. MSU Limited have the problem under control, with their latest product, the Micro Genius. This is a remote control joypad that can operate up to 20ft away from the TV. Remote control pads have been offered before, but the Micro Genius is different. It has an extra-wide beam and will follow the movement of the controller exactly. What's more, two controllers can use the same receiver, so you won't have to shell out for two receivers.

The Micro Genius has three fire buttons, a turbo/auto fire button and a slow motion switch. It retails at £29.95 for the joy pad and receiver, or £19.95 for the joypad alone. It should be available any day now in most good computer games shops.

THE LISTENING BANK

Banks have always offered young people incentives to open accounts with them, but Midland pride themselves in being more than generous.

Customers

between the age of 13-18 can open a

Livecash account and, among the many benefits they'll receive, is a voucher for 25% off computer games. You can open an account with as little as £1 and in addition to vouchers for games, you'll also receive other shopping vouchers to the value of £70. Whenever a voucher is used, Midland will also replace it. That means you never need pay full-price for a game ever again. However, there is one catch. Games have to be chosen from a special list that Midland publish. While most of the games are up to date, there aren't many to choose from, although Midland will be updating the service now and again. For more information, consult any Midland Bank.

MORE MANGA, PLEASE

Well, you hear it here first! A couple of months ago we reported that the Manga video classic, Akira is being converted to all Sega formats. Unfortunately, none of the versions will be completed before the end of the year, but Manga have more new videos to keep you happy in the meantime.

First up is 3x3 Eyes part 2. Yakumo Fujii was a normal student until he met a young girl named Pai. Pai is the last descendant of the mystic Triclop. Sanjian Unkará and after she saves his life, Yakumo is indebted to her. What he doesn't know is that he is now destined to live forever, just like Pai. The only way they can regain mortality is by locating the Ningen, a statue of humanity. This is an 18 certificate, so there are some unsuitable scenes and any kids reading this should make sure they don't watch it!

Next up is Judge. This is a chilling tale of the underworld, where dead people can wreak revenge on the living through a book known as the Statute. Controlled by a mild mannered office worker, who is really the Judge of Darkness, the dead look set to take over the land of the living. However, the living have one weapon. If only they knew what it was! This is slightly less violent than 3x3 Eyes, so only comes with a 15 certificate.

Finally, Ultimate Teacher sees the age old struggle between a gym teacher and his pupils. Ganbachi is determined to beat his students into shape, but a few of them have other ideas. Hinako and her friends, the Pinball Gang, have cunning plans to stop Ganbachi once and for all. This has provisionally been awarded a 15 certificate.

I died on the night of September the 21st 1693. I remember little of the next day.

On the 23rd, the times of day and night were equal throughout the world. It was the autumnal equinox, a very special time. But there was something more. There was a fantastic effect in the night sky over Consett. It started out unusually black but then began to lighten. A point of light appeared and slowly moved toward the brightest part of the sky. Then a swirling sheet of all colours uncurled from a circle eight miles wide. It twisted and moved like a gigantic flame of blue, purple, red, yellow, green, orange and all their shades and all their mixes. It reached higher and higher through the atmosphere. From the top, it spread outwards like paint being poured into the sea. The shooting star touched it and the shape of the flame changed. It seemed to be pulling the point of light downwards towards its origin. The starlight followed downwards and the colours swirled behind.

I cried. Not as a baby would normally cry from the sudden impact of the outside world after a warm comfortable stay but from the awe of the overwhelming spectacle that greeted me on my birth. The sky turned white with a shower as if from a massive firework then just as quickly turned yellow then the most vivid and beautiful red like the ultimate sunset.

My tears belied an unimaginable joy at life and an overwhelmingly serene feeling of achievement. I knew I had the secret. I am immortal.

But then the unexpected happened. Another spot of light moved through the sky. It was faster than the first. It was coming this way. Was it dangerous? Would it do any damage? I cried again, this time with fear. My mother hurriedly took me into the cavern to watch. The colours quickly flashed again into the middle of the red sky. There was a close sound of thunder. Again the shower of white, yellow and red which mixed into the already widening volume of red sky. My mother started trembling which added to my fear. I tried to speak but as yet I could not control my newborn body well enough. Something big was falling towards us so fast it whistled and I was completely powerless.

Remember all things in the universe are linked in harmony.

NEWS FROM

JAPAN

You may have read the article in SEGA PRO #22, Killer Bats, which reported on the future release of Vampire Killer, a platform adventure that has already made its mark on the SNES. Vampire Killer is hoped to be one of the most challenging and addictive games this year. It's set to be a big title in Japan and will now be released here about the same time, here's everything you will possibly need to know about Konami's November release.

The story begins in 1897 with Dracula having been laid to rest by Kincy Morris of the Belmont family. After many years of peace, World War I broke out and sent Europe towards a terrible circumstance with misery and darkness everywhere. History states that the assassination of the Prince of Austria led to the outbreak of the war, but this is not the whole story.

Elizabeth Bartley was a vampire in the early 15th Century. She had sucked the blood from hundreds of girls, eventually coming to grief in Transylvania, where she was executed. She used a ceremony of evil to conquer the human souls of Europe and revive her dead uncle, Dracula. The Belmonts' battle is about to start all over again.

The five main characters to the story are Jonny Morris, Eric Lecarde, Drotia Tzuentes, Elizabeth Bartley and Count

Dracula. Jonny is the main character and Eric has been sent along to help him against the evil Count. As with the recently released Jurassic Park, you are given the option of playing as one of two characters, Jonny or Eric. In the SNES version you weren't given this choice.

You begin your journey in Dracula's Castle with the general idea to kill everything in the way and collect all the power-ups as you proceed. Secret rooms and diverging routes are hidden in each stage, giving the potential for a challenging and deeply involved platform adventure.

As the game evolves into a deadly mission against the forces of darkness, you are taken through scenarios such as the Leaning Tower of Pisa, the Palace of Versailles and finally Proselpina Castle. As in the SNES game, Castlevania IV, you face the evil Count Dracula himself.

The Mega Drive version, will be called Castlevania - The New Generation and will be released during November. Until then, take a look at the latest screen shots and the new characters. A full review of the official version will be featured in next month's issue of SEGA PRO, so reserve your copy now!

LAUGH YOUR SOCKS OFF

The CD-ROM version of a traditional Japanese board game, Mah-Jong, is to be released before the end of the year. We recently featured a story on the Mega Drive version, but this is updated and gives us even more reason for a good laugh.

Eight competitors travel the world in the Mah-Jong tournament, each with their personal strengths and weaknesses. There is a standard overhead view as you look onto the table – everything you could wish to know about the game has been included. The text is entirely in Japanese, as you may expect, but if you're conversant with the finer details of the game there should be few problems.

Eight competitors must play each other at various cities around the world including London, New York and Paris. Mah-Jong is very similar to poker in that it involves heavy gambling; the winner being the player with the best hand. Although no money actually changes hand – but then again I suppose it's possible – the tension could be unbearable for gambling fans.

If you know how to play Mah-Jong there may be hope for you, otherwise wait until some wacky software house decides to convert this officially, but expect a long wait.

NIP BITS

● Silpheed has hit Japan by storm and everything about the game has been reported on including massive full-colour guides to what they see as the best CD-ROM game available on the Sega machine. It hasn't gone down too well here, though, but, over there, it's already the sixth best-selling game this month.

● Sumo may look good, but it seems to be about as appealing as a cold bowl of rice for breakfast. The much publicised release has failed to live up to its expectations and doesn't offer anything new. It looks as if the pot-bellied pasta lovers will have to fight their battles in the ring, not on the screen.

● No longer are the characters that appear in RPG games being created from scratch, they are now designed using real people. Sugimoto is an attractive Japanese game freak who has just found herself in her very own video game. Unfortunately, the programmers haven't done her any favours as she sports a pair of school mistress' glasses and a stupid grin. It's unlikely that anyone is going to recognise her in the street: the graphics look worse than a poor Master System game.

● Lucky owners of the new LaserActive machine can dig their teeth into the latest release I Will. Everything from gambling to walking by the side of a river has been thrown onto the disc in an attempt to re-create what looks like a typical English lifestyle. Maybe the Mega-CD is a better buy after all!

● Continuing the LaserActive story, there is a strong possibility that several of its games are to be conversions from machines such as the Mega Drive and PC.

● If you're a betting person, the latest game from Koei could be of interest. Winning Post is a simulated race meeting where everything from putting down your cash to seeing the winner romp home has been included. If the first glances are anything to go by, it's going to have a very similar style of gameplay to King Salmon. I think I'll pass if you don't mind.

● An ambitious Mega-CD role-playing game is being worked on at present in power mongering, war-faring Japan. Record of Londoss War follows the fairly unoriginal story of a battle against evil forces in a mysterious fantasy zone. A superb introduction sequence has been put together, but this is all that has been available so far and it is expected that the game will take some months to complete.

FOUR PLAY

Fans of the classic arcade puzzle game, Columns, are in for a treat. Columns 3 is under development and is to arrive in a 4Mbit cartridge, hopefully by Christmas. The object of the game is exactly the same as before, guide the falling bricks into the best position to make up a line or group of three or more colours.

Originally a two-player game, now four players can compete against each other in a fantastic head-to-head tournament. The Sega Tap makes yet another appearance to allow more addiction. Tougher gameplay, more options and the multi-player option are sure to offer a new lease of life to the out-dated original.

ARCADE JETMAN

The latest release to hit the arcades is Gundam, a one-on-one Street Fighter II derived game featuring jet-pack powered robots. The aim of the game is to win the best-of-three bouts by hitting your opponent enough times to sap his energy away to zilch. Does this sound familiar to you too?

There is a host of characters to choose from with a wide range of power-ups to be earned during the game. Special weapons and armour are among the best collectable items.

Gundam features state of the art graphics and stereo sound to match, but the gameplay doesn't initially seem up to the SFII standard. It could be just a bit too far fetched, what with laser beam-armed, jetpack-fuelled fighters. The Japanese, however, are going crazy over this and it could well end up in a few arcades over here.

GAMES

COMING TO SEGA SYSTEMS

Feast your eyes over the next four pages to see what will be hot in the next few months. If you need some information about up and coming releases, then read on. You won't find a more comprehensive guide anywhere.

SPIDER-MAN AND THE X-MEN

ACCLAIM • NOVEMBER • £39.99 • 8Mbit

The Mega Drive has seen many super heroes in its time, but Acclaim's latest release combines two all-time greats! Spider-Man and the X-Men team up to combat the forces of evil in this manic platform adventure. Unfortunately, the evil Arcade has imprisoned each super hero in their own personal hell. To get out of their environment, they will have to break through the security system. This means deactivating all the security cameras before anyone sees them!

At the beginning of the game, you'll play Spider-Man. To play a different character, you'll have to rescue one of the X-Men from prison. Each character has two of their own levels to get through and they all have different weapons.

Although the ultimate aim is to defeat Arcade, there are lots of level guardians and sub tasks to complete.

Fans of Spider-Man are bound to love this and with the added features of the X-Men, it's sure to be a hit. Look out for it in November.

LETHAL ENFORCERS

KONAMI • NOVEMBER • £TBA • CD

Konami are currently developing their own laser gun to be packaged with this title. Little is known of the product at the moment, except that it will definitely not be compatible with Sega's Menacer.

Originally found in the arcades, the CD version remains true to the original. Terrorists have taken over the world and it's up to you to stop them. With the aid of your trusty gun, blast your way around five action-packed levels that are filled with ultra-violence. This features many digitised graphics as well as traditional shoot-'em-up gameplay.

NFL QUARTERBACK CLUB

ACCLAIM • OUT NOVEMBER • £49.99 • 16Mbit

Although Acclaim's strengths don't lie in sports sims, all of their efforts have been ploughed into this release. Featuring teams from the real NFL league tables, it hopes to compete with all-time great John Madden Football. Real players have been digitised for the game and all-star teams are featured in the team line ups. The pitch is seen from an angled overhead perspective, to give players a more realistic view of the area. Unfortunately, this release won't be making the most of the four-player tap, but it will have a two-player option.

BATTLETECH

IMPORT • OUT FEBRUARY '94 • £TBA • CD

Battletech is a conversion from an RPG board game. Obviously, the action side has been spiced up a bit, but the gameplay structure remains the same. Based in the 28th century, Battle Mechs meet on rocky terrains to do each other in. If you're wondering what a Battle Mech is, well, it's a human-shaped armoured vehicle. Starting out as a rookie, you'll have to blast opponents to gain money for extra parts. There are 25 different missions in all and five different terrains to fight on. There's also a two-player mode where human opponents can fight head to head. There are no plans for an official release, but if you're interested, see your local store.

THIRD WORLD WAR

IMPORT • OUT DEC • £TBA • CD

This is a game with no morals whatsoever! Choose to lead one of 16 different countries, then plot your way to world domination. You control the chosen country's military, economic, foreign and domestic affairs, so you'll take the rap if it all goes wrong! Strategies are based on real world events and if you really can't handle being beaten, you could always nuke the rest of the world!

DUNE

VIRGIN • NOVEMBER • £TBA • CD

Dune has already been released for the PC and Amiga, and the forthcoming Mega-CD release will be identical to the computer versions. The graphics and sound have been enhanced for the Mega-CD hardware, so expect to see some of the best graphics on the machine to date. The adventure follows the film story line down to the last detail. As Paul, son of Duke Leto Atreides, your goal is to gain control of the planet Dune from the Harkonnens. The two families have been enemies since the year dot, but the Harkonnens are ultimately more powerful. The only way they can be defeated is by joining forces with the Freman, the original inhabitants of the planet. They have only one wish and that's to see the beginning of an eco-system in their world. If Paul can persuade them that he is the great leader who will bring them both freedom and life, they may just side with him.

Gameplay focuses on a traditional RPG, but this will definitely be more interactive than adventure games of the past. Live actors are used to play parts in the game, original film shots have been used and real conversations can be struck up. Look out for it in November. The computer versions were a huge success and this should be one of the best adventures to date if it uses the Mega-CD's advanced capabilities.

BLADES OF VENGEANCE

EA • NOVEMBER • £39.99 • 8Mbit

Set in fantasy surroundings, this is the latest platform shoot-'em-up from EA. Choose one of three characters and use them to defeat the evil Shadowlord. However, he won't appear until the last level of the game, so you'll have to destroy vampires, medusas and zombies if you want to keep occupied. Spells can also be cast on enemies and these can be picked up within the levels.

Although the game has a fantasy theme, it plays in real time. This means that different monsters will appear at different times of the day. There's also a simultaneous two-player option so you can team up with a friend for a major blasting session!

ZOMBIES ATE MY NEIGHBOURS

KONAMI • NOVEMBER • £39.99 • 8Mbit

Two American teenagers have discovered something very strange in their neighbourhood. The whole area has been overtaken by zombies! The inhabitants of the town have either been eaten or fled and it's up to the two guys to clean up the neighbourhood. Set in a classic shoot-'em-up environment, (similar to Gauntlet), it also has extremely humorous overtones. Look out for it in November, it should be good.

COOL SPOT

VIRGIN • OUT OCTOBER • £32.99 • 4Mbit

Cool Spot has been out on the Mega Drive for a fair while now, but it's still being developed for the 8-bit Sega systems. However, the lack of memory size or technology shouldn't mean that the 8-bit versions will be any worse. In fact, they contain many graphics taken directly from the Mega Drive original with no less than eight levels and seven bonus stages! The MS version should follow in the footsteps of other excellent Master System games released recently and goes to show there's still life in the 8-bit consoles yet! Cool Spot 8-bit may not display all the polish of its big brother version, but it will have all the playability that the original is renowned for. All Sega 8-bit console owners will soon be tempted to help Spot collect cool tokens, while blasting baddies with lemonade fizz. This light-hearted summer release should put a sparkle back into the Sega systems, but it won't be heading for the beach until October at the earliest.

CRASH DUMMIES

ACCLAIM • DECEMBER • £39.99 • 8Mbit

They're back! After a rather ill-fated debut on the Master System and Game Gear, the Crash Dummies went into hibernation. The programmers went back to work on the release and have made many drastic changes to the game's appearance. The basic story remains the same, though: you must guide the Crash Dummies through a week of stunt training. It's undecided how many levels will be included in the game, but it will definitely have more stunts than the 8-bit versions. Although the concept of the Crash Dummies is fairly humorous, it's yet to be seen whether they can really make an impact on the Mega Drive.

BUBBA 'N' STIX

CORE • JANUARY • £39.99 • 8Mbit

This is due for release on both the Mega Drive and the Mega-CD in early 1994. Bubba is an average kid who just happens to be kidnapped by aliens. They are collecting a sample of every species on Earth and Bubba is their human sample! He's not too happy, so with the help of friendly alien, Stix, he devises an escape plan. The aliens are hot on his trail, though, and are determined to make him the number one exhibit in their alien zoo.

PREVIEWS

THE OTTIFANTS

SEGA • OUT OCTOBER • £29.99 • 2Mbit

If you thought that most of Sega's games came from America or Japan, think again! Ottifant is the first game ever to be developed by Sega of Germany. It's not your run of the mill release either. Developed by German comedian Otto Waalkes, it features a strange elephant-like animal known as Ottifant. Ottifant's father has been kidnapped by aliens, so off he goes in search of his dad. Throughout the six levels, you'll have to battle with rubber elephants and killer robots. However Ottifant is equipped with a magic cape and can conduct a variety of bizarre spells. This is due to be released on Mega Drive and Game Gear in the same month, so look out for it.

COSMIC SPACEHEAD

CODEMASTERS • OUT NOVEMBER • £39.99 • 8Mbit

Cosmic Spacehead is the wildest alien tourist ever to grace our planet. His task is to prove to the planet Linoleum that the Earth exists. To do this, he must travel the planet taking photographic evidence.

This is an interactive arcade adventure that stops in many locations other than planet Earth. Cosmic will have to visit a space station, the planet Linoleum, and Detroitica to stop a workers' revolution from getting out of hand!

Each destination is split into a number of smaller play areas, where Cosmic can manipulate and use different objects. He can also talk to different characters along the way. Cosmic is also controlled by a number of commands such as move, look, examine and use, which adds to the interactive feel of the adventure.

In addition to having a main mission, there are 32 sub-games to complete. Astro-car racing is just one of these and if finished, Cosmic will win extra money for his holiday. Graphics are cartoony throughout and have a unique blend of puzzle and arcade elements. Look out for the review next issue.

JOE MONTANA'S NFL FOOTBALL

IMPORT • OUT DEC • £TBA • CD

Joe Montana is a bit of a veteran when it comes to football. He's already made two appearances on the Mega Drive and he's back for more with an all new CD version. Most of the gameplay appearance remains the same as the cart versions, but the player's view has been changed. This time, a 3D perspective is on the cards.

Joe Montana appears in digitised form from time to time and can be called on for game hints and advice. Although the Montana series has been hugely successful in this country, it's not been confirmed whether it will be released officially over here.

BUBBLE AND SQUEAK

IMPORT • OUT NOVEMBER • £39.99 • 8Mbit

Bubble is a young boy who is obsessed with bubble gum. He's constantly followed around by a blue alien named Squeak. Unfortunately, Squeak has been entrusted to Bubble, so it's up to you to make sure they stay out of trouble.

Help the pair collect enough gum for the biggest bubble blowing battle you've ever seen!

MAD DOG McREE

IMPORT • OUT DEC • £TBA • CD

Outlaw Mad Dog McRee and his mates have taken over a wild west town. They've locked the sheriff in jail and have gone on a bender, drinking the saloon dry and causing havoc wherever they go. You are a stranger to town, but according to the townspeople you're the best marksman in the business. You must shoot all of McRee's men and rescue hostages taken around the town. If you're good enough, you may even get to see old McRee himself. It's not been confirmed whether this will use the Menacer, but since it was originally used with a laser gun, it's a high possibility.

F1
DOMARK • OUT
NOVEMBER • £32.99
• 4Mbit

The Mega Drive version was reviewed a couple of months ago, but the Master System and Game Gear versions of F1 are still under development. However, both versions are hoping to bring some new elements into the traditional racing sim.

As well as being incredibly fast, the title features real racing drivers, real teams and real racing tracks. Hills and tunnels have also been included, which is the first time this has been attempted on either of the machines.

To make the simulation even more realistic, Domark have also incorporated pit stops and varying weather conditions. If you're feeling really competitive, you could always have a go at their two-player split-screen option. So far, this has only been attempted on the doomed GP Rider, so Master System owners will be in for a real treat. For Game Gear owners, this is played via a Gear-to-Gear option. With so many different options, this could be one of the best releases this autumn.

WWF ROYAL RUMBLE
ACCLAIM • OUT NOVEMBER • £49.99 • 16Mbit

Shut up and get in the ring! The guys from the World Wrestling Federation are back! This time they want you to join in their Royal Rumble (sounds a bit dodgy to me). If you're unfamiliar with Hogan and the rest of the boys, a Royal Rumble involves all the wrestlers getting in to one ring. They then beat each other up and the one left standing is the winner. That's about all there is to it really.

If you don't fancy a bit of a rumble, you could always enter a one-on-one bout. If you don't fancy that, there's an option to play in either a tag-team or triple-team match. Although this doesn't use the four-player tap, two players can play on the same side or against each other in a head-to-head. Although the Rumble may be a new option, this sounds very similar to previous WWF games. However fans are bound to love it and if you've got a warped sense of humour, you might love it too!

BEETHOVEN
IMPORT • OUT OCTOBER • £39.99 • 8Mbit

Apparently in America, Beethoven the St Bernard is a superstar! He's already been in his own movie and now he stars in his very own game. Beethoven and his wife, Missy have just had children. Now, as you can imagine, they're very difficult to take care of. They've all managed to wander off and Beethoven has to get them back before Missy finds out. The two-player option sounds promising, but whether it features simultaneous play hasn't been disclosed.

This is another game aimed at a younger audience, with the emphasis on learning more than action.

SPEEDWAY PRO CHALLENGE
IMPORT • OUT OCTOBER • £39.99 • 8Mbit

Renovation may have concentrated their main efforts on converting old laser games lately, but they have got a few more titles up their sleeve. Speedway Pro Challenge puts you in the seat of a Grand Prix racer. Set to challenge

F1 for the number one spot in America, it features fast and furious gameplay. All the usual racing options have been included and its two-player split-screen mode will definitely please the racing fans, but it's unlikely to be released officially.

MICRO MACHINES
CODEMASTERS • OUT
OCTOBER • £32.99 • 4Mbit

Micro Machines was the game that put Codemasters on the games playing map and since then, they've enjoyed huge success. The Codies have always been dedicated to the 8-bit computer market and will shortly be releasing Micro Machines on the Master System and Game Gear. On both formats, it can be played in either one or two-player mode (using the Gear-link on the handheld) and offers over 27 levels of gameplay. Races take place in many different places, from the bedroom to the bathroom and each player controls a miniature racing car.

MY PAINT
IMPORT • OUT OCTOBER
• £39.99 • CD

We've seen Art Alive on the Mega Drive and although it was fun, the lack of a save option rendered it useless.

My Paint is more of a general family title that either allows you to draw and paint your own pictures or colour in a screen from a library of pre-drawn pictures. This is obviously aimed at a younger audience and the only action you'll find will come from your own paint brush. Nice idea, but there's one serious flaw: even if you can save the paintings, what are you going to do with them after that?

NINJA OF THE "Nth" DIMENSION

Zool is a relative newcomer to the video games world, but he's certainly made a massive impact in the last year. After being released on the Amiga last Autumn, he rocketed into the number one position of the game charts and became one of the best selling games of the year.

Work has already begun on Zool 2, but the original is set to be released on the Mega Drive in November. The hype for it has already started and even at this early stage, people are hailing Zool as the new console hero. Sam "urai" Hickman visited Zool's creators, Gremlin Graphics to see just what the hero from outer space has to offer.

● The game gets stranger as you go along! Here we have some lethal sticks of candy floss!

Gremlin Graphics are a well-established software house, but they've only just started to develop games for Sega consoles. Their first release features their most successful and flagship character, Zool. This streetwise alien from the Nth dimension out sold other games by four-to-one when it was first released in September 1992. It's still selling as we speak. The Mega Drive version hits the shops in November and as it's practically identical to the Amiga version, it should be just as huge a success on cartridge as it was on disk.

● This rubber duck is out to cause major grief for Zool, so he'll have to get out of the bath pretty quickly.

Zool is an alien space traveller. He's a strange character to say the least. Looking slightly similar to a small ant, but with the attitude of a super star, this alien being means business. Help him and he'll be your friend for ever. Cross him and you'll be wishing you'd never been born!

Zool's job is to travel through intergalactic space, spreading positive thoughts and encouraging free use of imagination. During one of his extra special missions through deepest space, he encounters a few engine troubles. His spaceship goes out of control and he is forced to land on an unknown planet in a strange galaxy.

Flying gooseberries are one of Zool's biggest problems. Even if he zaps them, they keep coming back!

Previous experience tells him this can only mean one thing – trouble. Further investigation proves his suspicions correct. The forces of non-imagination (namely Krool and his assistant, Mental Block) have taken over the planet and have turned the most inanimate objects into killing machines.

Although Zool is from the Nth dimension, a totally different environment to the planet he's landed on, he has encountered non-imagination before. They are the sole enemies of the Nth dimension, who promote the power of creativity, free thought and the benefits of positive action. The Nth dimension exists everywhere, even on Earth, and is always under attack from the non-imaginations. They seek to destroy any form of free thought and unless Zool stops them, they will succeed.

EEK! The attack of the killer tomatoes is in full swing, or maybe they're cherries! Hard to tell really, but whatever they are, they're going to give Zool a run for his money. The same goes for the giant carrots later on in the level.

Unfortunately Zool's spaceship has sunk, so he's stuck on the planet. To leave the world, he'll have to battle with the forces of evil and restore the planet back to its usual self. Difficult, to say the least! To make matters even trickier, Krool and his cronies have the ability to change into any object they desire. This means that in each level, the most innocent objects can turn out to be lethal killers. If each level isn't completed in a certain time, Zool will fail his mission and the Nth dimension will cease to exist!

However, Zool isn't totally alone in his struggle against the darker forces. His female equivalent Zooz will appear from time to time. She will mimic all of Zool's activities, helping him eradicate any enemies.

To destroy all traces of non-imagination, Zool will have to battle his way through seven totally

A GREMLIN IN THE WORKS

The guys at Gremlin are a busy little lot, but after a lot of persuasion and a few beers, they managed to answer a few of our questions!

Did you ever think Zool would be the success it has been?

Seeing the product through development, we knew that Zool would be an outstanding game. Zool is more than just a game character. He's now a Ninja in his own right and is soon to launch his own merchandise. Although we expected Zool to be one of our most successful games, we were slightly surprised at how successful it has been.

How long has the conversion from Amiga to Mega Drive taken?

All said and done, it's taken nine months.

In your opinion, which of the two versions is better?

Although Zool is the best game on the Amiga, we do feel that the Mega Drive version is better. We now have more experience in designing maps and the graphics have been improved. There is a fine line between making a game better and making change just for the sake of it. Therefore, the Mega Drive version is bigger, but the gameplay is in line with the original.

Has a sequel to Zool been planned for the Mega Drive?

Zool 2 will be released on the Amiga in November, but we've no plans for a Mega Drive sequel at the moment. We're going to wait and see how successful it is and then decide.

Zool is primarily designed for the Amiga. Why will it appeal to Sega owners?

After the Amiga release, we were immediately asked for a console version. Since then, we have worked on a Mega Drive release. Zool is an instantly recognisable character and there are exceptional graphics on all versions.

What changes had to be made for the Master System and Game Gear versions?

Both have fewer levels and the graphics have been altered. Gameplay has also been changes to make a more puzzle oriented adventure.

Any plans to release a version on the Mega-CD?

No comment (that means yes!)

psychedelic levels. His adventure begins in the Sweet World and is followed by the Music World, the Tool World, the Fruit World, the Shoot-'em-up World, the Fun Fair World and the Toy World.

● Ah! Monster bees with liquorice allsort wings! These guys mean business too – if you don't dispose of them immediately, they follow you through the level. Kind of like bees in real life, I suppose!

● When Zool's not worrying about saving the Nth dimension he often gets some piano practise in. However, being a small green alien, he can't use his fingers. Instead he has to jump on the key, producing some less than tuneful noises.

PROS

Zool is primarily concerned with saving the Nth dimension. To help the Nth force, he has trained for years to become an expert Ninja. This means that in addition to his extraordinary fighting powers, he is also incredibly versatile. To get around each level, Zool has a variety of animated characterisations. He can punch, kick and shoot enemies and is able to use magic on them. Magic is picked up in a level and although it can't be selected, once picked up, it will last for a certain amount of time. Some spells will wipe all enemies off screen, others will give him a shield or extra jumping power. He can also cling to walls, monkey climb, run, slide and spin

LET'S GO MENTAL

Zool's biggest enemy is the ruthless Mental Block.

Unfortunately, Mental dislikes anything that resembles fun, colour or life in any form. He works for Krool the Unseen, Master of Nothingness.

If there's one thing that Mental Block can't stand, it's people having a good time. His ultimate aim is to destroy the Nth dimension, although to do that, he'll have to destroy Zool. His special powers include the ability to take the form of any object he likes, therefore confusing Zool at any opportunity. Watch out for him, he's determined to curb the power of imagination at any cost.

jump.

Zool also has a friend that can help him in his quest. She can't be controlled by the player, but she will copy Zool's actions. This means she can be used to kill enemies, although if she gets hit once she will disappear. Zooz can be found by jumping on the black and white Z pills littered around the levels.

Bonuses can be found in every level and range from extra lives to extra time and bomb pick ups. If you manage to get through each level and defeat the guardian at the end of the fourth stage, you'll be treated to a bonus stage. Here, Zool must navigate his spaceship through the planet, picking up bonuses and shooting Krool's cronies.

Graphically, Zool is very humorous and totally psychedelic! Each level has a theme, and that includes everything from the pick ups to the enemies!

The adventure is also played at incredibly high speeds. Our little alien claims to be able to whip Sonic

The Hedgehog any day and when you consider that Sonic is the fastest character on the Mega Drive, it's really a bold claim!

As mentioned before, when Zool was released on the Amiga, it was surrounded by an enormous amount of hype. Thankfully, the gameplay matched the publicity and the title was an instant success. The Mega Drive version is almost identical and has the same instant playability and addiction as the Amiga original. Although the two markets are considerably different, Gremlin have ensured that this is a character that will appeal to Sega console owners everywhere.

PROPLAY

Zool is basically a standard arcade adventure, but it's also much, much more. There are hundreds of levels, a massive variety of graphics and although the gameplay has the same style throughout, it doesn't have the monotony of many arcade releases. The controls are absolutely user friendly and with so much character animation, it's a joy to play. However, it's very hard to compare this release to other titles. In some ways, it's similar to Sonic the Hedgehog, as the object is to pick up high speeds through a level, collecting bonuses and defeating level guardians. However, Zool has much more depth. There is a wider gameplay area to explore and the graphics are certainly more fun!

Each of the seven worlds offer little challenge at first, although by the fourth stage of each level, action becomes totally chaotic! Beginners may find it a little difficult, but at least this is a game that you can get your teeth into. It's also big enough to keep more advanced players occupied. Each time you play, you'll manage to progress a little further and this definitely adds to the addiction of the adventure.

Basically, if you like arcade adventures then you're bound to find Zool the best thing this side of the cosmos! He's got bags of charisma, tons of attitude and a brilliant adventure to match.

Zool is currently undergoing its last play testing routines and although the game is currently considered finished, if the testers don't like it, the programmers may have to make some last minute changes. Look out for it in the shops around November, but if you can't wait until then, tune into next month's SEGAPro for the full review!

ALL ABOUT KICKING

Mark "nutmeg" Hill evaluates the different football games on sale and takes a close look at the development which has led to the action on console becoming ever closer to that of the actual sport.

It wasn't until the mid-Eighties that one of the first realistic football games was launched. From there, the basic features set the foundations for many future releases. The game was International Soccer on the C64 and it used advanced techniques, such as horizontal scrolling, the nearest-the-ball select mode and also the revolutionary 8-way kick.

Since the humble days of these 8-way kick games, features have multiplied with new ideas bringing household football ever closer to the real game.

Such upgrades have not only been influenced by the philosophies of football, but mainly by the marketing wave that accompanies each major football event.

In many ways, the World Cup and European Championships have supplied the platform for the whole football development structure.

World Cup Italia '90 became a popular release following the Italian's four-week bonanza of flair and glamour. US Gold capitalised with their mediocre licence. But was that bad? How many games did its poor showing initiate because developers were sure that they could develop a better version? Erm, very few actually!

That's all changing now, of course. Europe has always been a strong football continent, but with the upsurge of the Japanese football league and World Cup '94, which the USA will host, the three largest Sega markets, namely Japan, USA and Europe, are now poised for a soccer onslaught. This time, though, because of the huge competition, and the ferocity of the critical press, most developers are striving to do it right!

Electronic Arts will release EA Soccer on the MD in December, while Sony plan a late November release of Sensible Soccer on all formats. These are the two hotly awaited titles, but there are many more. In November, Accolade will release Pele, while Acclaim are striving to find a licence for their footy game that's due out in the same month. Psygnosis will enter the fray in January 94, Codemasters will have a footy game around the same time, Virgin are sure to release Goal sometime next year and US Gold have the license to produce an officially endorsed game that's sure to be released just before the actual event. Probe are developing Virtua Soccer – probably for Sega, but that's just pure journalistic speculation. And that's just European developers. There's sure to be even more plans from the Japanese and American programmers.

IT'S WAR

As the football scene on console reaches fever pitch, it's interesting to see just how many additional options are now available to football enthusiasts.

During the Eighties, a game of footy on your 8-bit computer would take an age to load and would probably end up being fairly simple to play. Yet, from those days, more features and options have been constantly added to enhance the appeal, if not to make games more realistic. This has caused the development to become more competitive as companies strive to produce the biggest-selling product to date. The rewards are huge: The programmer of Kick Off soon became a one-hit millionaire, while the company who published it, Anco, became a one-hit phenomenon. They are still raking in licensing fees, running into millions, from the product.

Current releases now contain penalties, free kicks, off-side and, in the case of J League ProStriker, even the back pass rule where the goalkeeper cannot pick up the ball from a defender's kick! The after-touch effect raised the skill element when Kick Off offered players the option to curl amazing shots around free kick walls and control the direction of swerve during free play. Players were given more variety with control over types of kick strengths and direction of shots. There's now a greater flexibility with plenty of play options that provide more control and a greater feel of satisfaction.

The two most recent releases, J League ProStriker release from Japan and Sega's Ultimate Soccer, include most of the soccer rules and features, though the two games vary in appeal and class. However, both make use of the Sega Tap with Ultimate Soccer supporting up to eight players simultaneously!

Like live football action, the game on console produces different patterns of play and becomes very competitive and challenging. Every time you pick up the joystick, you know you're in for a different game – and that's why football video games are so appealing.

A KICK IN THE PARK...

There are many different angles that have been used on football parks over the years. Here are those which have hit the Sega systems.

TOP-DOWN

The layout of the J League pitch is very similar to that of Kick Off except the view has depth so you get a closer look at the players' animated moves. Judging the height of the cross-bar still poses a problem if you're playing down field, but when you attack the top goal it's great watching a free kick bend round the human wall, past the goalie and into the corner of the net. On the Mega Drive, J League is unique in its view, but Ultimate Soccer on the Master System adopts this angle instead of the less conventional 3-D view its Mega Drive counterpart has introduced.

Games which use this view: Ultimate Soccer (MS), J League (MD, shown)

UP AND DOWN

This adopts a very complex scaling system and the view suffers because of it. The scaling can give you a breath-taking sight of the goals and there are no less than three variations, although slight, in viewing angles. The perspective of the pitch is a half-way compromise between the first person view as found in Super Soccer (SNES) and the top view as in Super Kick Off (MD).

Games which use this view: Ultimate Soccer (MD, shown)

OVERHEAD

The overhead view was first used on the computer versions of Kick Off many years ago. It has become a popular view for arcade releases and was adopted for many of the first Sega footy games. The advantages are that the view is two-dimensional and it is easy to accustom yourself with the ball and player positions.

There shouldn't be a problem with missing the ball, but you could have problems finding your players unless the pitch map is used!

Games which use this view: Super Kick Off (MD+GG+MS, shown), World Cup Italia '90 (MD+MS), Champions Of Europe (MS)

SIDE-ON

This kind of view has been used in the majority of past footy releases as the perspectives are very clear with the angle similar to that of a horizontally moving TV camera in the stands. Players can see the goal dimensions and have a good view of each player. The big advantage of a side-on pitch is that you can see where most of the players are. Titles such as European Club Soccer on the MD and World Cup Soccer on the GG use this view to good effect.

Games which use this view: Tecmo World Cup '92/'93 (MD), European Club Soccer (MD), World Cup Soccer (GG), Tecmo World Cup (MS, shown)

MATCH OF THE DAY

So, how does the gameplay fair on current releases? At the end of the day, all we want to see a football game that's playable and realistic.

It's all right having desktop stats and TV techniques, such as replays and fading score updates, but these must work with the gameplay to have any significant effect. Here are the games that are currently on sale, although you may be hard pushed to find some of the older titles.

CHAMPIONS OF EUROPE MASTER SYSTEM

Champions of Europe was released in 1992 to coincide with the European Championships when eight nations battled it out for the silver. Graphics during the intro sequences are of a high standard with the concept being very much like Kick Off. The fiddly player control is evident, although not too difficult to master, and after-touch provides extra skill.

Champions Of Europe is THE football game for the Master System and nothing else has come close.

Speech bubbles from the players and referees add a nice touch to the drama while two-player matches enhance the play as the challenge becomes twice as interesting. Despite the limited options, gameplay is competitive and challenging.

SUPER KICK OFF MEGA DRIVE

When Kick Off was released on the Amiga, the game became a classic as its unique control method and bucketful of options provided many interested footy enthusiasts with a decent arcade game. The MD version includes the same informative and lively icon screens along with a smooth scrolling pitch and plenty of playing options such as free kicks, penalties and after-touch.

The dribbling is very frustrating as the ball doesn't stick to your feet. Although Super Kick Off has many credible features, there is still plenty of room for improvement.

SUPER KICK OFF MASTER SYSTEM

80%

Like the MD version, this has many options that stretch to the depths of different referees and random pitch conditions. The pitch is plain, yet displays the action suitably. The same frustration of Kick Off controls – ie balls not staying at the feet – is evident, but once mastered, the challenge is enhanced.

More than three sprites on screen tends to slow the action down a little, but this is a very basic and playable arcade interpretation of football that has all the options you'd expect to see in a real footy match. The after-touch increases the skill factor and the arrow icon selection boxes for corners only strengthen the strategic capabilities of Super Kick Off. Penalty shoot-outs can also be a lot of fun with the famous moving arrow that tests your reaction. This is a worthwhile footy sim despite the fact it takes a while to get into the action.

SUPER KICK OFF GAME GEAR

Even the small screen version of Super Kick Off manages a two-player gear-link option so you can play against a friend. However, playing a big game on a small screen takes time to adjust to with frequent screen blurs and poor visibility. Sprites are tiny and thumbs could well be sore before you even get to grips with the controls.

Options are still as comprehensive as ever, though a few memory consuming screens have been left out. The absence of the scanner gives you a wide view of the whole screen that speeds up gameplay.

Super Kick Off was the first ever footy game on the Game Gear and is still the best today.

TECMO WORLD CUP '93 MASTER SYSTEM

69%

The first disappointment about this release is the limited features. Okay, you can design your own kit and play teams with different strengths, but where are the free kicks and penalties?

The player sprites and game speed look promising initially. However, the sound pulls the ratings down with poor tunes and barely any sound effects. Scoring a goal is also a rare occurrence with luck often being behind a miscalculated shot that somehow made the back of the net.

Tecmo World Cup '93 has a longer life in two-player mode, otherwise detailed sprites and fast gameplay are overshadowed by a poor atmosphere and lack of options.

TECMO WORLD CUP '92/ '93 MEGA DRIVE

59%

The arcade version was very successful with its dandy player sprites that move with aggression and speed. The scaling close-ups during corners, free kicks and goals are additional features only distract from the action. This Mega Drive conversion lacks any skilful elements with passing being just too easy and shooting only amounting to a floating ball that's merely hit at goal in one direction with no spin effects or change of speed.

Sprites are given a lively image that look original despite the simple and thoughtless control methods. Two-player matches can be fun, but the pitch is too small and the content just too shabby and untidy.

Has recently appeared on import as the '93 version of the '92 original, but it's exactly the same game!

ULTIMATE SOCCER MASTER SYSTEM

With Ultimate Soccer arriving on both the MS and MD, it was interesting comparing the two. The MS version has many of the MD release's options though the scaling technique isn't one of these. Nevertheless, the overall gameplay can become fun and very flexible to play.

There are a few dodgy sprite problems and the controls take time to get to grips with. Once the dribbling

MAN OF THE MATCH

J LEAGUE PRO STRIKER MEGA DRIVE

90%

The realistic control method lies behind the success of this release. J League ProStriker is the best footy sim to date as the programmers have focused on player control and movement coupled with worthwhile competition in its multi-player game. The presentation doesn't have too many stats, but they are there.

The Japanese text, omission of instant replays and the odd crash here and there are the only aspects that let the game down. Everything else is perfect. The pitch is the right size, the ball moves with the correct weight, the players are animated well and perform daring moves such as headers, flying headers, volleys, over-head kicks, slide tackles and they even cheekily raise their arms to claim throw-ins!

Free-kicks, throw-ins, penalties, disciplinary cards, back passes, off-side and after-touch options further enhance the on-screen action. This is the closest translation of football yet, but the tournament and statistical options, while not bad, could be much better. Add the options of EA Soccer to the action in J League and you could have the best soccer game ever. We wait in hope, but it may take the skill of the Japanese programmers of J League to pull it off.

and passing is mastered, you'll have time to build up a style and learn to run past defenders with ease. Sliding tackles are often difficult to pull off, sprites don't move very well and the action is often a scrambled and untidy affair, but the variety of options and an additional close up of the goal during penalties make this a worthwhile footy sim.

ULTIMATE SOCCER MEGA DRIVE

70%

This is one of the latest and biggest soccer games to hit the software scene. There are many options and the introduction of a new perspective adds originality. Options include, even the finer, less important, aspects of football that aid the cosmetics. All the features of footy are neatly presented with only the gameplay letting the whole thing down.

Sega's Ultimate Soccer uses a completely different view that scrolls in and out of the screen.

The scaling could have worked better if the visuals were not so flickery. The pitch tends to dazzle you with its heavy lawn stripes and players have poor animation when tackling each other.

The up-down scaling perspective works well and the speed is fast, but the atmosphere is let down by poor sound and a dark and rather bare stadium. Although all the goods are here, they just don't deliver.

WORLD CUP ITALIA '90 MEGA DRIVE

This World Cup endorsement originally received 80% when it was released, but the score has dropped because much better games are now available. Its limited control method is its main fault. Overhead views are badly presented and the sprites are unsuitably large with little animation or realism.

The Italia '90 competition and lack of competition was, no doubt, a major reason why the cart sold by the bucket load then, but it's not up to today's standard.

Overall, the predictable stats for all the 1990 World Cup qualifying teams are included, but, as often is the case, there is no originality and the game pales into insignificance when compared to Super

Kick Off where the same pitch view is used to such a simple, yet credible, effect.

WORLD CUP ITALIA '90 MASTER SYSTEM

77%

Using an overhead view, this MS version looks very simple with its table-top style. Controlling the players is a lot easier than in Kick Off as the ball sticks to players' feet, but this is very unrealistic. In general, there isn't much difference between this and the MD version, though, on the MD, the standard of graphics and sound should have been a heck of a lot better.

WORLD CUP SOCCER GAME GEAR

85%

This second, and very recently released, GG footy game has superb intro screens that paint the World Cup picture to a tee. The game is the GG version of Tecmo World Cup on MS and MD with the same limited moves and a very easy passing system. Like Tecmo, the pitch is viewed from a TV camera angle and the pitch scrolls horizontally. The pitch is small when you compare it with the sprites, but the action can be absorbing and spectacular to watch. Goalkeepers move freely with realistic animation and the players can perform spectacular poses for overhead kicks, volleys, etc.

Penalty shoot-outs and a semi-management facility for building up skill points provide players with more challenge; not to mention the all-important two-player gear-link option. This is a great footy package and a good handheld alternative to the overhead view of Super Kick Off.

EA SPORTS INTERNATIONAL SOCCER

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS!

The leaders in sporting simulations, Electronic Arts, have surprisingly come up with what will hopefully be the best football game ever. Gone are the days of J League and in comes the new EA Sports' International Soccer. Jason "third place" Johnson, being a talented ex-county standard player, was first in line to visit EA Sports.

Electronic Arts are rated as one of the best software houses when it comes to American sports simulations. Classic games such as the NHLPA Hockey series and the John Madden releases certainly back this strong opinion. The World Cup '94 is fast approaching and football sims are the order of the day. Putting all of their resources together, including an excellent Canadian programming team, lead us to the assumption that they're working on something big.

Having played an earlier version of EA

Sports' International Soccer about a month ago, I was fairly set in my ways about what to expect. Yes, it had a great looking isometric view, absolutely loads of options and an unequalled range of animated sequences, but it failed to match up to SEGAPro's firm footy favourite J League ProStriker.

It came as somewhat of a surprise when the latest version, about 80% complete, was powered up. The Italian League music blasted through the speakers and an array of options were presented on-screen.

For starters, how about 40 international teams to choose from, each with real-life players, stats and playing abilities. Follow this up with vastly updated sound effects and a playability that puts it in a league of its own and you're way ahead of anything released to date.

I challenged Matt Webster, Assistant Producer, to a head-to-head battle. The players, team strategies, team coverage, team formations and pitch conditions were selected. We kicked off and the crowd broke into song, roaring as the ball floated into the box. A loud 'Ahhhhhhh' echoed around the terraces, and the office, as Matt's shot went wide. For a change, goal kick-outs prove to be somewhat of a novelty as you guide a view-box to the centre of the pitch and release the ball in the chosen direction.

You really feel in control of where the ball is going, but not to such an extent that it's predetermined by the CPU. Each player has a personal set of attributes and abilities (not to mention matching skin and hair colour) that gives you more control over what you're doing. The simulation, helped along by a fatigue factor to effect the dying minutes, is unmatched. From these first few minutes on the latest version of EA Soccer it was plain to see that this is going to be hot!

● Using the special cursor, control over corners is a complete doddle. You simply aim and fire.

PROS

The disappointing release of Ultimate Soccer has left football fanatics with little choice if they want a solid 90 minutes of football frenzy on their Mega Drive. EA Sports' International Soccer has been the subject of more than a year's hard work and, as the final release approaches, much work is being spent finding out what is likely to make the game a major success.

To begin with, football is one of the most popular sporting activities and there aren't any really good simulation games on the market. J League ProStriker isn't

SOCCER COACHING: THE WEBSTER WAY

Some people in life really do land on their feet and no-one has their size nines planted firmer than Matthew Webster, Associate Producer for EA Sports' International Soccer. Since leaving school, he has worked his way through the ranks at Electronic Arts and is now a key figure in their EA Sports program. Jason "many questions" Johnson dug deep to find out everything about what is shaping up to be the best football game ever.

Q Electronic Arts haven't produced what is seen as an English, rather than American, sports game before. Where did the idea originate from?

A The idea originated in the UK about a year ago. To start the ball rolling we had to write a script, which I was responsible for, and put everything in it that we wanted in the game. This script then had to be approved before work could begin. Fortunately, we had a programming team in Canada and so we went to them with the ideas and that's how it all started.

Q How was the game developed from the early days and what were your original concepts once the go ahead had been given?

A We had to decide what we wanted from the game. For starters, it was agreed that a 16Mbit cartridge would be used and that we'd really push for outstanding graphics and sound. What we also wanted to impress upon was the AI (Artificial Intelligence) of the game. The players in the teams had to play like their real life counterparts.

Q What outside influences altered the development team's ideas, for instance, research must have played a huge role in the early days?

A Yes, we did a lot of research and mainly targeted soccer fans who regularly play video games. We used a total of eight focus groups, compared to the normal two, and that's only up until now. We discussed the concepts and general ideas with these people and, in doing so, we were able to discover what directions to take with the development. The biggest decision, by far, was which pitch view we would use.

Q So why did you choose to use an isometric view instead of the conventional John Madden and NHLPA Hockey angles?

A Well, it looks really cool and the realism gained is unmatched. If you are to watch a game of football on the television you'll notice that you're looking from a side-on angle, so this has to be the best way to play it on a video game. Another reason for the isometric view is that there's no advantage to playing up or down the field, unlike Super Kick Off and similarly viewed games.

Q What is going to make this better than any other football game on the market - bearing in mind that several major software companies have a footy game on their release schedules?

A There are around 16,000 attributes to the game and this includes absolutely hundreds of animated sequences, features and options. Of the 40 International teams every one will feature real-life players with personalised abilities, looks and passing skills. There are to be seven songs that the crowd can sing and you can select specific ones for your team, there'll even be a roar as the players approach the goal area. As we say, "If it's in the game, it's in the game."

Overhead Kick

THE CHOICE IS YOURS

Football is a game of tactics, so no tactics – no game. EA Sports' International Soccer provides even the hardest enthusiasts with everything they could dream of. Here is a guide to the best of what you can expect from EA Sports' football frenzy.

INSTANT REPLAY

At any point in the game you can play-back the action to view your golden moment, or not as the case may be. To accompany this there is an option to watch movements of any particular player, simply by moving the cursor to the desired point.

TEAM STRATEGY

Choose how you're going to attack or defend with the Team Strategy select. All out attack, wide or defensive play are among the available options.

TEAM COVERAGE

How much of the pitch certain parts of your team can cover allows you to tighten your defence or let loose on the attack.

PLAYER SELECTION

Team players and their skill rating are displayed to allow you total control over their positions and suitability.

GAME SET-UP

If you want a wet pitch, you can have a wet pitch. Hot, dry or soggy are on the list of options, as is a wind factor.

TEAM FORMATION

There are six different team formations to choose from and you can see how they work with the on-screen map.

END OF GAME STATS

Find out how well you performed with this concise guide to in-game statistics. Goals, fouls, saves and shots on goal are among the statistical data on view.

FOUR-WAY PLAY

The best option of them all is possible with the Four-Way Play adapter. Plug in this compact add-on and you can play with or against three other friends.

going to be released officially (boo!) and there is a huge gap in the market for a really classy football game.

Not only have EA Sports taken on the task of coming up with a high class game, but they'll need to beat off the competition as World Cup '94 approaches and many major software companies working on football projects. EA Sports' International Soccer seems to be one of the best football games I have ever played and if this becomes a widespread opinion, it cannot fail to be a massive hit. To discover what helps make the game so good, take a look at the screen shots and read through the options available.

SPRITELY!

Each of the footballers will look like their real-life counterparts and will have similar skills!

PROPLAY

The real test for any football game comes when you play it, although the graphics and sound must be realistic the gameplay is all-important. Super Kick Off failed to provide players with realistic play and was the worst version on the Mega Drive. J League ProStriker plays like a dream, but one-player mode tended to leave room for improvement. Any other football sims just haven't made the mark. This is where EA Sports' International Soccer is different.

To start with the graphics are made up of over 2000 frames of animation and a realistic isometric view. It looks stunning and creates a real stadium feeling as the crowd cheers, jeers and eggs their team on. There is an array of options to change the pitch conditions and team kits and finally the real player representation is not only in looks, but tactics and skills.

Controlling your players takes a little getting used to and finding the possible angles to score from is tricky. You can shoot from a long way out of the area and the goalies tend to miss the ball completely, but we were assured this is to be changed before the final release. Other than these slight problems the realism and tension are unmatched.

THIS ISN'T CRICKET!

Unlike cricket, football is a fast-paced, close-contact sport and International Soccer captures the difference.

It's taken well over a year to convert this title to the Master System, but it should be well worth it. Shoot-'em-up fans should definitely check it out. NR

F1 DOMARK £32.99

The Mega Drive version has been highly rated by all magazines, so things already look hopeful for the MS version. Race your way around different tracks to become F1 champion of the year. RV

HOME ALONE SEGA £32.99

Ah, the fun you can have when you're on your own! Why is it that all the interesting things seem to happen when there's no one else around? 63%

THE OTTIFANTS SEGA £32.99

Ottifant's dad has been kidnapped and he's left all alone. He embarks on a search for his father in this bizarre six-level platform adventure from Sega Germany. NR

ROAD RUNNER SEGA £32.99

Join Road Runner in his eternal quest to out wit that dastardly wolf, Wile Coyote. Wile has laid thousands of traps throughout the game, but will Road Runner foil his plans ever again? NR

SONIC 3 SEGA £32.99

It's here! Everyone thought it would appear round about Christmas, but it's been scheduled for an early release. The Game Gear and Mega Drive won't be seeing Sonic 3 until next year, so MS owners are in for a real treat! NR

STREETS OF RAGE 2 SEGA £32.99

The original was a classic in its time and although it's only recently been converted to the Master System, work has already begun on the sequel. The second episode features the same action, although there are new characters and different graphics. NR

ULTIMATE SOCCER SEGA £32.99

Sega are releasing their first football title across all formats. The Master System version isn't as sophisticated as the MD game, but it's definitely more playable. 84%

GAME GEAR

CHUCK 2: SON OF CHUCK CORE £27.99

Chuck Rock has been kidnapped and it's up to baby Chuck to rescue him. He embarks on an expedition through deep jungle to find him. NR

DESERT STRIKE DOMARK £27.99

An Arabian madman is about to take over the world unless you stop him. Take to the skies and blow him off the face of the Earth. NR

F1 DOMARK £27.99

Battle your way around the toughest circuits in the world to become racing champ supreme. Fail and it's the end of your career. NR

JURASSIC PARK SEGA £27.99

You know the story. The power is down in Jurassic Park and the dinosaurs are running wild. Capture them, or it could be you they eat next! NR

THE OTTIFANTS SEGA £27.99

With his magic cape in hand, Ottifant goes in search of his kidnapped father. This looks like an action-packed platformer with just a hint of surrealism. NR

STAR WARS US GOLD £27.99

Anyone who ever got into the Star Wars trilogy will be cheering at the thought of a computerised adventure! This sees archetypal hero Luke battling his wits against the evil Darth Vader. One of the biggest action/adventure titles to ever appear on the hand held. RV

ULTIMATE SOCCER SEGA £27.99

The handheld is about to be flooded with footy sims, but this may prove to please most owners. Play against teams from all over the world and become the ultimate team. NR

MEGA DRIVE

ASTERIX AND THE GREAT RESCUE SEGA £39.99

Asterix was a huge success on the Master System and it's surprising that a Mega Drive version wasn't released earlier. This takes loads of characters from the original Asterix and could be a totally cute platform adventure. NR

CHUCK ROCK 2: SON OF CHUCK CORE £39.99

When Gary Critter kidnaps Chuck Rock, only baby Chuck can save the day. He embarks on an adventure, crushing baddies and drinking lots of milk along the way. RV

DAVIS CUP TENNIS DOMARK £39.99

Developed by Tengen, this is one of the best tennis sims about. The control is a cinch and the gameplay offers a great challenge. 83%

FANTASTIC DIZZY CODEMASTERS £39.99

Dizzy is an egg from another dimension. His mission is to get around his world, avoiding the evil wizard Zaks. He has turned the resident woodland creatures into killers and it's up to Dizzy to set them free. RV

F1 DOMARK £39.99

Now that Sega have sponsored the Williams' cars in the Formula One championships, it only seems fair to have a good game out there. All the thrills and spills of conventional racing and a few more too! 86%

F15 STRIKE EAGLE II MICROPROSE £39.99

This flight sim intends to bring airborne battle into the Nineties. With an improved control method and loads of different missions, it's certainly shaping up well. 88%

HAUNTING EA £49.99

When Guy's relatives decide to knock him off for the family fortune, they don't bank on him returning from the dead. However, Guy has been granted special poltergeist abilities and goes back to haunt them. RV

INTERNATIONAL RUGBY DOMARK £39.99

Rugby never seemed much fun when it was freezing cold on a wet Wednesday afternoon. Armchair sport is definitely much more enjoyable, but does the gameplay match up? RV

LANDSTALKER SEGA £49.99

We've already seen this game on import, but as the main text was in Japanese we had a few problems understanding it! This time the text will be in English, so the gameplay should be excellent! NR

THE OTTIFANTS SEGA £39.99

Ottifants is a platform game packed with strange humour and bizarre graphics. Ottifant is a small elephant-type animal who has lost his father. Join him in his search for his dad. NR

SNAKE, RATTLE AND ROLL SEGA £39.99

This release features a snake as the main character. What with this and Ottifant, it seems as if Sega are moving into more bizarre fields! NR

STREET FIGHTER II SEGA £59.99

After months and months of speculation, SFII will finally appear in October! Start saving now, this is the most expensive and most hyped game of the year. Don't miss it! NR

WORLD CUP SOCCER ACCLAIM £39.99

It seems as if everyone is developing soccer games these days and Acclaim don't intend to be left out. In this, you'll find all the usual football options with a few secret ones too! NR

WWF ROYAL RUMBLE ACCLAIM £49.99

They're back! No sooner had the boys made their first appearance on the Mega Drive they were back for more! Check this out if you're an old crony who enjoys acting like a kid. NR

MEGA CD

C&C MUSIC FACTORY: M.M. VIDEO SEGA £39.99

Hopefully Sega will release three of these games in a month, then forget all about them. They're not exactly value for money and after you've played them once, they become totally boring. NR

ECCO THE DOLPHIN SEGA £39.99

After changing the face of Mega Drive games, Ecco will appear on CD too. However, it's almost the same as the Mega Drive version and is a pretty disappointing effort. 79%

KRIS KROSS: MAKE MY VIDEO SEGA £39.99

Watch Kris do his stuff, then see if you can do any better. There are loads of video techniques to pick up in this game, but unless you intend to take it up as a career you may find it slightly dull. 56%

SEWER SHARK SEGA £39.99

This is yet another disappointing Mega-CD release. This promised Mega-CD owners the Earth, but failed to deliver anything spectacular. Merely, a futuristic shoot-'em-up where you must enter sewers and kill rats. 65%

SONIC CD SEGA £39.99

This is yet another CD release that owners have been waiting for! This time Robotnik has kidnapped one of Sonic's fans, Amy Rose. What can he do, but go after her? NR

THE TERMINATOR VIRGIN £44.99

This is Virgin's first CD release and although it's similar to The Terminator on the Mega Drive, the graphics are far more sophisticated. As Kyle you must destroy all the Terminators before they destroy the rest of the world. NR

THUNDERHAWK CORE £44.99

This is hotly tipped to be THE game of the Autumn. Boasting to be the only game that shows off the Mega-CD's capabilities, it's been hyped as a flight sim of the highest quality. Featuring digitised graphics and special flight techniques, it could be what we've been waiting for. RV

REVIEW SYSTEM

INTRODUCTION

Just a quick rundown of the story behind the game. Usually a quick resumé of what the inlay says – but not as boring.

PROVIEW

The real meat of the review. Here you can find out what we think of every single element of the game. We'll walk you through the game, talking about the graphics, sound, how it plays, and interesting things you may encounter. This is the most informative part of the whole review.

PROTIPS

Just a small slice of help that should make your first few minutes of play less frustrating and hopefully a lot more fun.

PROFILE

All the info you'll need. The phone number given is of the main supplier in the UK and who the Pros got the game from. If the game's on import only, it'll contain an importer's phone number only. The Action/Strategy bar reflects how much strategical element is in the game – it does not mean that the game is a strategy game – you have to read the review comments to discover a game's category.

PROSCORE

We pick out the good and bad points for graphics, sound, gameplay and challenge. While a game may score highly on graphics and sound, it may severely lack in playability. If this is the case, the scores will reflect it. The overall ProScore is calculated from our final opinion of the game, taking into consideration every single factor – including price! This is not an average of any score.

PROYo!

A ProYo! is awarded to any game which receives a rating of 90% or over. Any game which does fall into this prestigious category should definitely be in your collection.

MASTER GEAR

Every Master System review features a section which details how the game played on the Game Gear through the Master Gear convertor. Are the graphics visible, etc.

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

Each game review's score is awarded on the game's own abilities; on how well it was programmed, how well it plays and what it offers the gameplayer. Although the Pros award scores, what we say in the reviews gives you more information to what the strengths and weaknesses of a game are.

By reading the review, you can make a decision whether the game is for you. To help you do this, we have included the second opinion comments. That means that you get the views of not only the reviewer, but also another Pro who thinks that the game might suit them. The opinions give the view of someone interested enough to have a look at a decent game.

IMPORTS

If you want to get games on import, then there are a few points worth remembering which mostly concern the type of machine you own and the games that will run on it.

Japanese machines will run all UK, USA and Asian cartridges, providing they don't have the notorious "PAL lock" on them.

UK machines will play UK and USA carts without any problems, but can't play Japanese carts without an adaptor. Also, some Jap carts will only produce a picture through the AV socket on the back of the Mega Drive. This means that they can only be played on a SCART TV or a monitor.

The obvious disadvantages with import games become apparent when you try and play a Japanese RPG when you can't speak the lingo! However, shoot-'em-ups, beat-'em-ups and platform games need very little in the way of instructions, so these should be okay.

38 JURASSIC PARK 85%
The terror of a park capturing the rebirth of a prehistoric dinosaur age now arrives on console. See how the special effects and prehistoric theme have been interpreted.

66 ADDAMS FAMILY 84%
It's a game of find the family in a house that's bursting with clues. The combination of puzzles and action makes this a promising platformer.

42 FANTASTIC DIZZY 90%
He's a small, very egg-shaped adventurous sort of guy who has been entertaining on screen for years. Now the MD gives this guy the chance to puzzle.

70 TWO TRIBES 88%
A strategic game that stretches to high altitudes with the red tribe up against the blues. See how this Populous sequel fairs as populations diminish in battle.

44 THUNDERHAWK 79%
Take control of an AH-73M chopper and battle through ten of the world's war-torn regions where targets mean merits and merits mean medals!

46 SILPHEED 69%

48 MORTAL KOMBAT 91%
The Shang Tsung holy event now goes portable with only Kano failing to appear. Link with a mate and draw blood in a battle that strips lives and souls.

61 JAMES BOND 2 90%
The impressive MS version boasted brilliant graphics and addictive playability. See the small screen version of the toy factory wonderland.

50 FANTASTIC DIZZY 92%
The Dizzy mania has now swept to all Sega formats with this MS version hoping to create the same quality of cartoon and puzzle effects other formats boast.

54 WOLFCHILD 72%
Make a turn for the better from mortal human to wolfchild warrior in a platformer where the hearts mean power. Does this platformer offer any originality?

64 STAR WARS 90%
The heroics of star fleets from Star Wars make a small screen spectacle of a classic sci-fi movie. It's Luke Skywalker, Death Stars, Asteroids and all that.

68 ANDRE AGASSI TENNIS 48%
Challenge Agassi and the rest to a game of tennis on the old handheld and see how this compares with the mediocre affairs on the MS and MD versions.

74 F1 61%
Take part in the world's most famous motor racing championship and battle it out with the top drivers. Can this release come close to the MD version?

74 SUPER OFF ROAD 84%
Dust over your opponents in a race covering 12 different dirt tracks that will have you splashing and jumping your way to victory. Collect the dosh for gaining that edge.

72 FANTASTIC DIZZY 92%
Give yourself a spinning head as you'll become Dizzy over the puzzling adventure on a small screen. Make sure the batteries are charged for this one.

74 WOLFCHILD 59%
The warrior with the instincts and posture of the wolf makes an intrepid attempt to prove himself as a warrior and become a combat hero by punching and shooting his way to glory.

52 CHUCK ROCK 2 71%
In this sequel the aim is to collect sweets and ice lollies whilst avoiding anything reptile. A platform adventure featuring puzzles and dinosaurs.

56 SUPER BASEBALL 2020 82%
Swing into action in a futuristic baseball bonanza where the robots and humans mix - with bat and ball making the steel. This is no game of rounders!

58 GAUNTLET IV 83%
One of the huge all-time classics leaves it until the fourth in the series before it's seen on the MD. Find out if Gauntlet really is still going places or not.

62 HAUNTING 75%
Vito and Flo have made sure their brother has a hasty death so the inheritance promised is ensured. Play a ghostly role and scare your relatives for revenge!

74 SHINOBI III 80%
The ancient Ninjas contrast with futuristic robotic matter in the third release of the Shinobi platform chain. Check out the changes on page 74.

74 WIMBLEDON 80%
It's time for a visit to the all England club for a thrash around with up to three mates. How does the first MD multi-player tennis fair in comparison to tennis in general?

74 INTERNATIONAL RUGBY 59%
Get into some wet and dirty rugger with a line up of International sides that aim to try. Is this another tame sports sim or does it offer realistic concise gameplay?

74 BART'S NIGHTMARE 75%
Bart's in a deep sleep with a homework collection mission. The street sequel presents Bart in his true world with that cocky image to match.

REVIEW

Biotechnology is the scientific solution to disease, pollution and death. A process where DNA (deoxyribonucleic acid), which can be found in all living organisms, can be tailor made to create perfect, living specimens. Interest in this new phenomenon grew during the mid-Twentieth century and people like John Hammond wanted to turn all this knowledge into hard cash. How else would you go about becoming ridiculously wealthy other than create something nobody has ever seen, but something everyone wants to see.

Jurassic Park, this ingenious, though completely mad, multi-millionaire's creation, is a theme park where you can watch creatures millions of years old in a reconstructed atmosphere akin to their own.

This is the game of the film that has proved to be one of the biggest box-office hits ever. This is Jurassic Park.

Oh yes, this is the life, don't you think? The prototype version of Jurassic Park's River ride takes you into the very depths of the wilderness where you're given more than the usual glance of the tremendous dinosaurs. Grant, the guinea pig of the ride, is having a problem or two in that he needs to find fuel and some of the falls are a little more stomach churning than he expected.

Jurassic Park is the most spectacular adventure this year and a long awaited Sega release is finally here. If you're a fan of dinosaurs, and let's face it who isn't, Jurassic Park has the potential to fulfil your dreams. Dinosaur freaks, read on...

And so the story begins. You can play as either Dr Alan Grant, or, if you prefer, a vicious Velociraptor dinosaur. Things have taken a turn for the worse on John Hammond's Costa Rican island and the dinosaurs have escaped!

There are two objectives to Jurassic Park, a game of two halves. If you're playing as Grant, you must escape from the park, but if you're the Raptor you must track down and kill Grant.

At the start, you select your character and play through either five (Raptor) or seven (Grant) levels of side-on viewed platform adventure. Along the way, you will encounter numerous baddies, your agility will be tested to the full and, most importantly, you will need to find the way out. Each level has a secret exit which you must find to proceed. This may sound relatively simple, indeed it is for the first two or three levels, but as you reach the halfway mark things start hotting up. More traps, more nasties and an assortment of scenarios keeps the action flowing and the difficulty rising.

Looking at past platform adventures, the main difference between them is the graphics; each game although being similarly structured has its own style, colouring

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

After waiting for ages to get a look at this game, I don't feel that Jurassic Park quite lives up to its hype. Although the graphics look fairly plush, they all have a kind of rough edge, making the adventure look unfinished. Unfortunately, most levels have a few bugs and this is totally inexcusable. Saying that, though, there are some brilliant sprite movements and the adventure has a Flashback feel, only it's faster. However, this lacks the polish of Flashback and considering it's based on Spielberg's brilliant film, I can't help feeling a little disappointed.

SAM

PROTIP

Play through the levels with the Raptor first. This way you can find the exits easier and then go through with Grant, collecting passwords as you go.

JURASSIC PARK

● A quick hop through the Jurassic Park Power Station before breakfast has got to be the best fun you can have. Grant doesn't appear to be doing things right and is about to become breakfast himself.

● No mate, you don't wanna do that, you wanna run as fast as you can. It looks as though the mortal human has just thrown a large stink bomb in the direction of our evil friend or has the Raptor just farted?

and simulated atmosphere. Jurassic Park attempts to realistically recreate the prehistoric age, while still giving games players something to keep them playing. It does this surprisingly well.

Each level, whether you're the Raptor or Dr Grant, creates a certain mood. For example, The River stage is a dangerous journey down furious rapids. The rushing water has been carefully recreated and the way the dinghy speeds up or slows down creates an anxious emotion. You find yourself taking particular caution as you approach every drop, just as if you were actually there.

● Yikes, what a shock! Grant is clearly exposed when a bolt of electricity hits him. This is quite a humorous part of the game, but don't worry too much about Grant, he can give the dinosaurs a few shocks with his stun gun.

● Raptors have a tendency for jumping about, hunting out humans for their lunchtime snacks.

The sound effects are realistic in so much as we know what a river or volcano sound like. Some of the dinosaurs sound like chickens, but as smaller dinosaurs have been compared to the egg-laying poultry anyway! The roar of the Tyrannosaurus Rex is enough to prove that the programmers know their chickens from their dinosaurs.

To help Grant through the treacherous sections of the game, there are various weapons and ammunition to collect. The most useful of these are the tranquilliser darts, which

GRANT'S WEAPONS

Each of these weapons can be used to stun dinosaurs. The darts are the easiest to fire, but the effect doesn't last very long. A stun gun must be used at close range and has three charge settings; the longer you hold the button down the bigger the shock. Grenades are best at long distances or awkward angles, and the rocket just about takes care of anything in the way. This is what they look like in your weapon-select icon.

come in two strengths, and the devastating rockets. Grenades and an electric shock can come in useful when the bigger reptiles decide Grant is on the menu.

Raptor is less fortunate in that it doesn't have various weapons at its disposal. Instead, a gouging double bite, shake, slash and kick protect it from being stunned by the onslaught from nasty humans. The best way to attack is pouncing on anyone in the way, believe me. Instead of writhing in agony, they seem to melt into the ground which isn't exactly very realistic.

DINOSAURS

These creatures, deserve a special mention. Even the Pteradactyl makes an appearance in the game, but not the movie (?) and, of course, the annoyingly dumb Brontosaurus. So here they are in order of appearance:

If you are a fan of the movie, have read the book, enjoy challenging platform adventures or just love dinosaurs, Jurassic Park is likely to appeal to you. The realism of the dinosaurs, though a little dodgy in places, is just as good as seeing the movie. This is a very good game and despite not matching up to hits such as Another World and Flashback, which it closely resembles in gameplay, it should provide many hours of fun.

ACTION

STRATEGY

GRAPHICS 87%

▲ Colouring and shading of each level is brilliant, as is the animation of the dinosaurs.
▼ Too many errors, such as Raptor walking in mid-air, spoil the otherwise perfect graphics.

SOUND 88%

▲ A creepy atmosphere is created and the background noises are great in each level.
▼ The roar of some dinosaurs is a little dubious and doesn't blast through the speakers.

GAMEPLAY 85%

▲ Various extra controls over the Raptor make it a fun and realistic character to use.
▲ Loads of pick-ups to find and various weapons to use keep the interest level high.

CHALLENGE 87%

▲ Two games in one makes for extra value and gives you far more to do.
▼ Once you've been through the game once, you're unlikely to return to it in a rush.

85%

An addictive and challenging platform adventure that will keep you on the edge of your seat. A few bugs spoil what is otherwise an excellent game.

The evil wizard Zaks has cast a black spell over Dizzy's homeland by turning all the creatures into fiends. To make matters worse for Dizzy, his girlfriend, Daisy, is being held captive by the wizard in his mystic castle high up in the clouds. Defeating Zaks' evil spell to restore the homeland is a tall order for our short egg-shaped star who must now sort out a puzzling route so he can find this castle and sort out this Zaks character once and for all.

Fantastic Dizzy is presented in an interactive cartoon format where the story is shaped by Dizzy himself. The massive kingdom comprises of mysterious islands, a tree-house village, a diamond mine, an underwater complex and the Dragon's lair – just to name a few areas. With the help of other characters, Dizzy must collect the vital clues that pave the way to success in the adventure.

Fantastic Dizzy is the first Dizzy release on a Sega format and looks very promising, with its cleverly structured game plan and a challenging adventure that will suit players of all ages.

The objective, though very stereotyped, in the fact that it's a kind of 'rescue the princess' idea, is to save Dizzy's girlfriend from the clutches of an evil wizard. To get as far as the sorcerer's Cloud Castle, however, will require a journey through a number of lands that are bursting to the seams with clever ideas and pretty backgrounds. When all 250 stars have been collected, you will be able to access the magic castle.

Starting in a tree-house village, Dizzy must start to find useful objects that will help in later parts of the game. Some puzzles are easily solved whilst others are not so obvi-

PRO TIP When you reach the diamond mine, you'll need to go right and find the machine that works the lifts. Use the machine spanner to activate it.

ous. Dizzy can only carry three objects at a time, so life will become very frustrating. You'll need to discard objects you think are unimportant and remember where you left them!

Dizzy starts the adventure with three lives and each is represented by an energy bar. Some of the creatures kill immediately whilst others do a little damage. Only by collecting the colourful fruits will Dizzy be able to replenish some of his lost energy. The unique bonus level shapes itself in the form of a sliding puzzle. Finish the picture before the egg-timer runs out and you'll win an extra life.

Controlling Dizzy is straight-forward with a simple jump option to somersault gaps and creatures. The way ahead often requires TM leaping blindly up a screen in the hope of discovering the continuation of a slope or series of platforms, but it's not difficult mastering the routes.

The Dizzy sprite is very small, yet full of vitality, as he's colour and detail to maximum effect to create a wonderland that's full of bright and cheerful scenarios. The skylines even change from light to dark, thus emphasising the change from day to dusk.

Fantastic Dizzy is a superb adventure that's very easy to get into. There are plenty of puzzles and great satisfaction can be gained from working out the clues that are written alongside collected objects. Codemasters have that miniature edge with their releases with addictive gameplay deriving from clever, yet simple, imagination.

presented with smooth detail and concise animation. The other creatures boast the same qualities of the leading sprite with their own personalised behaviour patterns. The objects are easy to recognise, which is a vital feature for players who need to solve puzzles by associating the purposes of their components.

Backgrounds use cartoon style

● During the street stages, you have a small map to help you find the extra clues and unexplored areas.

● Down in the diamond mines, Dizzy has a spot of guess work to do on the rail lines. Sometimes, the game format change to give more variety in the gameplay. The aim here is to remember the safest route using trial and error.

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

Playing Fantastic Dizzy on the Mega Drive is somewhat of a disappointment after enjoying the Master System and Game Gear versions so much. The graphics are cute, but aren't particularly fantastic and the game tends to suit the 8-bit formats much more. If I had played this version before the others, I may have had a different opinion, but the others are better.

The concept of Fantastic Dizzy isn't new by any means, but it is for the Sega consoles. If you missed out on the computer versions of Dizzy, or just want a teasing puzzler, it's worth checking out.

JASON

● When you find a slide puzzle, you can gain an extra life. Time will run down quickly so you'll need to create the perfect picture with speed. As you can see, in good showbiz style, I managed this with barely a second left.

REVIEW

MEGA C-D

The pilots who go into a war behind the controls of an AH-73M Thunderhawk are classed as the elite of the elite. The chopper is seen by the forces as the ultimate flying machine in aviation technology. The pilots are the proud fighters who get to fly such an asset.

Now you have been called up to join the crack helicopter combat-assault team, and use your skills and judgement over 10 different war scenarios around the world. Your job is to diffuse crisis situations such as the oil conflicts of the Middle East and the South American canal invasions. You'll battle over war torn deserts, icy snow and lake regions, dense American jungles and Middle Eastern canyons. Success is merited with medals and you now have the job of proving yourself in battle to build up an honourable career.

Out in the barren Asian lands, the primary target comes into view and you let off one of the powerful guided rockets that'll do the job quickly. The white dots on the map indicate all your primary objectives for this mission.

The opening sequences to Thunderhawk come as no surprise, since many CD releases boast impressive and credible graphical presentations. The pictures don't drag, like some, and form an essential part of the build up to a war game that covers ten different battle scenarios.

As a Thunderhawk pilot, your objective is to tackle each war crisis region around the globe and this can be done in any order. For each operation there are five missions to complete and medals to be earned.

Missions vary depending on the landscapes for each operation and usually you'll be aiming for either buildings, communication structures, armoured vehicles or boats. Aircraft are also present, but are not usually primary targets.

When all the glossy opening sequences have passed and you're in the cockpit, it becomes clear that this is more of an arcade flight of fancy rather than a realistic

OPERATING THEATRE

OPERATION 1

South America: Arms running

The hostile forces are supplying the terrorists in the area with arms and your job is to break the supply chain and take out the plant.

OPERATION 2

South America: Stealth Down

The Stealth Bomber has been shot down in a South American jungle and your main task is to stop this plane falling into enemy hands.

OPERATION 3

Panama Canal: Canal Crisis

The merchant shipping has come under attack from forces on both sides of the canal. Safeguard the shipping at all cost.

OPERATION 4

Central America: Recapture Town

The Guerrilla forces are holding innocent civilians captive. The area needs clearing and the town must be liberated.

OPERATION 5

Alaska: Bio-research

Radio contact has been lost with the highly sensitive bio-research bases. Intelligence indicates that enemy forces are present. Destroy any captured materials and defend the convoy.

OPERATION 6

Eastern Europe: United Nations Convoy

A besieged town is in need of medical supplies and your task is to defend the UN supply convoy and clear the enemy forces.

OPERATION 7

The Middle East: Escort

A UN task force is trying the recapture friendly territory from enemy forces. Escort and aid the liberation of the enemy base and stop all enemy forces.

OPERATION 8

The Middle East: Oil Dispute

A major oil refinery has been attacked by an unknown force and your objective is to defend the installations and halt hostilities.

OPERATION 9

South East Asia: Chemical Warfare

The neighbouring countries are under threat from armed forces and you must stop the enemy and render the chemicals harmless.

OPERATION 10

South China Seas: Piracy

Bands of sea-pirates operate in this area and you have the straightforward, yet dangerous, task of defending the shipping and destroying the pirates.

The sight of burned-out tanks letting off columns of smoke, is a sure sight of satisfaction on the part of the pilot. The cold regions of Alaska give you an easy flight as there is less trees and hills to negotiate.

in height. The fact is you can't fly very high – so it's almost pointless bothering with altitude at all. It's also quite surprising how slow the game can be with full throttle not capturing the kind of speed that this kind of game demands.

From the simple 'spoon-fed' take-off, it's best to go for the primary targets, blow-'em all to bits then get out the perimeter zone as soon as the mission complete message comes through the radio. This is often a simple and very quick task, but too much time-wasting will get you into trouble. You have 16 rockets, over 60 missiles and infinite gunfire onboard and it's up to you which lead is spread on targets.

The targets are well drawn with a scrawly effect that captures the struggles of war through the snow bound plains of Alaska to the dusty river basins of the Middle East. Explosions and engine noise are relentless and it's often best just firing at will when a cluster of primary targets is spotted. It's all very much adapted to the arcade games player rather than the budding pilots who like to build up their aircraft skills with pride.

In this mission, your job is to escort the chopper through the canyon terrain whilst avoiding the bullets.

Thunderhawk has power and guts as combat sequences, such as columns of smoke and sinking ships, reflect the devastation and fire displays that warfare always produces. It's a shame the battle zones are all of an equal and small size, with the fence being your escape for a completed mission. Interest is strong at first, but lack of variety in mission objectives and the added frustration of having minimal flexibility for shaping strategies puts a doubt over lasting interest.

● Mark "Brigadier" Hill

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

Yeah, this is more like it. Smooth, fast and slick were words that came to mind as the intro sequence appeared on-screen. Everything about it – except the rather sad missile sequence – is superb. Graphically, Thunderhawk is easily the best game available on the Mega-CD and beats Silpheed by miles.

As with most Mega-CD games, they look good, but play awful. The gameplay is a far from imaginative and it's fairly boring flying around aimlessly destroying targets. There may be ten missions to complete and a few awards to gain, but it's run of the mill stuff I'm afraid.

Arcade action starts off as a fast and explosive experience with good scaling, but it soon becomes evident how little change there is in later missions.

The opening screens feature incredible scenes of a space craft moving around a complex of docks with sampled speech creating a science fiction movie scenario. The overall effects are brilliant with the presentation sequences immediately giving the viewer a clear picture of the story.

The radio messages were clear enough to send a chill down the spine of the sole pilot. Equipped with the very latest in spacecraft technology, he had a mission of a lifetime ahead. He takes a deep breath as the gates of the space dock open. There is no turning back now. The ship's launch triggers off battle station alert on enemy ships. Strike fighters group into attack fleets and attempt to take out the sole crusader. Get ready to take up the challenge...

This import release from Japan offers the player a new perspective in shoot-'em-up technology. The 'lone crusader in deep space' scenario is continued through multiple levels of polygon and fractal effects that enhance the feel with old ideas presented in an original way.

The opening sequence to the first level is initially disappointing with the mindless shooting of enemy waves being a critical blow to the high expectations gained from the opening sequences. The sprites are so small, despite the effective scaling and perspective, and you begin to wonder whether the big space ships seen during the intro will ever appear within the action.

Silpheed is a pure shoot-'em-up where enemies attack in various patterns, but the gameplay is just the same as any game that you'd see on an 8-bit machine. It's when you see the later stages that it becomes clear how the old ideas have been transformed to stunning effect with original perspectives and mind-blowing action sequences.

The components that make up a space station are fairly easy to avoid, though they can catch you out if you take them too lightly. In the distance, a band of enemy fleets appear through the gaps in an attempt to turn you into space dust.

Level one offers very little in the way of stunning backgrounds as you begin against a rather empty space backdrop. However, level two throws in with huge masses of asteroids that require close attention and lightning reactions to avoid. The huge polygon boulders spin past you at speed and you'll need to tilt between bullets and asteroids at great speed to avoid critical damage.

With every shoot-'em-up, optional icons can be collected to enhance weapon supplies and energy. Invincibility and special smart bomb weapons are available when they arise and repair icons appear every now and then to replenish your energy shield.

At the end of each level, you'll encounter a larger Boss ship that you blast until it explodes whilst avoiding the scatter of bullets it emits. Again, what's supposed to be the guardian of the fleet is actually quite an easy target with its weapons having no unique features compared with the rest of the space ships.

The between-stage weapon select screen allows you to upgrade your attack capabilities with weapons that range from alternative firing directions to homing missiles, bombs and special weapons, such as Photon Torpedos and Anti-Matter bombs.

Controlling the ship is fairly easy; you can zip between the enemy fire

PROTIP

The best method of attacking enemies is to power ahead into the fore, where bullet-dodging is a lot easier and catching the waves of nasties while they are still grouped becomes a quick and clean task.

with ease on early levels by thrusting forward, into the foreground, and catching the enemy waves before they split up.

The secret is to keep moving and attack many enemies head-on to avoid the loose bullets that fly out from the sides.

Enemy craft will not be your only concern as huge rotating lasers, thin battle station channels and gaps in the space stations can make life tricky. Later levels are much like Star Wars: you fly through a battleship complex that's full of enemies, rotating laser guns, incredible pulses of energy and much more.

The huge backgrounds make this appealing and accompanying speech throughout enhance the scientific atmosphere of a futuristic war zone in space. Unfortunately, only shoot-'em-up fans will appreciate the action, but the large polygon graphics used in the background are like nothing seen before.

● Mark "space cowboy" Hill

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

I just love saying it, "We told you first!" In the August issue of SEGA Pro, I wrote a report on Silpheed after playing it at the Chicago CES. My views haven't changed; it's still just another tarted up Space Invaders clone.

The additional animation that you are treated to during stages is all very well, but the gameplay is disappointing. The animation sequences are the best that there's been on the Mega-CD, with loads of scaling and rotating, but the loading time between them and the wait to start a stage, take me back a few years.

I can't recommend this to anyone, because it's been so hyped that you'll probably expect too much – even after reading this review!

PAT

● The opening level begins above good old Earth with the kind of graphical image we'd expect to see on a NASA space screen. It's an initial disappointment to see such small sprites and a view that shoot-'em-ups used many years ago.

● Now, here we have some really tasty action with an incredible display of fragments shattered by an explosion of the huge station to the right. The debris floats in all directions, but it is just a neat display – it doesn't do any damage!

● When the huge asteroids appear on level two with an accompanying radio message screaming "bank right, bank right!" then you'll need have quick reactions in steering clear whilst avoiding the enemy attacks. Follow instructions and all should be well.

● When you reach the station, memories of the battle through the Death Star in Star Wars comes flooding back. Space is tight and hitting the walls can be terminal. It takes a fair degree of skill to survive this!

Detailed and versatile polygons create a space atmosphere that's full of special effects, but once you wash away the cosmetics, the gameplay is bare.

In a far away land there are good, evil and bad people fighting from dawn to dusk in a bid to be hailed as the Grand Champion. The tournament they are competing in is Shang Tsung's Shaolin Tournament for Martial Arts. Shang, an evil dictator, rose to power through treachery and unsavoury prowess, but his bodyguard, Goro, will never allow his master to come to any harm.

There have been times when Goro, an ugly, four-armed, half-human, half-dragon moron with incredible strength, had little to do. This 2,000 year old Prince of Kuatan developed into a family man in his earlier days - having no less than eight wives, but these matrimonial ties have been put to one side. There is pride at stake and the tournament is the place to prove that he is man enough to guard Shang Tsung.

PRO TIP Master each of the fighter's moves and special moves before trying to play on the tougher levels. Easy level is hard enough for starters!

Sub Zero appears to be kicking some butt, or at least the score is pretty massive. Sub's special trick here is the 'vertical splits' but with the reputation Johnny Cage has for punching in the goofies, he'd be well advised to give it a miss.

The block-busting, bone-breaking arcade phenomenon called Mortal Kombat is set to reach the colour portable. Yep, if you're the proud owner of the niftiest thing since sliced bread, you can join in the fun. Early preview plays confirmed that this was going to be big, and now is the chance to find out if it's as good as it promised!

Well, the sprites are certainly big as they smoothly bound across the screen and try to kick each other into the ground. Ooops, that's the demo screen! Fortunately, the on-screen detail is brilliant with blood flying everywhere - presuming you discover the blood code - with Death Blows and Special Moves included. The only quibble as far as the graphics are concerned is that there are only two backgrounds, both of which are fairly plain. The real quality of the game, however, emerges when you take the controls.

Sonia has taken a bit of a fancy to our man Scorpion. Look, she's blowing him a kiss!

Nearly all the fighters have been included, with the exception of Kano; as in the Master System version. The manner which they move about the screen is superb with flying kicks and leg sweeps being particularly smooth and realistic.

There is more of an addictive quality about this when compared to the Mega Drive version.

Although there are limitations in sound and overall presentation, which shouldn't be knocked too much, the whole game has been very well put together. Probe have done a remarkable job on transforming this to the portable. It just has to be, dare I say it, checked out.

FANTASTIC

DIZZY

An evil wizard named Zaks has cast a black spell over Dizzy's homeland leaving everything and everyone in trouble. His girlfriend Daisy is being held prisoner in the wizard's castle, all of the creatures have been turned into nasty Dizzy-eating fiends. What's more, each of his buddies is in some kind of tortuous dilemma. This is how the fantastic adventures of Dizzy begin, but nobody knows how, or if, they'll finish.

If Dizzy is to secure his eggshell future, he must explore the land made up of various islands in an attempt to rescue his girl, bringing normality back to its natural inhabitants. To do this, he needs to find numerous items scattered about the place, which is not an easy task. Daisy is impatiently waiting for her Dizzy love, so it's time to embark on a few fantastic adventures of your own and venture into the unknown...

PRO TIP

To kill the Dizzy-eating plant near the beginning of the game, use the weed killer which you can find towards the far right, by the waterside.

At last, the hugely popular Dizzy makes his debut on the 8-bit with an astounding supply of taxing puzzles, cartoon tragedy and fun-filled gameplay. Dizzy is 'fantastic' and Master System owners now have the opportunity to find out just how fun he really is.

The single thing that struck me as soon as I powered up was how similar this is to the Mega Drive version. Dizzy looks and acts the same, the graphics are in a similar, cutesy toon-style and boy, is it just as brain teasing!

Dizzy's adventure starts in his house within the yolk folk's tree-top village. His task is to rescue his loved one, Daisy, defeat the evil Zaks, who has cast a spell over the entire land, and restore everything to its former glory. Covering a massive playing area, this is a task that is going to take more than a couple of days to finish. Even the most hardened gamers will have their work cut out.

Controlling Dizzy is relatively simple. An inventory,

What a sad looking egg he is, our fantastic Dizzy. He's just reached Zaks' castle and has absolutely no idea what to do next. Maybe the best idea, Dizzy, is to go through the entrance and see what you can see, durr!

which holds up to three items, is accessed and activated through an on-screen inventory. The general idea is to collect items and use them so that Dizzy can progress through the level. Each area is massive and you must collect 250 stars to finish them properly. There's a plentiful supply of power-ups, in the guise of various fruits, to replenish Dizzy's easily-depleted energy bar.

Dizzy jumps around the screen in a frenzy of activity and always looks as if he means business. If he falls to the ground from a great height, he's disturbingly stunned, but picks himself up and continues as happily as ever. Dizzy is one of the zaniest and most courageous characters around.

Every level is massive and graphically amazing. The time spent on attention to detail is apparent and there are absolutely loads of animated sprites. The backgrounds are of a similar quality to the animation and they help create an idealistic atmosphere. Even the sky changes from blue to black, recreating day and night.

It's reasonably easy to find your way around a level, but picking up items in the correct order and sussing out where to use them is what makes the game so addictive. Often, you find an item, such as the correct key to operate a lift, only to discover that you left something in another room and cannot pick it up without traipsing back.

Fantastic Dizzy is a game for all the family; and a blindingly good one at that. The original nature of the gameplay and the harmless, love-able characters are perfectly combined with superb graphics and sound – each of the background tunes and sound effects are brilliant. Don't miss out on what is one of the best platform games for a while.

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

I thought that Fantastic Dizzy would be a stripped down version of the Mega Drive title. How wrong I was! This has nearly every feature of the Mega Drive version and it plays just as well! It's also very refreshing to see a game that relies on thought processes rather than mindless shooting. The graphics are outstanding for the Master System and the controls are also very smooth.

I must point out, though, that Fantastic Dizzy is not an adventure that will suit everyone. Unless you like your games Sunday-afternoon style, Dizzy may leave you hungry for some bloodthirsty action!

SAM

● You're about to venture onto the wildest ride of your life. Dizzy uses the barrel to float downstream, collecting the stars as he goes. Strangely enough, you're able to go upstream without any problem, but this is a fantastic world after all.

The Codies have done the business with this on the Master System and it deserves to be a huge success. The whole family will just love to play it.

We left Chuck and his wife, Ophelia, after defeating the terrible Gary Gritter. The presumably thick Chuck has developed over the past 18 months into a successful entrepreneur. He started to build his own little empire with the Rock-Et – a car with a difference. Around about the same time, he became a proud father. Chuck's life looked to be taking a turn for the better.

Two hoods, under instructions from Chuck's boss, arrive at his office and hurtle him into the back of a van – not before persuading him into a large brown sack!

Meanwhile, a brick is thrown through a window at Chuck's house and lands on his lovely wife, Ophelia. A note explains that she must sign over the factory or Chuck is chalk dust! Baby Chuck jumps out of his cot with club in hand and shouts "I'll be back!"

And so, the adventure begins.

● A secret to staying alive is not to be trodden on by dinosaurs as this can be a very painful experience. It's no good trying to hide from them either, they're everywhere and the only way of avoiding their clumsy feet is to stand between their legs.

● Believe it or not this is the final guardian that Baby Chuck is likely to encounter in his journey through prehistoric mania. Daddy Chuck finds this to be most amusing and laughs away as his son risks life and limb for the fat, ungrateful melon head.

After month's of hard work by the dedicated Core Design team at their Derby offices, Chuck Rock 2: Son of Chuck has arrived for the Mega Drive. It's Core Design's first independent attempt at publishing their own licenced title after years of producing Sega games for the likes of Virgin, Sega Japan, JVC and Sony. We were eager to find out if it lived up to their other hits that Sega gamers have been enjoying for years.

In Son of Chuck, each of the six levels is filled with a plethora of colour; the shading and parallax stand out from most other platform adventures. There are absolutely hundreds of sprites on-screen most of the time, with the blending and animation of larger dinosaurs looking far better than in the original. Each of the six levels has its own glossy look, creating a wide enough variation of scenarios to keep the interest high for some time.

As in the original, there are huge dinosaurs walking across the screen and even one level where you walk across a dino's back. What must be a daunting experience for baby Chuck is when he's virtually trampled on by an absolutely massive creature in one of the earliest sections. Dangers such as this tend to creep up in various parts.

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

I was a fairly big fan of Chuck Rock, so the sequel was eagerly anticipated. Although the same theme runs through the game, it has a very different feel, due to the main sprite. The graphics remain lush, although there are lots of different dinosaurs and enemies.

Unfortunately, although Son of Chuck is great as platformers go, it has one major downfall. It's far too easy and with only a few levels, it won't take long to complete. This is very disappointing and at £40 a throw, there's no excuse for it either. Stay away unless you're a total beginner.

SAM

● An aimless Baby Chuck flies through the sky and lands with a thud, giving the poor little dino a smack.

● Wah, you're an ugly dinosaur if ever I've seen one, so I'm going to bash your head in.

● Baby Chuck loves sweets and will get to them any which way he can, even if it breaks his neck in the process.

● This is one of those fun mid-game sections that aren't as simple to finish as they look.

CHUCK ROCK 2: SON OF CHUCK

● Oh yes, sweetieeeeees! Jump up to the ledge above and mint, brazil nut and eclair toffee's are yours. Meanwhile, a strange looking spaceman aimlessly fires his thrower off into the already boiling lava, just waiting to toast Baby Chuck's toes.

The sub-objective is find your way out of each level while collecting as many sweets and ice lollies as you can. This is achieved by using various reptiles and rocks to assist you over spiked pits and the like. This is very similar to the original Chuck Rock and it's a pity there isn't more originality in the gameplay.

A new section to Chuck 2 is the bonus games, which if completed successfully, will reward you with extra lives and other bonuses.

They're fairly simple to finish, but the test-against-the-clock is a neat sub-game and a welcome change to the general style of play.

There is a failing that will surprise most Chuck fans in that the game is too easy and, in that respect, is very unlike Chuck Rock which still poses problems to many games players. The two difficulty levels, easy and normal, just aren't challenging enough. Sussing out puzzles is too simple and walking through levels, however pretty they may be, becomes a monotonous task. There's nothing strange about reaching the fourth or fifth level first time out!

If you missed out on the original Chuck Rock, this is worth a look. Both releases are great fun, but although this is better to look at, it's much easier to play and is a game that is bound to appeal to young and old alike, but why has it been made so easy?

PROSCORE 71%

An above average platform adventure that is enhanced by colourful, detailed graphics and a sense of humour, but, unfortunately, it's far too easy to play.

Dr Kal Marrow was working on an advanced genetic theory which he predicted would change the future of mankind. Marrow believed that his creation would be the ultimate fighting machine. The only problem was keeping this vital information from getting into the wrong hands.

Marrow's son, Saul, returned from completing some research work to find his father's observatory in ruins. He found his mother's body covered in blood and broke down, swearing he would avenge her death.

After some detective work he discovered that the evil Chimera movement was responsible for his mother's death and the kidnapping of his father. Saul searched the labs for help and found a file called Project Wolfchild. To be given the power of the Wolfchild he must be genetically restructured, so stepping into the transformation chamber he took on a new identity as The Wolfchild.

PRO TIP

To kill the Jungle guardian, hit it twice and duck when it appears. It will fire at you, but that should be easy to avoid. Repeat this about four or five times to finish it off.

Yep, you're far too gruesome to fight when I'm in my mortal state, I'm just going to pop one of my power pills so that I can kick your butt, greeny. Little does Wolfchild know, but there are no power pills left and he's just gonna have to face the greeny as he is.

After receiving strong criticism for the Mega-CD version, Wolfchild doesn't really have much to live up to and is expected to be another average platform game.

The bland introduction music attempts to create a sinister, maybe violent atmosphere, but fails miserably. Admittedly, it chugs along at a reasonable pace but the music is unimaginative and dull. Furthermore, there is a lack of music through the game, just simple sound FX that are also fairly poor.

Platform adventures on the Master System were taking a turn for the better with recent releases such as James Pond II and Star Wars, but this is a step in the wrong direction. The general idea of Wolfchild is to battle through each level, collecting power-ups, to increase your strength, before reaching the end-of-level guardians.

Platformers variably conceal hidden rooms or levels with a plethora of pick-ups and, in this, there are plenty of bonuses to be found with points and energy boosting hearts. An unusual concept is that the majority of these bonuses are hidden and the best way of acquiring them is to search high and low, especially around what look like entrances to secret caves.

They are often very long and conceal plenty of items.

T o

GAME OVER

This is where the intrepid explorer re-starts his journey after kicking the green one's butt. Power ups are the most important thing to collect, but keep an eye out for nasties that appear at all times; even sprouting mushrooms are set to sap your energy supply.

BITE THIS!

There are many different power-ups for Wolfchild to collect. These include extra lives and various bonuses!

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

First impressions of this game are great. The CD version was absolutely appalling and suffice to say, the Master System version appears to have very similar graphics. Fortunately, they work really well on the 8-bit and goes to show there's life in the old dog yet.

As for gameplay, well this begins with a reasonable story line, but the gameplay soon wears thin. I found myself turning the game off simply because I was bored. Unfortunately, this looks nice on the surface, but dig a bit deeper and you won't find much of interest and that's a big shame.

change from a mortal human, with a simple punch, into the powerful Wolfchild, you must collect the heart power-ups. An energy gauge in the top-left corner of the screen must reach the second level before the transformation takes place. Once you've transformed, various weapons are at your disposal depending on how much power there is in the bottom left energy bar. Unfortunately, you're unable to select which weapon you want to use.

Level one is Skyjack, a futuristic setting aboard the Wolfship, one of Chimera's battleships. There are loads of baddies and several over-sized targets that look impressive, but are easily destroyed. The Jungle is next and you must not only kill everything in the way, but find your way out. A disappearing guardian awaits you before you can progress to the Ancient Temple. The Chimera base is later and finally the core of the futuristic battle station.

Wolfchild is a bit of a jungle fever type of guy and his mission takes him into the deepest, darkest parts of the planet. Be very careful as you walk through this level, there are all kinds of nasties just waiting to rear their ugly heads out of the undergrowth. If you spot one of the over-sized maggots the best thing to do is avoid them and patiently wait for them to do their thing and vanish back into the green ivy.

Each level looks the part, especially the Ancient Temple, providing a sinister atmosphere and maze of hidden passageways. All kinds of creatures poke their energy-sapping heads out of the stone walls and are accompanied by members of the Chimera with their heat-seeking laser guns. There are some minor cases of sprite break-up, but this is hardly noticeable and the graphics are impressive overall.

The final word has to be 'average'. Wolfchild offers very little in the way of originality and, without a difficulty select, it lacks a lasting appeal. If you really want another platform adventure, you'd be better advised to try Star Wars or James Pond II.

Similar in style to the Mega-CD version with its decent graphics, but still an average platform game that shouldn't take long to complete.

A futuristic baseball game where male, female and robot players battle against each other? It may sound crazy, but the year 2020 is sure to hold many surprises, and sports are doomed to be more radical. Suits of armour are the order of the day and if you ain't got 'em, you're gonna feel some pain!

Surprisingly, the old leather baseball and metal bat still have their place on the pitch. The crowds flock in and the popcorn, cola and sexist chatter still echo around the stalls.

There is an added edge to the players who need the money that success will bring. The better they play, the more cash they win. Fighting hasn't gone out of fashion either and a few fisticuffs may occur in the big boys' league. This is the futuristic game for ladies, gentlemen and violent psychopaths. This is the year 2020.

Futuristic sports games are few and far between, the best being the stunning Speedball 2 by Virgin and more recently EA's Mutant League Football. Electronic Arts have decided to discard the EA Sports label for this release and developed something totally out of the ordinary in this futuristic baseball title. Converted from the old and trusty Neo Geo game, Super Baseball 2020 could herald the future of sports.

There is often a problem with baseball games in that the feel isn't right when you hit the ball. Rest assured, 2020 gives you more than enough in the way of control over both batter and pitcher. Admittedly it takes time, but the game becomes easier the more you play and then the stats and league matches give it that lasting appeal factor.

Crackers are mines that are set on the field and often cause robots to lose energy.

PRO TIP

When pitching, move to the far side of your base and swerve the ball away from the batter. They will often miss two of the balls, giving you prize money galore. Bend the third ball a different way and they're out!

The graphics are great, particularly those of the batters, with their metallic armour shining away. There are numerous mid-game screens that are used to glamorise stunning catches or home runs. Introductory shots are very inspiring and create that desirable futuristic atmosphere, but they tend to flash across the screen before you are given a chance to look at them. The sound isn't quite up to the same standard as the graphics, but

2020 Super Baseball

Catch a load of this! These are the tough women of the future who enjoy nothing better than bashing balls around the park. The home run zone at the far end is what you're aiming for, hit this and you're half-way to victory.

Although it's over-priced, it's a great futuristic baseball game that is original and likely to give hours of entertainment to anyone who loves the sport.

James Pond is a highly sophisticated FISH agent. His mission is to rescue Christmas, the season of joy, from disaster. The Underwater Intelligence Agency is counting on Pond to crack the Dr Maybe case and save the world.

Pond's mission takes place in Santa Claus' toy factory, just as the snow begins to fall and the sherry is brought out of the cupboard. The huge factory conceals room upon room of toys, but they have all been booby trapped with concealed bombs.

Pond's infamous 'Iron Gill' enables him to breath out of the water, so there's no reason to be concerned about his out-of-water fishy exploits. With nothing to stop him, he must prepare himself to save the festive season from vanishing for ever.

Despite an easy life as a celebrity on the Mega Drive, James Pond has waited until now to swim onto the handheld.

Electronic Arts don't produce Game Gear titles, so US Gold have stepped in to take the challenge with Pond scaling to new heights.

Strangely, though, there's a lack of music until the brief intro sequence has run its course and Robocod appears through the ice. Then it doesn't stop, with numerous background tunes and sound FX running throughout the missions. Each has a party feel and boost the enjoyment of playing drastically.

There's nothing like a workout to give the old body a revitalised feeling. Jane "Pond" Fonda demonstrates the latest way to stay trim and proper. A sad case caterpillar in the corner doesn't see what's so good about it and is happier munching away at his leaves.

Pond not only jumps through the air to reach platforms, he can stretch from the waist and grab hold of anything that prevents him from going higher. This is a novel idea and is very useful when platforms cannot be reached.

The general idea in James Pond

PRO TIP When fighting the teddy bear, be careful to hit it directly above its head and not from the side else you'll run down very quickly.

You will encounter armies of energy sapping creatures and big end of level guardians along the way.

The graphics are exceptional from start to finish. The backgrounds are varied and bright, presenting a fun atmosphere, and the huge number of sprites move about the screen in a humorous manner. The best GG fun for a long time and a terrific conversion from the MD classic. Despite being a relatively dated character, Pond is still ahead of his time.

Vito and Flo Sardini aren't exactly the world's most popular relatives. When they saw a chance of inheriting their brother's money, they took measures to get rid of him quickly. Once Guy was out of the way, it gave them the chance to fulfil their wildest dreams. They now own four mansions and are living in the lap of luxury.

Unfortunately, Guy is unable to rest in his paltry grave and feels the time has come to seek revenge. Realising that his relatives are no more than upper class gold diggers, he feels they need to be taught a lesson.

Since Guy died in such an untimely manner, he has been granted the ability to come back as a ghost. To Guy, this sounds too good to be true! He can now haunt the family out of the mansions and he'll be able to rest in peace for all eternity!

Although many games have featured ghouls and ghosts, Haunting takes a completely new perspective on the supernatural. Instead of killing ghosts, you play one! As Guy, more commonly known as Polterguy, you must scare your relatives out of their four mansions.

Once you've been resurrected, the adventure begins in a creepy dungeon. Before any relatives can be frightened, ectoplasm must be collected. This gives Guy essential energy needed to cast spells and haunt the house.

Once inside the mansion, Guy must set about scaring its inhabitants. However, before he can do anything, he'll have to find which part of the house they're in. To aid him, he has a map that displays the mansion and the locations of the Sardinis.

Everyone remains calm until Guy starts producing his scary illusions. To do this, he must wait until an object begins to sparkle, then jump into it. Every object produces a different effect and the illusions range from exploding rats to possessed demons! Each time a different trick appears, the person's scare rating will increase. However, each member of the family is scared by different things. Mimi and Tony are the easiest people to scare and grisly old Flo is the most difficult.

If Guy is having trouble getting rid of the money grabbers, he can always resort to his special spells. These can only be collected in PRO TIP Watch out for the Sardini's dog and the ecto-beast. If they spot you, they'll chase you until all of your ectoplasm is depleted.

SARDINES

FLO SARDINI

Obsessed by money, this old trout is as hard as they come. She's the hardest person to scare and can keep her cool in most situations.

VITO SARDINI

No one knows what Vito does for a living, although it's rumoured that he is in the leg-breaking business.

MIMI SARDINI

Mimi is another sour-faced member of the Sardini family, who has no friends and hates absolutely everyone.

TONY SARDINI

the dungeon, but have the highest scare factor of all. The boo-doo allows Guy to throw fireballs, while the super scare creates explosions and the zombie-ize can possess a person's body. Using a couple of these will usually get rid of Flo with no trouble at all.

Guy can jump into an unlimited number of objects, but he only has a certain amount of energy. More can be picked up in the dungeon, but once the supply runs out he will disintegrate. This means that getting the family out is a race against the clock!

Flo is the hardest member of the family to scare. Even the scariest stunts are unlikely to rile her.

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

What an original style of gameplay Haunting offers to creepy-crawly fans. To start with, everything on screen, well practically everything, does something. The interaction with the backgrounds is brilliant and the whole concept behind the game is great – Beetlejuice all over again! One problem I found is that the initial excitement quickly wears thin. Scaring people is great fun, but when you're doing it all the time, it's not quite the same. Graphically, everything is smooth and well presented with the music adding to an already spooky atmosphere. On rental, this would be ideal, but at £50, forget it.

JASON

Aaah! Jump into the glass cabinet and it starts to bleed! Although Mimi appears to be scared witless by this incident, it's got nowhere near enough scare factor to get her out of the house.

If Vito gets really scared, he either wets himself, or his clothes will fall off. Finding a body in the boot of a car is enough to drive anyone mad, but Vito is still determined to stay in his mansion, whatever tricks are pulled.

The cartoon style graphics are supported with some of the most original gameplay ever seen. In Haunting, you never kill anything and there's no boring platform action. Instead, the focus is on slapstick humour and entertaining the player. One down point is that although there may be four different mansions to haunt, the same illusions tend to crop up in each. In addition, once you've played a few times, the humour tends to wear thin.

Although Haunting is definitely one of the most original titles to surface, its lastability is doubtful. Although there are no continues and only three lives, it won't take very long to complete. Beginners will find it a great challenge, but even the funniest illusion is bound to wear thin after a while.

The Addams Family may have a strange affinity with the dead, but they still get hurt by ghosts!

If you go to the very far left of the kitchen, it will lead on to a secret room full of bonuses!

The conservatory levels start off very easy, but soon becomes very tough. This is the same with all the levels and if you get killed more than three times, you'll find yourself back in the hall of stairs. This means going through the rigmarole, yet again!

The Addams Family live in an eerie mansion on a deserted hill. They're a quiet lot and keep themselves to themselves most of the time. However, they don't fit in with the rest of the population too well. Apart from looking like death warmed up, the family have many strange habits, such as keeping pet spiders. As you can imagine, the local busy bodies don't take too kindly to this and are preparing to take action.

Abigail Craven wants the Addams Family out of their mansion at any cost. She has cast a spell on Fester Addams and has taken over the family abode, scattering members of the family across hidden rooms. However, Craven was so obsessed with owning the mansion, she forgot to capture Gomez. He's already succeeded out the dastardly plan and is out to stop Craven any way he can!

If you see an A anywhere in the level, jump into it and you'll be provided with a clue.

They are captured within the rooms of the house, guarded by Craven's evil monsters. To reach them, Gomez will have to find the secret room they are hidden in. Although on the surface it may seem as if there are only six levels (this is the amount of rooms in the mansion) this adventure is absolutely huge. Each room leads to more levels and it's very easy to get lost. Bonus rooms can be entered as many times as desired. They are scattered around the house and contain power-ups and money, although what you're going to do with the cash is anyone's guess. Gomez can pick up swords, flying hats, trainers and a plasma ball, to give him extra strength, along the way. In addition to the traditional arcade action, slight puzzle elements have been incorporated into the adventure. You'll often find yourself up against a dead end, only to realise you should have flicked a switch at the beginning of the level. This is slightly annoying, but you're not left totally clueless. Boxes with the letter A are strewn around each level. By jumping on these, Gomez can discover vital clues needed to solve puzzles and will be informed if he's near to rescuing a member of the family.

Although there's a massive amount of graphical variety between levels, gameplay can become slightly monotonous and you could find yourself wading through the depths of the mansion, not having a clue where you're going. This wouldn't be so bad, but many of the levels are long.

The humorous graphics are kept fairly simple, but there is a n a m a z - i n g amount of different sprites and backgrounds as each room has a different theme. The variety in these graphics, from kitchen to games room, etc, gives a refreshing change.

The Addams Family is a brilliant, addictive adventure that will keep you going for ages. It may not have the polish of other platform adventures, such as Tiny Toon Adventures, but it is certainly great value for money. If you like a challenge and love arcade adventures, try it! You could do a lot worse.

● Sam "Elvira" Hickman

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

I relish a challenge, particularly when it comes to platform adventures. The Addams Family really seems to have it all. There are hundreds of levels with loads of bonuses to collect and superb graphics too. As Sam mentioned, the SNES version was a huge hit and I enjoyed playing that.

The two versions look virtually the same, but when you take to the controls, you notice a slight difference. This Mega Drive version is definitely tougher to play than that of the SNES. I would recommend this game to anyone that has lots of time, patience and doesn't mind losing themselves in mazes for hours on end.

If Gomez finds this power up, he can use it to slash any unsuspecting ghouls. Without it, he can only jump on them.

TRAINERS

Although this is not Gomez's style, pairs of trainers are hidden around each level. They give Gomez extra jumping ability, especially useful for out of reach bonuses.

PLASMA BALL

The plasma ball can be rolled at any enemy and will kill them immediately. Extremely useful, even though it doesn't last very long.

FLYING HAT

A flying hat can be found outside the mansion. If Gomez puts it on, he will be able to fly for a limited amount of time. This is useful to reach the chimneys and the secret room in Puggsley's den.

AGASSI

Andre

Timing your shots so that the ball flies past an opponent is all part of the skill involved when it comes to the English sport of lawn tennis. There is one particular star who not only plays well, but has a huge fan club. Andre Agassi's prowess on the ball is unmatched with artistic flair screaming over the net every shot. As a major TV advertising target for companies such as Nike and Nescafe, this video game just had to be on the cards eventually.

When it comes to a license novelty is being able to take the place of a major hero. Andre is certainly a star and besides being a bit of a lady's man, he's very good at tennis.

A tense moment in the match arises when the half-time break is approaching and the umpire's seat, just dying to get out of this rather sad game. Who can blame him? barley water is being poured. Agassi makes the first move and lunges towards the PRO TIP Use one of the weaker players before you progress onto Andre Agassi and you should be able to master the basic strokes quicker.

Now this is more like it. A tense, thrilling match pitting bat against ball and man against woman, I think!

reviewed on the Mega Drive and Master System, Andre Agassi Tennis has popped up right across the board on Sega consoles. A portable version just had to come along sooner or later. Tecmagik's final attempt with Andre is here to play, but there have to be serious questions whether it's here to stay.

There are several options including court surface, singles or doubles and match or tournament. You have the choice of watching a game and effectively learning how to control your player. In theory, this could work, but it doesn't and is a waste-ed option. Having a password system or the like implemented would have been far better.

The umpire, crowd, court and players are so well detailed that they keep your interest at a reasonable level. Acustoming yourself to the gameplay requires some patience, so the few added touches in the graphics help. The sound is absolute drive and must have been recorded through a cheap condenser microphone! The main theme sounds dreadful and the limited sound FX do nothing to enhance the gameplay. Lots of atmospheric cheering and ball control effects would have lifted the aura somewhat!

There are major flaws. The skill level between opponents is hardly noticeable and the controls are very difficult to get to grips with, making the challenge a bit of a joke.

As is the case with several Game Gear tennis sims, they give you a Master System version through the Gear Converter. Tennis fans are bound to enjoy having a bash, but major flaws are evident and more noticeable on a machine where a game stands on, in this case, falls on its gameplay alone.

● Jason "smashed" Johnson on its gameplay alone.

Buttons 1 and 2 are used to smash, volley, forehand and backhand the ball whilst the D-pad moves your player around the screen. Controls are responsive, but it's very difficult to hit the ball every time.

Volcanoes are the most environmentally destructive effects that can be administered to an opponent's land!

CPU sets the rules and the ultimate challenge is to defeat Zeus. In early levels of the conquest game, you may only have the use of some Earth and People effects, but in later conquests, more powers become available as your skill grows. These other "divine intervention" effects include Fire, Water, Vegetation and Air. This may sound ideal, but the opponents become more cunning, and they too, have additional powers to play with. Starting on a landscape filled with land, water, trees and rocks, you must grow your population by flattening land by raising or lowering it. Your people will build homesteads on flat landscapes and, in humble appreciation, will regularly offer you mana that can, in turn, be used to perform disaster effects in opponents' settlements.

The custom game mode was really only designed for two-player computer challenges. This allows you to design the landform and customise the rules before playing each game. On computer, as there was a two-player option, this was fine, but there's little point to custom games on the Mega Drive as most players will only find a challenge in the conquest game, where the

The ultimate prize is exceptional and the challenge is what you have spent the past years preparing for, but only one of the immortal step-brothers will get the chance to fight the ultimate battle against Zeus. Only then will they win the right to all heavenly desires. First, though, there's a matter of 1000 lands to use as godly playgrounds.

There are three types of people: Worshipers, Leaders and Heroes. You can change your Leader into a hero as soon as your mana allows. Once you create a hero, you must use the Go To Papal Magnet Icon to select a new leader. The Heroes are:

PEOPLE - Perseus

Perseus is the most intelligent of the greek heroes. He is strong and skilful soldier who attacks Bad settlements.

VEGETATION - Adonis

Recognisable by his head of leaves, Adonis divides after combat. This multiplies your number of heroes roaming the world.

EARTH - Heracles

Double your leader's strength by turning him into Heracles, who is sent crusading into the enemy's territory.

AIR - Odysseus

He is the fastest of heroes, so if you want a job done quickly, he's your man. Attacking your opponent's in a flash!

I WANT A SECOND OPINION

Few games on the market offer anywhere near as much gameplay as this. There is so much to think about and with 1000 levels to complete, you could spend months before seeing the end sequence. If this is for you, you're going to be impressed with what Virgin have turned out. The atmospheric qualities are superb and even the minute sprite details are amusing.

There's just so much to do that it may be a bit overwhelming to some, but those who enjoyed Populous II on the Amiga will find it a refreshing change for the Mega Drive.

JASON

embodies the main gameplay. If you don't have enough people, you will have less mana with which to perform effects and your opponent will find it easier to destroy your settlements. So, the main task is to keep your population healthy. As you can probably guess, if you keep on top of things, the game is easy, but when your opponent starts fighting back, it's hard not to start becoming confused on priorities.

Each conquest earns you experience points that can be used to increase your power in a particular discipline. The capability of each effect depends largely on this experience factor.

When performing effects, you can hear the fire cracking, the earth quaking, the storm brewing or the water splashing. Virgin have been very brave by not including a soundtrack as many will find this as a solitary reason to slag off the sound.

However, if you want rave, classical or plain old rock, you could turn on your stereo and listen to the music of your choice. I'm sure that good use has been put the memory that a soundtrack would have otherwise filled.

Being a fan of Populous II on the Amiga, I have been looking forward

SHINOBI III

SEGA • £39.99 • OUT SEPT

You are Joe Musashi, fighting against the Neo Zeed, long time sworn enemies of the young master in ninja fighting. Once again, it's time for the proven hero to fight through level upon level of treacherous armies with the rival ninja.

Already reviewed in SEGAPro#17, Shinobi 3 has certainly taken its time to arrive. It was with eager anticipation that the cart was inserted, hoping for something special as its predecessors were so good.

The recognisable characteristics have been included: special ninja powers, lots of baddies and a whole host of assorted backdrops give that distinctive oriental quality. There is a problem with this, though, it's far too similar to the first two games and, if you've played them, this is likely to be a disappointment as it's not that much different really.

The graphics are very good with clever 3-D sections and background interaction. Large makes up a well presented release.

Shinobi III is a good game in its own right, but it's far too much of the same and it's easier than the previous two. If you've not played a Shinobi game before and enjoy platform adventures, this should be checked out.

WIMBLEDON

SEGA • £39.99 • OUT SEPT

There's nothing quite like a day at Wimbledon. Strawberries and cream, celebrity players and torrential downpours between sets. More often than not, you return home from a hard day's work and settle down to watch the box. The Wimbledon Championships is a highlight, but only during July, which is why Wimbledon on the Mega Drive hopes to become an all-year sport!

The first tennis game on the market that used any kind of multi-player adapter was Super Family Tennis for the SNES. The Mega Drive's multi-player smash is Wimbledon. Not only does it allow you and three mates to thrash it out on the screen, but numerous options have been combined to offer one of the best tennis sims to date.

It's all here – the sound of a clapping audience, players becoming just a little frustrated when they mess up and jumping for joy after a smash hit! The game is well presented throughout what with a neat range of intro and options screens, the Wimbledon scoreboard and three playing surfaces to choose from.

Many varying shots, such as the strong lob, normal lob and smashes, have been included. The 32 players have their own individual attributes and the realism is high. A great tennis game that should last and last.

INTERNATIONAL RUGBY

DOMARK • £39.99 • OUT OCTOBER

There haven't been many rugby releases, probably because big tough rugby players, and the like, aren't renowned for playing console games. Domark recently converted the computer version on the SNES and now the Mega Drive has been given the same treatment.

You must first choose your team from the range of International teams. You're given the choice of either a friendly game, friendly tour, Five Nations Championship or World Cup Tournament.

Passing the ball to team-mates is simple, as is kicking and throwing. A power meter appears on the screen for line ups or kicks and the scrums are automatically won by the team that puts the ball in. International Rugby is very realistic and includes all the tactics and stats of a real team, but the gameplay is poor as it's often very easy to score a try by running the length of the pitch without passing.

The lack of a fatigue factor and roaring crowd tends to ruin the initial realistic qualities. When you score a try, there is a cheer from the crowd and that's it! This is a washout and doesn't fire you up to go for more points. This is a shallow game that is unlikely to appeal to most and those who's attention it does catch may be let down.

WOLFCHILD

VIRGIN • £29.99 • OUT NOW

The uniform of a warrior is represented by the form of a wolf. In this challenge you play the part of the wolfchild – an ultimate warrior with skin of iron and a tough head on his shoulders.

The leading sprite looks like some kind of Gladiator with humanoid figure and a humble firepower. Each of the levels is made up of platforms with the bad guys usually scattered around firing bullets at an incredibly slow rate. The fact is, the gameplay is too stale and lacks in variety as most of the opposing sprites look the same and move with no real vitality or gut. A few scattered icons give you fire ability and a few smart bombs with predictable heart-shaped energy replenish symbols illuminating just a few of the LEDs on the display panel. Thank goodness each level has the key password that will bypass the boring and uneventful lands that have been explored before. Backgrounds are drawn well enough but there is little interaction with the scenery and frustrating repetition in climbing the gaps you fall down only reduces an already slender breaking point.

The small screen initially reveals a smart set of scenarios for Wolfchild. It's the lifeless action and 'rub-it-in' set of tunes that make the concept an unoriginal, old-hat affair.

In the short reviews this month, you'll find a variety of games which we've been unable to squeeze in this issue. The most notable are NHL Hockey '94 on the MD and F1 on the MS – both came in too late to receive the full treatment, but we spent plenty of time playing them nevertheless. Jason Johnson, Mark Hill and Sam Hickman give you the low-down on what you should look out for and what to avoid.

SUPER OFF ROAD

VIRGIN • £29.99 • OUT NOW

When four soap boxes bomb around the lumps and bumps of a tarted up square patch of waste ground, the dust never settles and it's bumper to bumper all the way. It's a crazy race where obstacles come in the shape of water ditches, ramps and sheer suicidal mounds. Only first place will put you through to the next course and if you think the computer guys are plain rookies then just getting them to choke on your exhaust fumes for the full 12 rounds!

Super Off Road has been released on many formats and the structure follows old favourites, such as Grand Prix Simulator from Codemasters, where a left/right rotational control method is used to guide the regular shaped 'soap' cars around an increasingly difficult layout of twisty tracks.

Along with the standard wheels, you have the chance to upgrade your power capabilities with better tyres, increased acceleration ability and some rather useful nitros. Between levels you get to visit the shop to spend the cash that comes with victory.

Controlling the cars is fairly easy with clear detail on the tracks and effective, yet bizarre, leaping and spinning as the races progress. The sprites are fairly shoddy when they collide, but the speed and bandy fun work well to produce a challenging little racing package for one or two players.

BART'S NIGHTMARE

ACCLAIM • £39.99 • OUT NOW

The Mega Drive has already seen one Bart adventure and it was an instant success! Since Bart v the Space Mutants, Bart has become somewhat of a console star. He's even made a cameo appearance in Krusty's Super Fun House!

Bart's second adventure is very much like his first. Action takes place in the street and he must avoid his little sister, old ladies and the likes. However, this time, Bart has fallen into a deep dream. To wake him up, you'll have to collect each of the homework pages littered around the street. Each time you pick up a page, Bart will have to face a different nightmare. These range from creatures, such as giant mice, armed with sledgehammers and a Bartosaur (a Bart dinosaur), who are out to destroy the world!

Although the graphics remain true to The Simpsons cartoon counterparts, you can't help wondering if this is aimed primarily at young children. Gameplay is very simple and although you'll have to face many level bosses, experienced players should find this no trouble at all.

If you liked the first Bart episode, this is bound to please you again. However, if you've never seen Bart before, don't expect anything too spectacular. Fans of the cartoon series will find that the game's appeal is from the way that it captures the Bart feel.

F1

DOMARK • £29.99 • OUT OCTOBER

The success of F1 on the Mega Drive derived from brilliant polygon graphics and incredibly fast speeds. The MS version uses the basics from F1 though a lot is missing due to memory restrictions.

F1 looks and plays very much like the vintage Pole Position and Pitstop releases with basic track circuits that only differ in their patterns of corners and straights. There are a few bridges and ridges, but the circuits generally lack the track features and back-grounds that captured the Grand Prix atmosphere so well on the MD.

During a race, there is a split-screen head-to-head option, with a racing pitstop and car set-up options to keep the racing theme focused on the F1 Championship. Sadly, there are only eight circuits to race on and pitstops merely require stopping in the middle of the track and waiting to be automatically pulled to the verge for new tyres. It's all very basic and unatmospheric.

Controlling the cars is very rugged with jerky corners making life very frustrating as you'll need to almost stop when you take on the sharp bends. The familiar drones and squeaks of throttle and brakes just take us back to the days of early racing sims that sported basic ideas. You won't find anything special here.

NHL HOCKEY '94

EA • £44.99 • OUT OCTOBER

Few games are as exciting as NHLPA Hockey '93 and EA Sports have gone one step better with the 1994 version. More stats, added options and extra teams have been included, giving fans something extra to get excited about. If you've never played EA Hockey or NHLPA '93, let's just say it's time to crawl out from under your rock and plug into this one!

A profile system made up of 144 players lets you decide who you're putting in your team before the initial face off. Then it's time to hit the ice as the organ bursts into life with one of its 72 pieces of music. The side shows and special effects of this game are better than the previous two versions and added moves make it the most realistic game to date, or so we initially thought.

There are problems in that the gameplay leaves a lot to be desired, despite being considerably faster. Bashing into the goalkeeper and following up with another player appears to be the simplest way of scoring. This may be realistic enough, but the big attraction of NHLPA was the tricks you used for scoring. This is a good game, but it's not EA's best hockey release – the '93 version is much, much better.

SEGAPro is Britain's first Sega magazine to comprehensively cover both official and import games. Our experience and knowledge is crammed into each game review. We know more about Sega games than anyone else and that is reflected in the quantity and quality of the information we provide each and every month.

Definitive? Well, we think so. You won't find a more extensive guide in any other magazine. Every month, we'll update the listings, with all new entries highlighted. Many game ratings will change to reflect long-term interest and dating – most games become less impressive as technology develops and newer games become available. Each game rating is what we think now, not what we thought when the game was first released.

Regular readers will be aware that ProPick has been replaced. We now print our Top 100 Sega games every month and all ProYo! games (scoring 90% and over) will be highlighted in red throughout the file.

Not only one, but three charts from the big game retailers Virgin Mega Stores, HMV and Our Price on Mega Drive, Master System, Game Gear and, when it is in full swing, Mega-CD.

Send in your high scores for any game that you think you've mastered. Every month we'll print a list of games that we want high scores for. An overall winner, as judged by the Pros, will receive a SEGAPRO T-shirt!

688 ATTACK SUB

SEGA

Submarine sims are few and far between, but this little beauty shows that it is possible to do a credible job. It's very hard to get into, but the effort is worth it. 68%

ADVANCED WW2 SIMULATOR

IMPORT

This is one difficult game to play. You'll need a strong knowledge of the Japanese language. Pity really, because there's a great game hidden behind it all. 66%

AERO BLASTERS

IMPORT

Too short and easy. Just another shoot-'em-up. Simultaneous two-player is fun, but there are better games in the genre. 62%

AFTER BURNER II

SEGA

Very accurate portrayal of the hydraulic coin-op. However, it's a bit easy and suffers from too much repetition of tedious tasks. 62%

AIR DIVER

IMPORT

Similar to After Burner II in both looks and playability. It has more challenging play with a wider variety of opponents and tough guardians. 73%

ALESTE (MUSHA)

IMPORT

This is one fun vertically scrolling shoot-'em-up. Detailed graphics, but like similar games, it may prove just too easy for most MD players. 77%

ALEX KIDD IN ENCHANTED CASTLE

SEGA

This platform adventure has loads of games and is packed with an average selection of adversaries, but the whole scenario becomes very boring. 62%

ALIEN 3

FLYING EDGE

SEGA

May go down as the fantastic platform shoot-'em-up that never was. Nice graphics and sound, but not much to challenge even the beginner. 77%

ALIEN STORM

SEGA

This horizontal alien shoot-'em-up is just far too easy. The two-player option is fun and the graphics good, but it'll all be over too soon. 74%

ALISIA DRAGON

SEGA

Alisia Dragon is one tough chick. You must help her through eight stages in the style of Valks. Few lives and tough guardians, very challenging. 82%

ALTERED BEAST

SEGA

The first game to impress Mega Drive owners. The graphics are flickery and response slow. Usually given away free – nuff said... 48%

AMBITION OF CAESAR

IMPORT

Only for real fans of strategy games. Fortunately the graphics are excellent and will keep you enthralled for ages. Sadly, it's very hard to get into. 73%

AMERICAN GLADIATORS

RPG in the style of Gauntlet. Two players simultaneously vandalise eight graphically excellent levels. There's a much needed password save. 84%

ARIEL: THE LITTLE MERMAID

SEGA

Use your skills, as either Ariel or Triton, to defeat the evil forces of darkness and save your buddy. Plenty of vicious sharks to deal with. 72%

ARNOLD PALMER TOUR GOLF

SEGA

One of the first golfing games, but still holding its own with the likes of PGA Tour Golf. Real feeling of being out there on the course, smacking little white balls. 81%

ARROW FLASH

SEGA

This is a very vacant shoot-'em-up. The graphics are poor, the power-ups limited and the guardians a cinch to kill. Why bother? 29%

ART ALIVE

SEGA

This innovative art package encourages you to draw within the confines of the Mega Drive. Only one problem: you can't save or print out the pictures. 39%

ASSAULT-SUIT-LEYNOS

IMPORT

Called Target Earth in the States. You are a robot who has to bash similar robots over eight moonscapes. Not much fun, but there are a few neat cheats. 42%

ATOMIC ROBOKID

IMPORT

Yet another run-of-the-mill scrolling shoot-'em-up. Definitely one for blast-'em fans who aim to collect every cart released, even if they're rubbish. 37%

ATOMIC RUNNER

SEGA

Impressive graphics and funky sound FX make this a good, solid platform shoot-'em-up. However, there are better around and this wears thin after a few hours. 59%

AXIS

IMPORT

This is a well-hidden gem. Worth seeing just for the amazing 3-D graphics, but also contains very addictive gameplay. A fine walkabout shoot-'em-up. 75%

BACK TO THE FUTURE III

SEGA

Marty McFly, animated in the worst possible taste, proves to be a serious let-down in this disappointing film licence. Don't even think of testing it out! 28%

BAD OMEN

IMPORT

This Break-Out clone fails to have enough content for the big machine. Even so, the graphics are ace, with some really gruesome tough nuts to kill. 71%

BALL JACKS

SEGA

A strange game if ever there was one. Stealing spheres from your opponent's robot starts is fun at first, but soon becomes a futuristic bore and very, very tiresome. 28%

BART VS THE SPACE MUTANTS

FLYING EDGE

SEGA

This is without doubt one of the toughest cartoon licences out. It's even more annoying because everything about it is so perfect; the graphics, the difficulty, the sound, etc and it's packed with challenge. 89%

BATTLETOADS

SEGA

This could be the first time the warrior toads have engaged in gory battle, but stranger things happen. This is a thoroughly silly and violent adventure. 39%

BATMAN

SEGA

This fine conversion was only just released officially in the UK. It may get a tad boring, but the accurate graphics hold things together. 78%

BATMAN RETURNS

SEGA

Far from inspiring game that should have been much better. Totally unoriginal, with poor graphics and even worse sound. A real waste of money and time. 43%

BATMAN: REVENGE OF THE JOKER

IMPORT

Better than all the other Sega versions put together, which isn't saying much! However, large sprites and detailed backdrops show just how a Batman licence should be produced. 82%

BATTLE GOLFER

IMPORT

A golden-olde arcade adventure. It's all about the exploits of a golf ball and its travels. This may not sound like the best of starting points for a game, but it's good. 72%

BATTLEMASTER

IMPORT

Excellent presentation at the start welcomes novices and the rest of the game takes off from there. It can be picked up for a lot less than most, so it's worth a look for beginners. 78%

BATTLE SQUADRON

ELECTRONIC ARTS

Its one advantage over other shoot-'em-ups is toughness challenging evenest gifted of players. If you want a great looking and sounding shooter, then this is your man! 85%

BEAST WARRIORS

IMPORT

Colourful, detailed graphics offset by terrible sound and slow jerky gameplay. Don't be fooled by pretty pictures, there's nothing nice about this game. 20%

BIMINI RUN

IMPORT

A shoot-'em-up that tries to impress with a scenario other than outer-space. Is a bit of a laugh for a while, but soon becomes repetitive and boring. 57%

BIO-HAZARD BATTLE

SEGA

With colourful, atmospheric graphics and a high difficulty setting, this has it all, but there isn't anything new in the way of gameplay. 68%

BIO SHIP: PALADIN

IMPORT

Satisfactory two-player shoot-'em-up with cool sound and stunning level guardians. It slows down when there are too many sprites on-screen and it's pretty easy. 51%

BLOCK-OUT

ELECTRONIC ARTS

Tetris goes 3-D as you, viewing from above, attempt to fit the blocks into a well. It takes quite a while to get used to the perspective, but once you do, it's very challenging. 76%

BOB

ELECTRONIC ARTS

A platform shoot-'em-up where the character, BOB, must use all kinds of gadgets to aid him in his quest. Nice ideas, shame about the boring and unatmospheric action. 59%

BONANZA BROS

SEGA

Other than having simplistic graphics, the most flawed part of the accurate conversion is that it is very, very easy. Grab a partner and in two-player mode you'll soon have it completed. 58%

BUCK RODGERS

ELECTRONIC ARTS

Entry level RPG with the difficulty set just right for beginners. The compelling challenge means you are never short of something to do and there's a big challenge. 82%

BUBSY

ACCOLADE

SEGA

Guide Bubsy around his back garden. The cheerful music and colourful graphics can't disguise the frustrating gameplay and lack of originality which puts doubt over its viability. 81%

BUDOKHAN

ELECTRONIC ARTS

The presentation builds up a terrific atmosphere. It's a shame that beneath it is a shallow beat-'em-up with few opponents and limited moves. 56%

BULLS VS LAKERS

All of the cool sports are included in this colourful outing, but the game seems rushed, with simple graphics and gameplay. An old game that has never been updated. 65%

CAPTAIN AMERICA AND THE AVENGERS

SEGA

Another battle against the forces of evil. Worth playing in two-player mode, but if you're a sole gamer, leave it alone. It's far too easy and ultimately dated. 37%

CAPTAIN PLANET

SEGA

Join the Planetarians in a typical platform adventure where good attempts to conquer evil. Captain Planet's star appearance is rather overshadowed by the dull and lifeless backgrounds. 39%

CASTLE OF ILLUSION

SEGA

If you haven't got this, what have you been doing? This game has everything: great graphics, super sound, gorgeous gameplay and dynamic difficulty. 93%

CENTURION

ELECTRONIC ARTS

A very welcoming historical strategy with excellent in-game maps etc. However, the enthralling storyline doesn't create enough fun to last for very long. 70%

Devil Crash on a diet. Gone are the complex, atmospheric graphics and pounding sound. While poor scrolling and simple gameplay have been added - give it a miss. 43%

DOUBLE CLUTCH

SEGA £39.99
Radio controlled cars never did hold kids' attention for very long and this Mega Drive version isn't much better either. Although gameplay is fairly interesting, the graphics and controls aren't up to much. 78%

DJ BOY

IMPORT
While there's loads of originality in DJ Boy - a beat-'em-up on roller-skates (?) - it is simple and too easy. 59%

DOUBLE DRAGON

BALISTIC £29.99
A treat for fans of the arcade. Two players can jump and punch their way through the three stages of the city. Much better than the sequel. 72%

DOUBLE DRAGON II

IMPORT
Everything is bad - even the sound! The graphics are flickery, characters slow to respond and gameplay tiresome. 29%

DOUBLE DRAGON 3

FLYING EDGE £39.99
Hopefully the final episode in the abysmal Double Dragon battle. Five stages of repetitive and graphically useless, street fighting. 35%

DRACULA

PSYGNOSIS £39.99
Guiding Harker through the Dracula scenarios is a rather dated and uninteresting horror show despite the chilling and well drawn scenes and movie scenario. 65%

DRAGON'S FURY

DOMARK £39.99
Official release of Devilish. Stunningly addictive game that has superb graphics and sound with tons of brilliant bonus rooms. 81%

DUNGEONS AND DRAGONS

IMPORT
Dungeons and Dragons will certainly test your RPG skills to the limit. Superb graphics and unlimited challenge make this a must. 84%

DYNAMITE DUKE

SEGA £34.99
The Op Wolf-style behind the shoulder perspective works well and there are loads of well-drawn punks to mow down. Sadly, it's much too easy. 73%

EARNST EVANS

IMPORT
The original version that was later to become one of the first Mega-CD games. Guide your intrepid explorer through countless scenarios in this colourful adventure. 72%

EA HOCKEY

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
Was, in its day, one of the most accurate sport conversions ever. However, the improved NHLPA Hockey puts it down a few points. 85%

ECCO

SEGA £39.99
Dolphin fans should find this more than addictive. Guide Ecco through murky waters in a desperate search to find his lost, loved ones. Excellent graphics and very original. 93%

ELEMENTAL MASTER

IMPORT
This shoot-'em-up contains too few levels and they're all too easy to conquer. The gameplay is involving and very addictive. 81%

EL VIENTO

IMPORT
This game not only looks great, it also plays like a dream. The animation and statics encourage you to venture further, even though it is tough. 88%

ESWAT

SEGA £34.99
This conversion of ESWAT is accurate. The parallax, multi-directional scrolling gives the impression of a huge game. Very challenging and addictive. 80%

THE BIG GAMES BUSTED EVERY MONTH BY THE UK'S TOP SEGA PLAYERS!

The postbag has been overflowing with tips this month. A particular mention goes out to everyone that sent in the Jungle Strike passwords, but as you'll see there has been a complete guide to the brilliant game in this and last month's issues. If you have found a tip or need some ProHelp, why not write in to the SEGAPro team - the best game busters in the business. Send your tips, cheats and problem posers to: Jason's ProTips, SEGAPro, Paragon Publishing, Durham House, 124 Old Christchurch Road, Bournemouth BH1 1NF. CHOOSE CO-PILOT

Ed "Pink Floyd" Lomas from Rochester has won the tip of the month competition and wins a SEGAPro T-shirt. His speciality is busting the password systems on all the latest games, and this one is really cool.

Enter the password: BNSH3N6MHJK

This will start you on level one with four lives and you'll be able to select the co-pilot of your choice. To design your own passwords and start on any level with the same option, take any password and change the first letter. Not every letter works, but you can normally go into about six other levels from one password! If you change the first letter of Ed's password, you'll be able to start on another level.

To skip a level in this zny game, play through a level as normal and press PAUSE. Then press ABCBACBAC on the joypad. Press START and you will find yourself at the end of the level, but there's nothing in the way of bonuses to be had which spoils the novelty. Luke Lachher, Cleckheaton

EUROPEAN CLUB SOCCER

VIRGIN £39.99
If you like your soccer sims designed this way then this is perfectly executed. The graphics are large, move around convincingly and set a believable atmosphere. Probably the best MD footy so far. 82%

EVANDER HOLTYFIELD'S BOXING

SEGA £39.99
Good main sprites and extremely challenging gameplay makes it a better than usual simulation. Crunching sound effects are realistic. 84%

EXILE

IMPORT
A strange mixture of RPG, platform and puzzle, makes Exile an intriguing game to play. Admirable and well worth seeing. 78%

EX-MUTANTS

SEGA £34.99
Save the population from extinction in the aftermath of World War III. Detailed graphics and impressive sound. Let down by gameplay. 69%

F1

DOMARK £44.99
Speed your way around the world in this fantastic racing sim. There are 12 different tracks that are authentically recreated and loads of player options. 86%

F-15 STRIKE EAGLE II

MICROPROSE £39.99
This is another classic flight sim from the company with a good reputation for producing quality aviation software. Great graphics, superb sound and relentless action. 88%

F-1 CIRCUS

IMPORT
Addictive and playable, F-1 Circus was, in its time, one of the best arcade driving sims. With plenty of courses worldwide, it's great fun. 82%

F-1 GRAND PRIZ

IMPORT
Great roaring sound effects and superb graphics make this racing fun. It may not be as fast as F-1 Circus, but the visuals are superior. 87%

F-22 INTERCEPTOR

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
Plenty of scenarios to be shot down in, including Iraq, with Saddam shedding tears for his beloved comrades. It's now very dated. 72%

THE FAERY TALE ADVENTURE

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
One of the biggest and most challenging games ever. Fans of RPGs and adventures will love it, but it's also very accessible and ideal for newcomers. 81%

FANTASIA

SEGA £39.99
Although the graphics are astounding, it's full of poor collision detection, frustrating restart points and repetitive gameplay. Very, very tough. 81%

FATAL FURY

SEGA £44.99
A fairly credible Street Fighter II clone with plenty of action and moves to begin with but the interest will falter, unless you play it on the hardest difficulty setting. 84%

FASTEST 1

IMPORT
Full marks for splitting the screen for two-player racing, but zero for looks and gameplay. Racers are essentially simple, but surely not this basic? 48%

FATAL LABYRINTH

SEGA £19.99
Fatal Labyrinth is far too easy to offer any real challenge to the experienced adventurer. It may prove ideal for the novice to dig into and complete. 68%

FATAL REWIND

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
Originally titled The Killing Game Show, this makes excellent use of the machine's capability. Head-banging wicked soundtrack and superb graphics accompanies this vast thinking-man's platformer. 85%

FATMAN

IMPORT
This is no Street Fighter II, but it certainly packs a punch. Well worth a play, with comical characters parading across the screen. 64%

FERRARI GRAND PRIX CHALLENGE

FLYING EDGE £39.99
Possibly the worst racing game available. Poor graphics and jerky scrolling make it terrible. Monotonous grinding sound doesn't help. 38%

FIGHTING MASTERS

IMPORT
Here's another of those games with visuals designed only to conceal the fact that there's nothing else there. Okay beat-'em-up for wimps. 30%

FINAL BLOW

IMPORT
As this is criminally easy, you shouldn't look for value. The boxes look great, but their power is so immense no-one stands a chance. 42%

FIRE MUSTANG

IMPORT
Somewhat, a WW2 setting for a shoot-'em-up just doesn't seem right. The large graphics slow the gameplay below an acceptable speed. 55%

FIRE SHARK

SEGA £19.99
Fun shoot-'em-up with everything but challenge. Good graphics, immense power-ups and a large array of opponents, but there are better. 75%

FLASHBACK

US GOLD £44.99
If you thought Another World was good, wait until you see this! It has more than the first version with better graphics and animation. 94%

FLICKY

SEGA £29.99
The graphics are appalling, with some tiny sprites, simple backgrounds and the gameplay is monotonous. 37%

THE FLINTSTONES

SEGA £39.99
Fred Flintstone has been kicking around for a fair old time and now he stars in his own MD game! Fun graphics and gameplay in this platform adventure. 79%

FORGOTTEN WORLDS

SEGA £34.99
Repetitive gameplay becomes very trying. The stages are long and the enemies varied, making this a tough, but enjoyable, shoot-'em-up. 72%

G-LOC

SEGA £39.99
More mindless violence! An almost identical version to the arcade as you take to the skies and blast away as many enemies as possible! 80%

GABBIT TWINS

IMAGITEC £37.00
Superb graphics and wonderful cartoon FX make this a top import title. Hilarious fun to play and totally cute. A wonderful scrolling action packer where your hammer takes pride of place. 89%

GAIARES

IMPORT
Yet another coin-op conversion. Gaiarés, however, is an impressive shoot-'em-up which should keep all blast-'em fans happy despite its lack of originality. 81%

GAIN GROUND

SEGA £19.99
A simultaneous two-player game! Control a band of fighters who must shoot, bomb and jump their way through a massive landscape. 87%

GALAXY FORCE II

SEGA £19.95
Okay, this looks like the real thing, but it's miles off the mark. It has been totally slaughtered. No playability, less challenge – a total loser. 20%

GENERAL CHAOS

ELECTRONIC ARTS £44.99
The haphazard battle between two military generals produces chaotic and addictive gameplay with a soft shade of humour that makes this an original piece of software for the collection. 91%

GEORGE FOREMAN'S KO BOXING

ACCLAIM £39.99
A poor attempt that should have been put to sleep the moment the programmers finished. 54%

GHOSTBUSTERS

SEGA £19.99
All the characters we know and love have been turned into Japanese mutants with massive heads. It's no fun to play. 28%

GHOULS 'N' GHOSTS

SEGA £44.99
A pricey, but great arcade adventure that has already become a classic. There's no excuse to charge over the odds. Trouble is, everyone should at least try it! 90%

GLOBAL GLADIATORS

VIRGIN £44.99
Wonderful platform game where you fire custard at Slime Monsters and collect McDonald's arches. The graphics and sound are excellent. The gameplay is highly original and packed with challenging levels, although longevity is in question. 89%

GODS

IMPORT
Testing platform adventure fun at its best. Stunning graphics with authentic and powerful backgrounds and, as yet, not officially released. Only available from Japan and the States, but it's worth seeing. 92%

GOLDEN AXE

SEGA £19.99
In its day, a truly pioneering arcade adventure. Too easy, but the game contains loads of locations and aggressive adversaries. 72%

GOLDEN AXE II

SEGA £19.99
Even easier than the original. This remix contains loads of new tough creatures to eradicate and some neat story screens. Buy one if you must, but not both. 75%

GRANDSLAM TENNIS

IMPORT £34.99
The third in the series offers no real difference in gameplay apart from an option to choose your route at times during the quest. Let's not see a fourth release please! 62%

GRANADA X

SEGA £29.99
Fancy controlling a 20-tonne tank to rescue a kidnapped girl. Addictive and, but far too easy. A difficult setting would've helped. 80%

GREEN DOG

SEGA £39.99
Control the hip Greendog as he ventures through the wild side. Well-animated, but far too easy. A difficulty setting would've helped. 80%

GREY LANCER

IMPORT
Ultra fast scrolling shoot-'em-up. Awesome soundtrack and nothing less than superb gameplay. The weapon selection adds even more fun. 83%

GUNSTAR HEROES

SEGA £39.99
The original ideas and unique gameplay add to the fun and excitement of this two player shoot-'em-up that boasts effective and colourful backdrops. 87%

GYNOUG

SEGA £19.99
At the end of each level there are some disgusting guardians. This alone makes the gameplay fun. Gels well and is worth a look. 76%

HARDBALL

IMPORT
An average baseball simulator that looks nice, but doesn't offer a thing when it comes to the gameplay. Try something in the RBI series. 32%

HARDBALL III

ACCOLADE £39.99
Baseball games come and go, but Hardball III will keep obsessive fans happy for a very long time with its excellent graphics and great gameplay. 80%

HARD DRIVIN'

TENGEN £39.99
Viewed from within the car, this uses filled vector graphics to display the road etc and is, despite its critics, a very playable driving game. 83%

HEAVY NOVA

IMPORT
Robots in a colourful, but rather poor, one-on-one beat-'em-up. Another CD conversion which certainly hasn't worked with the use of a cart. There are plenty better in this genre. 29%

HEAVY UNIT

IMPORT
This shoot-'em-up's point of interest is that you can change the shape of your ship. It adds a tactical aspect to an average Japanese game. 68%

HERZOG ZWEI

SEGA £19.99
You wouldn't think this was an official release. Even so, it's a fair attempt at combining strategy with arcade action among tanks. 76%

HIT THE ICE

IMPORT
This arcade conversion is let down by poor gameplay. Players are too slow and awkward to direct, destroying any incentive to progress in the tournament. 32%

HOME ALONE

SEGA £39.99
Completely average spin-off from the hit movie. Average graphics and sound. Below average gameplay and ultimately totally boring. 54%

HUMANS

IMPORT
Nice little puzzle game in which humans are controlled to clear levels. Okay graphics and sound, but nothing too special. 80%

IMMORTAL (THE)

ELECTRONIC ARTS £44.99
The Immortal combines brilliant visuals with tough puzzles to create a monster of a game. Above all, there are almost 20 different, gory death sequences. 83%

INDIANA JONES: LAST CRUSADE

US GOLD £39.99
A fairly decent platformer that follows the film well, but with only five short and easy levels, there may not be enough here to please ardent games players. 72%

INSPECTOR X

IMPORT
This is a truly superb shoot-'em-up and one of the very few import games to excel. While the gameplay keeps you stuck to it like a limpet, the graphics continue to surprise and the sound keeps the adrenaline pumping. Almost necessary kit. 90%

ISLAND: THE WAY OF THE STONES

IMPORT
Fans of the ancient Chinese game Shanghai, will love this simulation. Quite why you should spend £35 on a board game is beyond us, but each to their own. 64%

J LEAGUE PRO STRIKER

IMPORT
Soccer is becoming big in Japan and this game coincided with the start of the new J League. A great footy sim, with everything you'd expect in a match, including a four player option. It's faster on Kap machines! 90%

JAMES BOND - THE DUEL

DOMARK £39.99
James Bond offers his services to rescue a few dumb blondes. Neat animation and flawless graphics are helped along by spot-on effects. 80%

JAMES POND

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
This was the first MD game to be programmed solely in the UK. Unfortunately, everything is far too bland as you swim around saving the environment. 70%

JAMES POND II

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
Some said this was better than Sonic – one thing's for sure, it's much faster! The graphics are super slick, the gameplay challenging and, above all, it's a really fun game to play. A brilliant sequel. 90%

JENNIFER CAPRIATI TENNIS

IMPORT
Run-of-the-mill tennis game, released officially as Grandslam Tennis. Very plain and basic graphics with nothing exciting to offer in the way of gameplay. 59%

JEWEL MASTER

SEGA £34.99
Initially impressive, with some smooth parallax scrolling and a good deal of colour splashed on the screen. But just too repetitive. 61%

JOE MONTANA FOOTBALL

SEGA £19.99
One of Sega's first attempts at an American football game, but not even the great Joe Montana can save it from being unplayable and totally boring. 57%

JOE MONTANA II

SEGA £34.99
This Sportstalk game from Sega includes a life-line running commentary. Very innovative, but it's far from making it a hit. The side-on view is not as good as John Madden's. 75%

JOE MONTANA III

SEGA £34.99
A much updated sequel which would have been considered a good alternative if it weren't for the sheer quality of EA's Madden 93. Nice try, all the same. 84%

JOHN MADDEN FOOTBALL

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
Single-handedly started the American football following on the Mega Drive. This is real fun to play, although it's far too easy. 84%

JOHN MADDEN FOOTBALL 92

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
The updated graphics and sounds make this everyone's choice for a footy game. Although it's very accurate, you only need to use a limited array of passes to get anywhere. 92%

JOHN MADDEN FOOTBALL 93

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
Same as the others, but with updated team line-ups and Greatest Ever teams. Hardly worth buying if you already have Madden 92, but if you haven't got one, buy this. 92%

JORDAN VS BIRD

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
Although there's a great one-on-one basketball game and two decent sub-games, it suffers from the lack of a decent full game option. 78%

JUNCTION

IMPORT
Junction adds a new flame to the fire by mixing a Pipe Mania type game with a slide puzzle, resulting in a very challenging game. 81%

JUNGLE STRIKE

ELECTRONIC ARTS £44.99
Each of the nine campaigns has a variety of missions and scenarios that will have you totally absorbed for weeks! With so many enemies and superb gameplay, this is an awesome leap forward from Desert Strike. 96%

KABUKI SOLDIER

IMPORT
Exciting beat-'em-up featuring sumo wrestlers and other similarly overweight persons. Scrolling backdrop is exquisite, but a mile easy for hard hands. 73%

KA-GE-KI

IMPORT
Known also as Fists of Steel, this beat-'em-up is nothing spectacular. Tiny bodies with big heads romp about in an effort to beat each other up. Need we say more? 36%

KID CHAMELEON

SEGA £39.99
The Kid must venture over and underground to save his mates. Best of all, he can change his persona, resulting in constantly changing gameplay. 78%

KING COLOSSUS

SEGA IMPORT
Japanese adventure game with a long introductory sequence. Nine stages of pretty, but uneventful, adventuring. Learn the lingo first! 43%

KING'S BOUNTY

IMPORT
A blocky and rather boring RPG with huge amounts of bland landscape to cover. With much to explore it is bound to appeal to many RPG gamers. 66%

KING SALMON

IMPORT
Fishing simulator with lots of addictive gameplay. Detailed graphics help make it fun to play and ultimately very competitive although it is a very basic game. 68%

KING OF THE MONSTERS

SEGA £39.99
King of the Monsters isn't all that good, but it is funny as monster fights monster while trying to cause as much destruction in the over-populated cities. 57%

KLAX

DOMARK £39.99
This is still one of the most infuriating puzzle games to play. Excellent sound and constantly changing graphics ensure lasting gameplay. 80%

KRUSTY'S SUPER FUN HOUSE

FLYING EDGE £39.95
A Simpsons 'Krusty'. Unfortunately, you're always waiting for something exciting to happen and boredom sets in. 75%

LAND STALKER

IMPORT
Fantastic adventure game with tremendous graphics and a huge game area to cover. Currently in Japanese text, but well worth waiting for officially. 84%

LAKERS VS CELTICS

ELECTRONIC ARTS £34.99
This was one of the first EA sports games to fully utilise the EASN playing characteristics. It's incredibly realistic, looks great and the action is hot. 80%

LAST BATTLE

SEGA £19.99
This is a disappointing beat-'em-up because the graphics are great, but are let down by slow, repetitive gameplay. 58%

THE LEGEND OF GILGAMESH

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
Nothing more than an average platform game with an element of RPG to boost its rating. Detailed graphics, but ultimately boring and uneventful. 64%

LEMMINGS

SEGA £39.99
The finest puzzle game to hit any machine let alone the MD. Take control of numerous amounts of assorted Lemmings and keep their population alive. Super addictive fun and wicked soundtracks play on each level. 90%

LHX ATTACK CHOPPER

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
A far from original helicopter simulation set within the hostile air zones of the Middle East. Nothing special about the vector graphics or sound. Should appeal only to diehard war junkies. 70%

LOTUS TURBO CHALLENGE

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
Very nearly the ultimate car racing game. A blinding realism of speed and fantastic graphics give the required edge over anything else. 89%

MT ABRAMS BATTLE TANK

SEGA £39.99
If you like tanks then this could tickle your fancy. The graphics are impressive and the sound functional, but the real delight is in controlling the massive chunk of metal. 80%

MAGICAL MR TALIROOT

IMPORT
A platform game with the usual cute characters, but it soon becomes boringly repetitive. Possibly appealing to the younger games player. 36%

MARBLE MADNESS

ELECTRONIC ARTS £34.99
If you were a fan of the coin-op, you'll love this. It's an exact replica; the only difference being lack of trackball and challenging levels. Still, very playable and enjoyable. 82%

MARIO LEMIEUX HOCKEY

SEGA £39.99
Despite the Sega hype, this failed to impress. Viewing the match from the side fails dismally, making it very hard to work out moves and NHLPA Hockey runs all over it. 73%

MARVEL LAND

IMPORT
A great game with vast amounts to do and explore. Platform adventuring with a tinge of cuteness and probably a test of anyone's skill. 73%

MASTER OF MONSTERS

IMPORT
A boring strategy where only the master of the monsters can stand a chance of winning. A total waste of money and not recommended. 28%

MASTER OF WEAPON

IMPORT
This vertically scrolling shoot-'em-up is playable enough and scrolls pretty fast for most people, but you'll complete it too soon. 72%

MAZIN WARS

SEGA £39.99
A great combination of beat-'em-up and shoot-'em-up action. Lots of enemies, some lovely graphics and engrossing gameplay. 81%

MEGA LO MANIA

VIRGIN £39.99
Ever wanted to be God? Now is your chance. An absolutely brilliant game which includes stunning gameplay and it's all very challenging. Not a moment too soon, either. 92%

MEGA PANEL

IMPORT
Tetris, but fresher and better presented than the old Russian puzzler. There are some great graphics and varied gameplay, making it an addictive game. 83%

MEGA TEXAS

IMPORT
This deserves credit for trying, but fails to come off as the enjoyable game that a 4x4 board racer should be. Split-screen versus adds to the play. 59%

MERCUS

SEGA £19.99
Identical to the arcade, this boasts stunning graphics and beasty sounds, but is too easy for most players. 75%

MICRO MACHINES

CODEMASTERS £39.99
The definitive in miniature, but it works well. Race your miniatur car around the breakfast table or on little Timmy's bedroom floor. All-action raciness in a class of its own. There's nothing else just quite like it. 90%

MIDNIGHT MADNESS

MOONWALKER

SEGA £19.99
A fairy tale adventure where you have to save captured children. The graphics and animation are top-notch, but it will be completed quickly. 78%

MS PACMAN

IMPORT
Blocky graphics are even worse than the original arcade game. 32 colours can be displayed on screen at any one time, but not here. 28%

MURAMAD ALI'S BOXING

VRGIN £39.99
There are ten boxers you must beat before becoming the number one rank. Each boxer is superbly animated and the ringside atmosphere is terrific. Even if you're not a boxing fan, this is a real knockout. 81%

MUTANT LEAGUE FOOTBALL

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
A great idea that is let down by the lack of depth that made the John Madden series a timeless classic. If you found John Madden too deep, then try this for more fun. 70%

MYSTIC DEFENDER

SEGA £19.99
A blasting frenzy for the first couple of plays, but it soon turns into nothing more than a boring wander through the far eastern undergrowth. 65%

NEW ZEALAND STORY

IMPORT
This is a super conversion of Taito's hot platform coin-op in the style of Bubble Bobbie. The two-player mode is excellent fun and only slows up occasionally. 85%

NBA ALL STAR CHALLENGE

IMPORT
The lack of a full-game tournament option lets it down, but there are lots of challenges against the computer or second player. 68%

NHLPA HOCKEY

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
The definitive ice-hockey simulation. Similar to the original, EA Hockey, but lots more stats and real players, each with their own characteristics. Because of stats, better than the original in one-player mode, but slower and tougher. 94%

NINJA BURAI

IMPORT
An RPG that requires an understanding of the Japanese language. All on-screen instructions, gauges and indicators make life very difficult. 79%

OLYMPIC GOLD

US GOLD £39.99
The MD is short of this kind of sporting compilation, but Olympic Gold more than makes up for the gap that has been created. Best played with a crowd of players. 81%

ONSLAUGHT

IMPORT
An excellent medieval platform beat-'em-up that comes recommended - if you can find a copy. Be prepared for one of the best platformers available today. 81%

OUTLANDER

IMPORT
An enjoyable drive'n'blast game that will please anyone who fancies themselves as a Mad Max clone, but more of the same really! 62%

OUT RUN

SEGA £19.99
This still has a basic undefinable draw. Perhaps it's the joy in burning up other road-users. Sadly, it slows down when too much gets on screen. 75%

OUTRUN 2019

SEGA £39.99
This isn't another episode in the Outrun saga! Set far into the future, it's the best Outrun so far and offers a wicked challenge with detailed graphics. 63%

PAC-MANIA

DOMARK £34.99
3-D Pac-Man is a rather pleasant outing. The graphics are excellent, which makes the whole thing a joy to play. 78%

PAPERBOY

DOMARK £39.99
A fine conversion firmly entrenched in people's hearts. Lots of new streets and even more hazards to circumnavigate. It still lacks and two-player versus mode. 60%

PAPERBOY 2

DOMARK £39.99
Another fine conversion, but there's still no two player versus mode. Still if you are a fan of the original, then this is more of the same, with very little else added. 63%

PGA TOUR GOLF

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
Slightly better than Arnold Palmer due to its realism (you even get the occasional bird tweeting) and improved graphics. 88%

PGA TOUR GOLF II

ELECTRONIC ARTS £44.99
A successful follow-up to one of the best golfing games ever. New courses and a bigger challenge await players, but it is very similar to the original having few changes other than a few more courses. 90%

PHANTASY SOLDIER 3

IMPORT
As the majority of gamers won't have heard of this game, if you see it, buy it! A top quality platform adventure with excellent graphics and even better gameplay. 86%

PHANTASY STAR II

SEGA £59.99
First of the mammoth RPG series. It's fairly easy to get into which is encouraging. Old-hands may find it too easy, though. 70%

PHANTASY STAR III

SEGA £49.99
Now this is more like it - ten quid cheaper than the original! The progress shows with improved graphics, but the sound is still very weak and it's still very pricey for what you get. 78%

PHELIOS

SEGA £34.99
Mediocrity is the order of this shoot-'em-up, with bog-standard audio visuals and ordinary gameplay. Another one you'll finish the day you get it. 60%

PIGSKIN FOOTBALL

IMPORT
Based loosely on the rules of American football, except it's 200 times more violent! Brilliant fun, which works surprisingly well in two-player mode. 75%

PIT-FIGHTER

DOMARK £49.99
Improved digitised graphics, gut wrenching sound and the appeal of battering opponents to death. How could this fail to be a winner? 87%

POPULOUS

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
One of the most over-rated games ever. This certainly isn't an action game, yet the strategy isn't clever enough to keep mental players enthralled for long. 65%

POWERBALL

IMPORT
The graphics are very simple in what is a cross between wrestling, martial arts and soccer. The original idea is innovative, but poorly executed. 74%

POWERMONGER

ELECTRONIC ARTS £39.99
A massive land-conquering mission has to be undertaken. Unfortunately, the graphics and sound let it down and long-lasting appeal is seriously affected. 72%

POWER CHALLENGE

ACCOLADE £39.99
Reverse angle replays, well drawn fairways and a realistic sense of depth and control on the two courses are the main features of this average golf sim. 72%

PREDATOR 2

FLYING EDGE £34.99
Futuristic street violence bash-'em-up. Seven stages with three skill levels and plenty of hostage rescuing to be done. It is relatively difficult and will keep you going for a while. 80%

PRO QUARTERBACK

IMPORT
A playable enough game, but it's too unoriginal. Ardent sports fans will enjoy it, but bemoan the lack of a tournament option. 70%

QUACKSHOT

MEGA-CD LEVEL SELECT

This is a useful level select cheat for the recent Official release of the popular Japanese import game. Go to the menu screen and press Up, Up, Up, Down, Down, Down, Left, Left, Right, Right, Up. If the cheat has worked, you will hear a jingle. Go into the game and you will be able to start on any level. Start pauses the action and C takes you to the end of the current level.

Tony Underwood, Bolton

DOUBLE DRAGON

MASTER SYSTEM INFINITE LIVES

When you reach level four, go into the middle of the screen and do 30 kicks by pressing buttons 1 and 2 together. You will be awarded with infinite lives. This cheat works in a two-player game, too. Dawn Young, Cambridge

BATTLETOADS

MEGA DRIVE LEVEL THREE WARP

To discover a secret warp, Battletoad butt the two pigs at the start of the first level and run to the first platform to find a glowing warp. Walk into the warp and you'll be shown another screen offering the chance to warp up to two levels. You must be very quick with this cheat else the glowing warp will disappear.

BATMAN RETURNS

MEGA-CD LEVEL SELECT

Go into the options screen and highlight the 'driving only' section. Hold the D-pad LEFT and press B. Move the cursor down to 'Difficulty' and hold LEFT and press B. Repeat this all the way through to seven on the options screen. When you reach the bottom option, go back up the list repeating the procedure. You should hear a jingle to confirm that the cheat has worked. Change the options to what you want and start the game. Press START and then C to select the level you want to play.

This beat-'em-up's gameplay is limited due to the small array of martial arts moves. It's also very easy to complete the game on your first go. 67%

STREETS OF RAGE

SEGA £34.99
This was widely accepted as the most gruesome beat-'em-up when first released, but it penultimately lacks challenge. Moves are wide-ranging and the sound effects and tunes awesome, but it could all be over on the first go. 83%

STREETS OF RAGE II

SEGA £44.99
An good beat-'em-til-til-they-bleed offering. The massive 16Mbit cart has been used to its full potential. Gameplay and versus modes make the overall game something to relish, if that's what you like. 87%

STRIDER

SEGA £19.99
All stages, bar the last, are easily completed. The graphics on some will have you awe-struck, but too many sprites on screen causes the dreaded slowdown syndrome. 87%

STRIDER II

US GOLD £39.99
This action-packed platformer follows the tradition of the original, although it's been totally revamped for a more modern feel. Unfortunately, there are no passwords, so it's going to be a fair while before you finish it. 76%

SUMMER CHALLENGE

ACCOLADE £34.99
Budding athletes are given eight different summer time sports. The sprites are well animated and very realistic, but unfortunately, events are too short. Gameplay is also a little dated to say the least. 52%

SUNSET RIDERS

KONAMI £39.99
Authentic cowboy and indian action is similar to coin-op, but with less detailed graphics. One of the best platform shooters around that shouldn't be ignored! 85%

SUPER AIRWOLF

IMPORT
Also known as Crossfire, this shoot-'em-up certainly packs a punch. Very fast gameplay and superb graphics makes it a winner, but it ultimately lacks variation. 53%

SEGA £29.99
Painter games live on, but only just in this cheap and cheerful puzzler. Average graphics and sound. Soon gets either too boring or too frustrating. This isn't up to much. 48%

You may have noticed that we've spent some time updating the scores. So, many have changed dramatically since last time.
Tune in next month for the top Sega reference.

GLOBAL GLADIATORS

MEGA DRIVE SECRET SCREEN

To access a secret programmer's screen quickly press C, B, A, C, B, A, C, B, A, C, B, A when the Sega logo appears. You will now be able to change the number of lives you have and where you start the game.

ROLO TO THE RESCUE MEGA DRIVE END OF LEVEL

On the title screen, simultaneously press up, left, A and C. Press RESET, but keep the buttons held down for about five seconds. Release the buttons and press B. The special options screen will then appear. Press START to go to the animal select screen and move the cursor to the compass marker. Press A and B simultaneously - the screen will flash and you'll be standing at the end of the level.

WIN AN EXCLUSIVE SEGAPro T-SHIRT!

Mark Schmitz from Meopham in Kent sent in the answer to last month's problem about how to find the lightning swords in Chakan: The Forever Man. The answer is hidden in level four. When you have completed it, go back in and finish it again. When you reach the screen where you killed the boss, roll quickly to the right and jump onto the platform in the top right corner. You must be quick else the swords will disappear. Cheers Mark, a SEGAPro T-shirt is on its way to you.

SWORD OF VERMILION

MEGA DRIVE

GENERAL TIPS

Here are a few pieces of advice that will help you conquer the ever-taxing Sword of Vermilion:
When you enter a village talk to everyone when your situation changes talk to them again - they might have something new to say. Always make sure you have the best equipment by making room in your inventory and selling the old gear.
When you leave a town, make sure you have a map of the area and a light, just in case you're going into a cave.
A chest is more likely to appear if you have fought a few battles without being hit or using magic. After every battle, wait to see if a chest appears.

The best way to enter the sound, colour and input test screen is by pressing A, B, C and START on the title screen.

PRO SCORES

Okay, you've played the game, you've finished the levels, you've found all the objects and you've scored all the points. Now it's your chance to become a part of SEGAPro. We know our readers are the best in the land and just to prove it, here's your chance to become immortalised in the pages of SEGAPro. The first thing to do is be like the Pros and play a game until some ridiculous hour in the morning, racking up a ridiculously high score. Now fill in the form below giving all the details we ask for (if we didn't want 'em we wouldn't ask for 'em). Now take a photo of yourself (or get someone else to take it), preferably as wacky as possible. Be warned, any boring pictures will be doctored for our own pleasure! Get some proof of your score, either a friend's signature or a photo of the screen. Now send the whole lot to ProScores, SEGAPro, Durham House, 124 Old Christchurch Road, Bournemouth, Dorset BH1 1NF.

GAME GEAR

Tengen's World Cup

ACE OF ACES

SEGA £32.99
MS flight sims have never been complex and this isn't breaking any new ground. Average opening statics, but in-game graphics are pretty dreadful. 55%

ACTION FIGHTER

SEGA £12.99
Dodging, shooting or bumping into the vehicles soon gets very repetitive, even with a few surprise elements. Not enough overall content, though. 51%

AGASSI TENNIS

TECMAGIK £32.99
The King of bleached hair and hairy stomachs, takes to the Master System. This is a fairly decent attempt to cash in on the tennis season. 84%

AERIAL ASSAULT

SEGA £29.99
Ancient, but relies on old-fashioned principles of keeping the player busy. This shoot-'em-up is still quite a frenzy. Graphics and sound are now dated. 69%

AFTER BURNER

SEGA £14.99
Speed and frenetic action of the simple arcade machine still here. It contains all the coin-op features, even the flying flip which will send you well dizzy. 85%

ALEX KIDD IN HI-TECH WORLD

SEGA £29.99
Alex's worst outing ever. The main problem with this is the presence of a very harsh restart procedure which always places you back at the beginning when you die. 54%

ALEX KIDD IN MIRACLE WORLD

SEGA £24.99
This is undoubtedly his most successful attempt. It was designed in competition to Nintendo's Mario and uses many of the same popular and successful elements. Essential Sega software. 90%

ALEX KIDD IN SHINOBI WORLD

SEGA £29.99
Mixing ninja with a successful character. There's plenty of platform adventuring to keep you enthralled for ages. Only one player, though. 85%

ALEX KIDD AND THE LOST STARS

SEGA £29.99
Usually Alex Kidd provides you with a testing challenge that lasts for months. Not in this finding the lost stars won't take you very long. 79%

ALF

SEGA £29.99
Poor sprite collision, badly designed graphics, limited sound effects and a repetitive game target. Don't bother with it! 16%

ALIEN 3

SEGA £32.99
As with the MD and GG versions, this is brilliant. Guide Ripley through the treacherous space-ship in a stunning platform adventure. Loads to do and power-ups galore make it a definite winner. 90%

ALIEN STORM

SEGA £9.99
Massive "save the human race" game, with cool visuals, but a bit on the easy side. A sort of Golden Axe in the 21st century. Recommended for gamers everywhere. 87%

ALIEN SYNDROME

SEGA £29.99
If you can get hold of a friend, this game becomes a real pleasure to play as you team up to explore and destroy the seven alien-infested ships. 85%

ALTERED BEAST

SEGA £14.99
Appalling conversion of a popular coin-op. It's a beat-'em-up, but is severely flawed and made very average due to the flickery sprites and jerky scrolling. 50%

AMERICAN BASEBALL

SEGA £29.99
Baseball games are in abundance on console. This offering allows you to manage one of 26 teams plus the usual bat and pitch play. Good for one or two players. 83%

AMERICAN PRO FOOTBALL

SEGA £29.99
This takes a top-down view of the proceedings. The graphics are small, but distinct and have a little animation. Good for beginners as everything is kept simple. 79%

ARCH RIVALS

SEGA £32.99
Basketball with attitude problem as all the rules are thrown out of the window in a no-holds-barred fight for victory. The fun is limited to two-player mode. 83%

ARCADE SMASH HITS

VIRGIN £29.99
Centipede, Break-Out and Missile Command all in one cartridge. All the games are fairly basic in content, but the addictiveness and playability shines through. 82%

ASSAULT CITY

SEGA £14.99
A superb shoot-'em-up in all areas. The action is kept fast and furious and even though there are only six levels, it's quite a challenge. 83%

ASTERIX

SEGA £29.99
Whatever you do, don't miss out on this tour de force of arcade adventuring. The graphics could have been taken from the comic book, and the incidental music is more than just that. New Age MS excellence. 94%

ASTRO WARRIOR

SEGA £29.99
Usual shoot-'em-up stuff and there's nothing here to make you think different. Pick up the power-ups, learn the attack strategy and Bob's your uncle. 67%

AZTEC ADVENTURE

SEGA £12.99
Could have been a fun arcade adventure if you didn't get chucked back to the start every time you die. If the graphics weren't good, it would be insufferable. 70%

BACK TO THE FUTURE II

IMAGE WORKS £34.99
Pathetic movie tie-in that has the odd good-looking graphic that you may recognise. Don't buy it anyway because it'll disappoint. 24%

BACK TO THE FUTURE III

FLYING EDGE £34.99
Much better sequel, but has only three stages and they get easier. The programmers have taken recognisable bits from the film. 79%

BANK PANIC

SEGA £17.99
If you're one of the few people with a Phaser gun, then this cheap offering presents quite good value for money. Many humorous moments. 71%

BART VS THE SPACE MUTANTS

FLYING EDGE £32.99
The first Simpsons game to hit the Sega and certainly better than its Nintendo counterpart. Of all the Sega versions, this is definitely the most impressive, packed with challenge and playability. 93%

BASKETBALL NIGHTMARE

SEGA £29.99
An innovative approach which is inspired by the film, Teen Wolf. Monster teams line up against each other. Solely to make you laugh. 88%

BATMAN RETURNS

SEGA £29.99
Follows in the Mega Drive's footsteps in that it looks great, but is fairly unplayable. Waste of a good licence. 53%

BATTLE OUT RUN

SEGA £29.99
You simply have to zoom down the road, avoiding the traffic, catch up with the drug dealer's car and stop him. Tiresome Out Run rehash. 67%

BLACK BELT

SEGA £24.99
A criminally easy beat-'em-up. Incredibly poor graphics with backdrops containing little more than a wall and some sky. Unexciting and repetitive. 41%

BLADE EAGLE 3-D

SEGA £19.99
Addition of some 3-D graphics pulls this shoot-'em-up above the usual offerings. Little challenge on the early levels, but punishes on the last. 77%

BOMBER RAID

SEGA £29.99
Testing as you try to take out both air and ground targets. Not difficult mentally, but certainly tests patience and quickly becomes exceedingly boring. 33%

BONANZA BROS

SEGA £29.99
Great graphics and some extra bonus stages. Primarily a two-player game, but it's also brilliant in one player as you try to find the loot on ten frantic stages. 90%

BUBBLE BOBBLE

SEGA £29.99
Although an ancient piece of software, it's a real classic. Essentially repetitive, but very addictive in two-player. 86%

CALIFORNIA GAMES

SEGA £29.99
Six events - skateboard, football, surfing, BMX, half-pipe and frisbee - means long-lasting challenge and enhanced playability. 83%

CALIFORNIA GAMES II

SEGA £32.99
Hanging ten and catching waves may be trendy in California, but it's not very interesting on the Master System. Every event looks very dated and gameplay is far too simple. 58%

CAPTAIN SILVER

SEGA £29.99
Finding buried treasure in real-life is pretty tough. Despite being difficult, the superb sprites and sound will keep you playing for ages. 82%

CASINO GAMES

SEGA £29.99
This should help solve your addiction to one arm bandits in five minutes. After playing all of the Las Vegas-based games, you'll be sick of the sight of them for good. 44%

CASTLE OF ILLUSION

SEGA £29.99
Mickey's adventure through the magical forest and castle is one of the best games on the MS. Brilliant animation and sprite definition make this an all-time classic. 94%

CHAMPIONS OF EUROPE

TECMAGIK £34.99
Early versions of this game were plagued with bugs, but ignoring these, the actual game is great, with many innovative features and great gameplay. 92%

CHASE HQ

SEGA £14.99
What Battle Out Run was trying to be, but this isn't much better. It takes ages to reach the truckies' car and if you mess up it takes ages to relocate them again. 72%

CRASH DUMMIES

ACCLAIM £32.99
A pretty addictive game that has five short challenges. A nice try, but there is so little to it! 52%

CHOPLIFTER

SEGA £24.99
Although the graphics and sound look grim, the playability shines through. Recommended as one of the most enduring and addictive games of all-time. 85%

CHUCK ROCK

VIRGIN £29.99
A hilarious Neanderthal platform adventure with dynamic graphics and a super intro tune. As atmospheric as the MD version is and equally addictive. 84%

CLOUD MASTER

SEGA £29.99
You control a strange little fellow who simply goes around on his faithful white cloud shooting everyone. Loads of big guys throughout the five slow levels. 60%

COLUMNS

SEGA £24.99
Possibly the best Sega machine implementation of this excellent Tetris beater. It is far more enjoyable and rewarding than the popular original, especially when playing in two-player versus mode. 91%

CYBER SHINOBI

SEGA £14.99
The Shinobi series never seems to stop and although different, this contains similar elements seen in the others. Gameplay lacks content and it's fairly easy. 68%

CYBORG HUNTER

SEGA £24.99
While the seven levels of the fortress you have to explore are certainly vast, they lack content. It's fun at first, but the repetition becomes very tedious and annoying. 62%

DANAN: THE JUNGLE FIGHTER

SEGA £29.99
Stuck in the jungles, you must fight your way through the undergrowth and the inordinate amount of unfriendlies. Good, if a little repetitive. 72%

DEAD ANGLE

SEGA £29.99
A simple Op Wolf clone. It adds nothing new to the genre and, therefore, becomes too boring very quickly. Give it a miss if you know what's good for you. 51%

DICK TRACY

SEGA £14.99
Blurred graphics, jerky animation and is totally unplayable. One of the worst film tie-ins ever. 21%

DOUBLE DRAGON

SEGA £14.99
This is a very accurate conversion suffering only from being a bit too easy for a game with only a few levels and similar gameplay. 70%

DOUBLE HAWK

SEGA £14.99
Two fighters must blast all who stand in their way, picking up all the available power-ups. Great two-player action makes this a decent, albeit easy, shoot-'em-up. 70%

DRAGON CRYSTAL

SEGA £29.99
This seems lost and vacant in the abyss of a TV screen. Even so, there's enough challenge in there to keep RPG fans happy for months. 82%

DYNAMITE DUKE

SEGA £29.99
If you like your action simple point 'n' shoot you can go wrong here. It's very similar to Operation Wolf, but the graphics are far superior. 72%

DYNAMITE DUX

SEGA £29.99
A cute and colourful arcade beat-'em-up that is very addictive and challenging. The dodgy scrolling occasionally affects play, but overall it's a lot of fun to play. 86%

ENDURO RACER

SEGA £9.99
Nothing like the arcade as you view your bike from above and race over an obstacle course. Plays surprisingly well, but there's a serious lack of a two-player mode. 68%

ESWAT

SEGA £14.99
A decent conversion of Sega's popular coin-op. You play a cop trying to gain promotion to the ESWAT branch. Enjoyable and challenging. 71%

F-16 FIGHTER

SEGA £14.99
Ten levels packed with MIGs. Sadly, it suffers from being too complex for its own good; it's neither simple fun to play or taxing on the brain. 63%

FANTASY ZONE

SEGA £12.99
For such a paltry asking price how can you ignore this ground-breaking shoot-'em-up? No-one has ever used colour to such effect on the MS; this game requires sun-glasses! A piece of history that can't be ignored. 91%

FANTASY ZONE 2

SEGA £24.99
More of the same abuse of the MS colour palette. Eight more levels that are just as tough and challenging as the original. 90%

FANTASY ZONE 3

you try to defeat him, remember that there's no arcade action - just lots of adventuring. 67%

GOLFAMANIA

SEGA £32.99
For one or two players, it may not look like a visual feast of golfing delights, but you'll be glad to hear that it's packed with playability and fun. 82%

GOLVILLIUS

SEGA £29.99
The evil Golvellius has dispatched seven of his top demons to prevent you from passing through the valley. Very challenging and graphically good, but lacks longevity. 77%

GP RIDER

SEGA £32.99
The riding stakes may be high, but the flickery sprites and poor graphics let GP Rider down. There's little variety between races and an annoying control method. 58%

GREAT BASEBALL

SEGA £24.99
Not as good as it pretends to be. Even so, for a game that is as old as this, the graphics and sound are fairly decent and it's still playable. For sports fans only. 75%

GREAT BASKETBALL

SEGA £24.99
Die-hard fans of the sport will be more at home here. The two-player mode makes the game a real challenge, but the computer oppo is easy. 78%

GREAT FOOTBALL

SEGA £24.99
There is no reason to buy this game with the likes of Joe Montana Football already out. This is a crinkly attempt that doesn't contain any credible atmosphere. 60%

GREAT GOLF

SEGA £24.99
There is no reason to buy this game with the likes of Leaderboard already out. This is a crinkly attempt that doesn't contain any atmosphere. 63%

GREAT ICE HOCKEY

SEGA £29.99
A brilliant sequel to Castle of Illusion. This is one of the best platform games around and should take pride of place in any Master System owner's collection. A cutesy fun adventure for all the family! 92%

GREAT VOLLEYBALL

SEGA £24.99
The sprites are far too small to make this even remotely enjoyable. Presentation is grotty, not doing anything for the great sport. Too old to crack it with the big boys. 55%

HANG-ON

SEGA £9.99
How can you resist this little beauty for just under a tenner? It's fairly quick, and not too jerky when weaving in and out. Not brilliant, but excellent value for those on a budget. 78%

HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMP

SEGA £24.99
Also known as George Foreman's KO Boxing, this does well in that the opposition put up a good fight. Much better on the Game Gear. 69%

HEROES OF THE LANCE

US GOLD £34.99
This is very slow and monotonous. Plenty of characters to play with, but even with the combat scenes boring, there's not much hope. 68%

HOME ALONE

SEGA £29.99
Bouncing around different houses, avoiding crooks and picking up items is the general idea in Home Alone. Each level has a nice variety of bright and colourful graphics, but the time allocated to search a house is far too short. 63%

IMPOSSIBLE MISSION

US GOLD £29.99
An excellent conversion packed with everything from the original, even the speech. The animation is second to none. Superbly addictive and great gameplay. 90%

INDIANA JONES 3

US GOLD £34.99
Very, very frustrating. Not only is it hard, with restart points, but the collision detection is also suss. Still, the graphics are encouraging. 80%

JAMES BOND

DOMARK £32.99
Not many sultry temptresses to be found here, but there are some excellent graphics and nice music. Let down ever so slightly by it's shallow gameplay. 78%

JAMES POND II

US GOLD £29.99
This platform adventure is very much like a shortened Super Mario World with each level carrying a colourful toy theme that's achieved by outstanding graphics. 92%

JOE MONTANA FOOTBALL

SEGA £29.99
If only it wasn't so blinking easy, it would keep you playing for ages. There are tons of moves plus Joe's recommendations. Overhead side-view works well. 78%

JUNGLE FIGHTER

SEGA £29.99
Scrolling sword-fighting game that becomes very addictive. Unfortunately, it's not very difficult and shouldn't take long to complete. 58%

KENSEIDEN

SEGA £29.99
While there's no doubting the size of Kenseiden, it suffers from being very predictable and easy in parts. A large but overly simple beat-'em-up that fails to please. 54%

KLAX

TENGEN £29.99
Doesn't quite come up to scratch. The graphics aren't bad, but the sound is lacking and the colours blur rather badly. Still addictive and quite playable, though. 73%

KRUSTY'S FUN HOUSE

ACCLAIM £32.99
Krusty provides us with a very colourful and challenging platform adventure in which rats have to be led into traps manned by The Simpson family. 84%

KUNG FU KID

SEGA £24.99
You are blessed with a talisman that gives you supernatural strength and powers. Kung fu games are nothing new and this just continues the line of mediocrity. 60%

LASER GHOST

SEGA £14.99
One of the better Phaser games, this can also be played just as effectively with the joystick. There are great statics and backgrounds. 84%

LAND OF ILLUSION

SEGA £29.99
A brilliant sequel to Castle of Illusion. This is one of the best platform games around and should take pride of place in any Master System owner's collection. A cutesy fun adventure for all the family! 92%

LEMMINGS

SEGA £27.99
Guide cute-and-cuddly characters through lots of stages of maze and puzzle madness. Simply brilliant graphics which go along with the game's simplicity. 89%

LINE OF FIRE

SEGA £29.99
Impressive vertical shoot-'em-up, lacking two-player mode. Detailed guardians and decent backdrops. More mindless, but enjoyable entertainment. 82%

LORD OF THE SWORD

SEGA £29.99
This arcade adventure contains some great character sprites, but the backgrounds get a little unoriginal. Enjoyable, but simple. 80%

THE LUCKY DIME CAPER

SEGA £24.99
Donald's first excursion onto MS is amongst the best games around. The graphics are superb. Best of all, it's mega-tough, addictive and is excellent value. 94%

MARBLE MADNESS

VIRGIN £29.99
Everything looks great and moves smoothly, but the time limit is pretty easy to beat. A very accurate conversion, though. 88%

MARKSMAN SHOOTING

SEGA £9.99
One of a limited amount of software released for the Light Phaser. Simple and fun to play, but Safari Hunt is far better. 43%

MASTER OF DARKNESS

SEGA £29.99
As chief vampire-blaster, it's up to you to rid Victorian London of vampires. A good platform game that should keep fans happy for quite a while. 80%

MAZE HUNTER 3-D

SEGA £19.99
Not exactly superb, but there's plenty of incentive to get going as tons of little sprites chase you round a maze. Quite big, but pretty easy. 72%

MERCES

SEGA £9.99
This has got to be one of the easiest games on the MS. It's a pity because there are some good graphics and the gameplay is fun. 73%

MIRACLE WARRIORS

SEGA £32.99
This RPG is surprisingly rather good. Controlled via menus that takes time. The graphics are good and the challenge high. 82%

MISSILE DEFENCE 3-D

SEGA £19.99
This is a grim old game. You'll need your 3-D glasses, but you won't miss much without them. Very repetitive and requires absolutely no talent. 46%

MONOPOLY

SEGA £29.99
Poor value for money. You could buy the Monopoly Deluxe table-top for less and it would still be more fun. It's accurate, but what's the point? 79%

MORTAL KOMBAT

ACCLAIM £34.99
A very good attempt at creating the blood'n'guts that were emphasised so well on the MD. There are only two backgrounds, but the fights are very playable and the difficulty is harder than on the MD. 93%

MOONWALKER

SEGA £29.99
Luckily, the game is much better than the film, with attractive graphics and decent sound. 85%

MS PACMAN

TENGEN £29.99
Even though this is a very accurate conversion of the Atari arcade machine, it doesn't quite hit the mark. Two-player is fun, but all too dated and it shows. 72%

MY HERO

SEGA £17.99
This game looks dreadful. It's a really simple beat-'em-up and not very taxing. If you're the school bully type, you'll love it. 64%

NEW ZEALAND STORY

TECMAGIK £34.99
It's fantastic! Excellent graphics, 12 tunes to keep your ear-drums satisfied and all the platform madness you could wish for, but it's very hard. 88%

THE NINJA

SEGA £9.99
For just a tenner you can have this bargain bonanza of Samurai-swarmed forest awaiting your body-blowing talents. Poor graphics, though. 75%

NINJA GAIDEN

SEGA £32.99
One of the best beat-'em-ups. Compelling gameplay and good animation make this a ninja classic. Spot-on difficulty level makes it ideal for young or old. 90%

OLYMPIC GOLD

US GOLD £34.99
Seven events comprise this mammoth piece of sporting software. No event would survive by itself, but the finishing holds it all together. 80%

OPERATION WOLF

TAITO £14.99
The old Phaser gun should have come into its own, but the light detection isn't too hot. Neat backdrops, although the flickery scrolling is annoying. 73%

OUT RUN

SEGA £29.99
There just isn't the feeling of speed in this coin-op. Graphics are kept to a minimum and are very simplistic. 3-D specs version available at the same price. 73%

OUT RUN 3-D

SEGA £29.99
Keeps to the original formula of Out Run, but it is in 3-D! This has to be the best 3-D game available on the MS to date, which isn't saying much. 83%

OUT RUN EUROPA

US GOLD £29.99
This European interpretation of Out Run comprises more vehicles and a longer route. It also tags on a more plausible storyline. Refreshingly good racing fun. 90%

PAC-MANIA

TECMAGIK £34.99
An excellent interpretation, but £35 for such an old concept is asking a bit much. If you don't mind splashing out, you won't be disappointed. 88%

PAPERBOY

TENGEN £29.99
Emulates the brilliant coin-op, but looks a bit old now. Above all, though, it's very playable and is sure to challenge your skills well into the morning run. 81%

PARLOUR GAMES

SEGA £9.99
Compilations of games on cart should always be treated with trepidation. An average simulation of pub games, such as eight-ball etc, all simply designed. 50%

PENGUIN LAND

SEGA £29.99
The penguins are particularly well-drawn, but the backgrounds very simply constructed. Controlling the penguin is great fun and there's a nice feel to the game. 77%

PHANTASY STAR

SEGA £39.99
It may be a stonking old quid, but this is one game where you'll certainly get value for money. This huge cart even comes with a battery back-up, which is lucky because you'll be coming back to this over and over. 94%

PIT-FIGHTER

DOMARK £29.99
A repetitive two-player fighting game which soon becomes very shallow. The teeny-weeny sprites are ridiculously small and may prove annoying. 75%

POPULOUS

TECMAGIK £34.99
A game that you'll either love or hate. This is very accurate to the original, but about TEN times as big. If you're a fan, you'll love this mind-bender. 88%

POSEIDON WARS 3-D

SEGA £19.99
Worth a look if you have the glasses. You have to clear waters teaming with enemy boats etc. Very simple stuff and not worth bothering about really. 34%

POWER STRIKE

SEGA £24.99
An excellent environmentally-friendly shoot-'em-up. The graphics are top-notch and scroll smoothly. A great blaster. 82%

POWER STRIKE II

SEGA £29.99
A great shoot-'em-up with plenty of power and destruction as you wipe out wave after wave of enemy attacks. Backgrounds are full of colour and action with sprites being detailed and well presented. 89%

PRO WRESTLING

SEGA £24.99
All the razzmatazz of all-American wrestling is valiantly attempted, but the overall impression is that it's been skimmed on in all departments. 56%

PREDATOR 2

ARENA £32.99
Jerky scrolling, a high difficulty level, boring gameplay and poor sound. The poorest version of a reasonable game. Yawn! 46%

PRINCE OF PERSIA

DOMARK £29.99
Packed with 14 massive levels and amazing animation, this is an essential MS purchase. With its simple controls, it's very easy to pick up and extremely addictive. 94%

PSYCHIC WORLD

SEGA £14.99
Only the graphics save this dreadfully boring and unplayable game. The mix of arcade and strategy might have worked if it wasn't so pointless. 48%

PSYCHO FOX

SEGA £29.99
This has taken the best attributes from other arcade adventures. The main character, Mr Fox, is almost as cheeky as Sonic himself. Very good as an alternative to Sonic. 88%

PUTT 'N PUTTER GOLF

SEGA £32.99
A brilliant two-player crazy golf game that originally appeared on the Amiga. Excellent graphics and cheerful sound effects. 86%

QUARTET

SEGA £24.99
Warning: despite its name, this cart is not four games in one. In fact, it's one fairly unimpressive try at a platform shoot-'em-up. 25%

RAINBOW ISLANDS

SEGA £29.99
A highly cutesy follow-up to the very cutesy Bubble Bobble. Bright, cheerful and fun throughout, but doesn't quite come up to scratch as it's too easy. 79%

RAMBO III

SEGA £29.99
Despite the limitations of this being a Phaser-based product, it is remarkably playable. Challenging, but the addition only lasts for weeks. 77%

RAMPAGE

SEGA £29.99
Everyone has a destructive nature in them somewhere. You control one of two gorillas who must smash up apartment blocks. Simple, but very good action. 85%

RAMPART

TENGEN £29.99
A truly addictive game that is simple really; build a castle, decide where you want your cannons and then decimate your enemy! 81%

RASTAN SAGA

SEGA £29.99
Hac'n'slash romp through many varying landscapes, but this is one of the best games of its type. Polished and you won't be completing it in the first week. 88%

RC GRAND PRIX

SEGA £29.99
Multi-player action that will fail to excite race fans. Luckily, the graphics are interesting, but why do Sega slap their name all over the hoardings? 59%

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG 2

MEGA DRIVE TWO-PLAYER INFINITE LIVES

When in two-player mode, let one character win and the other die. Repeat this until the Game Over screen appears. When the next level starts, the character that died will have infinite lives and you will be able to play through to the end. This tip will work for both players so you can have a continuous game. Ed Lomas, Rochester

DESERT STRIKE

MEGA DRIVE PASSWORDS

Chris Powles in South Africa has faxed us a couple of times desperately in need of some help with Desert Strike. Well Chris, the best advice I can give you is the three passwords:

LEVEL PASSWORD
2 WQJROBZ
3 VLJKKTY
4 BTIKLK

Just to help you through the campaigns, an extra hint is that an extra life is hidden on every campaign with two on the final stage. There are useful items hidden everywhere and try blasting various objects and buildings to find them. For two extra lives, enter the password TQQLOM, then go into the password screen and start at any campaign with the extra lives.

Chris Powles, South Africa

ROAD RASH 2

MEGA DRIVE PASSWORDS

Due to the complicated nature of this tip, the eight places in the password must be easily recognisable. To do this let's say that the eight places of the password are known as '1234 5678'. You will now be able to choose your bike, money, level and qualified tracks.

Bike: Add or subtract in multiples of two to '2' and do the opposite to '6'.

Level: Add or subtract to '5' and do the same to '8'. If you are on level one and increase each by three you will be on level four.

Money: Add or subtract multiples of two to '1', '3' or '4' and do the opposite to any other of '1', '3' or '4'.

Qualified Tracks: Add or subtract to '7' and do the opposite to '8'. There is no pattern to follow, so it's a matter of trying out different combinations.

Ed "Pinky" Lomas, Rochester

GYNOUNG

MEGA DRIVE LEVEL SELECT

Steve Jones of Swansea wants to know if there is a level select or other cheat for the blasting Gynoug.

Well, we delved deep and came out with three helpful hints. The first, a level select, is accessed by going to the options screen and putting the cursor on the control menu option. Hold A, B and C simultaneously for about 10 seconds and the level select will appear.

To go into easy mode, put the cursor on game level and hold down A, B, C and START simultaneously. Finally, for infinite credits, wait until the game over message appears and then hold LEFT, A, C and START to prevent your credits from decreasing.

RENEGADE

SEGA £29.99
After a clutch of superior beat-'em-ups hitting the Master System, this attempt looks decidedly weak and offers nothing new or classy. 47%

RESCUE MISSION

SEGA £9.99
Protect medical supplies that are being distributed to the troops. The graphics are great and the gameplay's spot on. Got a Phaser? Got a tenner? Get this! 90%

ROCKY

SEGA £29.99
Surprise, surprise, this is a boxing simulation. Poor graphics and terrible animation result in a dire game. 32%

R-TYPE

SEGA £14.99
This is arguably the greatest shoot-'em-up to ever grace the MS. It is - bar the odd graphic deficiency - a totally accurate conversion of Irem's smash hit. Everything is great. Go for it - you won't lose out! 94%

RUNNING BATTLE

SEGA £14.99
Sadly, this ain't a good beat-'em-up. Everything is so slow and even the colourful non-flicker graphics can't enhance this poor try. 44%

SAFARI HUNT

SEGA £29.99
Originally included in the early MS packages for use with the Light Phaser. Perhaps the best cart available for target practise on the screen, but very rare these days. 63%

SAGAIA

SEGA £9.99
What a grim affair this horizontal shoot-'em-up is. Its main problem lies in the dodgy collision and flickery graphics. But the game is far too easy for almost any player. 43%

SPECIAL CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION

SEGA £29.99
This Chase HQ sequel has poor graphics and dodgy controls. Full of action, but easy-peasy for anyone except real beginners. 54%

SCRAMBLE SPIRITS

SEGA £29.99
Little more than a vertically scrolling shoot-'em-up and a pretty poor one at that. With such a choice, you could find better. 44%

SECRET COMMAND

SEGA £12.99
This is very close to the Capcom Commando coin-op; it's even based in a jungle with huts and everything. Essential for any self-respecting shooter. 85%

SEGA CHES

SEGA £14.99
Functional graphics and some poor speech may put some grand masters off, but stick with it and you will find a supreme chess sim. 83%

SHADOW DANCER

SEGA £32.99
Suffers from flickery graphics and bad response rate, but there are pleasing effects such as the full screen magic and the lightning quick dog. 69%

SHADOW OF THE BEAST

TECMAGIK £29.99
Despite the obvious limitations of the MS, Tecmagik have done the business on this version of Beast. Superb visuals, excellent mood music and even some improved gameplay make it hot property! 90%

SHANGHAI

SEGA £24.99
One of the most addictive and mind-bending puzzle games around. You'll be confused at first, but your efforts will be well rewarded. 85%

SHINOBI

SEGA £14.99
There's nothing too spectacular about this beat-'em-up. There are only five simplistic levels with stranded kids and that should easily be a doddle for

SHOOTING GALLERY

SEGA £24.99
This is highly over-priced. Only four simple rounds of shooting various targets. Much better with a few layers, so grab the family and gather round. 70%

SHOOTING GAMES

SEGA £24.99
Hone your light gun skills with three varying types of game - marksmen shooting, trap shooting and safari hunt. Excellent value. 72%

SLAP SHOT

SEGA £29.99
Like its MD counterpart, EA Hockey, Slap Shot is easy to get into and has all the added extras like brawling and dodgy umpiring. Don't worry if you don't like the real thing, this is pretty manic. 76%

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

SEGA £29.99
Totally excellent conversion proving that the MS can retain some originality. Sharing many of the characteristics of the MD version, this mini-arcade adventure is super-fast and instantly compelling. 92%

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG 2

SEGA £32.99
A fantastic version of the most famous game in the world, but it's bugged. Sonic 2 is simply the best game on the MS, but don't be too disappointed when Tails doesn't appear. 95%

SPACE GUN

SEGA £29.99
If you're a dab hand with the Phaser, this title should bring a smile to your face. Not the best shooter so far, but reasonably good graphics. 56%

SPACE HARRIER

SEGA £14.99
There's no way of restarting or continuing on any of the 18 levels - even arcade players will be tested here. An accurate and playable conversion. Available in a dreadful 3-D version for a tenner less. 84%

SPEEDBALL 2

VIRGIN £29.99
Jump into the future and play a vicious game of handball. The graphics are superb and the playability still as great as ever. 89%

SPELLCASTER

SEGA £14.99
One of the greatest and toughest RPGs on the MS, ranking almost as good as Phantasy Star. The vast adventure will take you underground, through space and time and even to the land of the dead. 90%

SPIDER-MAN

SEGA £29.99
Doesn't have the playability. It's very tedious bashing enemies, but there's a compelling storyline. Credible cartoon beat-'em-up. 80%

SPORTS PAD FOOTBALL

SEGA £29.99
Another sports simulation which relies on the defunct Sega Sports Pad. A good footy sim, but the control pad may prove impossible to find. 64%

SPY VS SPY

SEGA £17.99
The stars of MAD magazine retain their appeal and the game has one player sniggering when the other walks into his traps. Great. 90%

STRIDER

SEGA £14.99
The graphics and sound are as expected, but the main character is very sluggish, especially in jumps. Dubious long-term appeal. 79%

STRIDER II

US GOLD £29.99
Very similar to the original Strider in that the main character is a tad slow, but it's challenging. Run-of-the-mill graphics and little to inspire. 75%

STREETS OF RAGE

SEGA £29.99
This has been excellently converted to fit into the 4Mbit cart and could have been the best beat-'em-up on the Master System, but without a two-player option it's debatable. 89%

STAR WARS

US GOLD £32.99
This conversion from the classic film features five absorbing and fast levels of shoot-'em-up platform action where you must rescue the prisoners and chase the mighty Darth Vader! 89%

SUBMARINE ATTACK

SEGA £29.99
You take charge of a submarine and progress through the seaworld, while shooting anything that moves. It's like a poor water-bound R-Type. 68%

SUMMER GAMES

SEGA £29.99
This is a real disappointment. The graphics are hopeless; the sprites small and terribly animated and the backgrounds contain no detail. Give it a miss. 40%

SUPER KICK OFF

US GOLD £29.99
All the features, bar the all-important playability. The action slows down with three or more players on-screen which is a bit of a shame. 80%

SUPERMAN

VIRGIN £32.99
An atmospheric platformer that suits our superhero down to the ground. Each level contains a variety of well drawn backgrounds and impressive sprite animation. 78%

SUPER MONACO GP

SEGA £29.99
A simultaneous split-screen two-player mode makes for bad graphics. A poor atmosphere is created by flimsy backgrounds and unrealistic animation. 68%

SUPER MONACO GP II

SEGA £34.99
A useless motor racing simulation which fails to create any kind of enthusiasm. The graphics are dire and the whole game should be avoided at all costs. 21%

SUPER REAL BASKETBALL

SEGA £24.99
Excellent two-player action with some brilliant close-ups. Good all the way through and tough to beat at higher one-player levels. 85%

SUPER SMASH TV

ACCLAIM £29.99
A long awaited conversion which is nothing more than average. Repetitive flicker, sound and gameplay all rolled into one - and it's too hard. 65%

SUPER SPACE INVADERS

DOMARK £32.99
Original waves and a sensational simultaneous two-player option set this above any clone. 82%

SUPER TENNIS

SEGA £9.99
This price of this keeps dropping! The graphics are childish, the sound appalling and it completely fails to capture any of the sport's fun. 29%

T&Z-MANIA

SEGA £29.99
The graphics are bright and the atmosphere is perfect. Take control of Taz and guide him through level after level of classic platform action. Accurate cartoon conversion. 81%

TECMO WORLD CUP '93

SEGA £29.99
Very different from the arcade, but still plays well on the MS. Fast and furious action from start to finish, but it isn't the best and is a poor release. 69%

TEDDY BOY

SEGA £9.99
Simple in concept, but superbly implemented and subsequently very addictive and playable. However, be warned it's a very cute platform game that may make you sick. 70%

TENNIS ACE

SEGA £14.99
Forget Super Tennis. There's a great slide-on close-up of the server and the view down onto the court works well. Tennis fans should apply here for the next tourney. 83%

THE TERMINATOR

SEGA £34.99
Although only a measly four levels, this game is packed with direct scenes from the film ensuring all Arnie fans will be happy it's just about as tough as the man himself and won't be completed in a hurry. 90%

THUNDER BLADE

SEGA £14.99
There's a great game here just waiting to burst out. However, even the decent graphics can't hide that it has some dodgy collision detection and that alone shortens its appeal. 65%

TIME SOLDIERS

SEGA £29.99
The coin-op was based as a fairly torrid affair. More time spent running from enemies than fighting them and this gets very tedious. 36%

TOM AND JERRY

SEGA £29.99
You're likely to finish this cartoon adventure far too quickly. 2Mbits worth of pleasant to look at platform comedy, but it won't be for long. 74%

TRANSBOT

SEGA £9.99
Oh dear! It has all the usual elements; shoot-'em-up, based in a post nuclear world and invading aliens, but it's so badly programmed that Transbot is pretty awful. 26%

TRAP SHOOTING

SEGA £29.99
As the title suggests, this is a clay pigeon shooting sim. Not exactly wonderful to play, but the well-animated targets can prove fun to hit. Limited appeal. 45%

TRIVIAL PURSUIT

DOMARK £29.99
This game is ideal for a large group to play, but not for solitaires. Cheerful graphics and a comical cartoony presenter with potentially tough questions. 81%

ULTIMA IV

SEGA £39.99
If you like RPGs such as Phantasy Star and SpellCaster, then you should have this in your collection. It's vast, challenging and it comes with a great manual and map. 92%

ULTIMATE SOCCER

SEGA £29.99
Plenty of options and challenging competitions make this a well put together footy sim that has good graphics and addictive gameplay. 84%

VIGILANTE

SEGA £29.99
This coin-op conversion is a very simple beat-'em-up, but worthy of praise for the sheer enjoyment, but the game is simplified slightly in its translation. 77%

WWF: STEEL CAGE

ACCLAIM £32.99
Wrestling isn't the best sport in the world, but the WWF superstars seem to have made it seem so. This is a very plausible attempt to re-create the action. 79%

WANTED

SEGA £24.99
Rootin' tootin' varmint-blowing Phaser fun as you are appointed sheriff of the town and told to clean up the place. You might even enjoy it, and the extra controls are welcomed! 78%

WIMBLEDON

SEGA £14.99
Centre court has never been so good on the MS. Realistic graphics and superb animations made even better by super-fast play. This is a tennis sim of the highest standard. 90%

WONDER BOY

SEGA £24.99
This still holds much appeal for many arcade adventurers. Sadly, everything - all the graphics, sound effects, etc - are very dated now. 81%

WONDER BOY IN MONSTERLAND

SEGA £29.99
The Boy's second outing continues the challenging gameplay. You've 12 levels to progress through and the action is constantly fast and the baddies furious. Buy it, play it, and you won't regret it. Honest. 89%

WONDER BOY IN MONSTERWORLD

SEGA £29.99
An all round stunner! Huge game area, great graphics and a few puzzles thrown in for good measure. Can you do without this one? 90%

WONDER BOY III: DRAGON'S TRAP

SEGA £29.99
If you like the others, you'll go wild over the third outing which is the best by miles. You must again hack your way along the path, but you are helped out by shops, that sell weapons, along the route. A great arcade adventure without hedgehogs or ducks. Now that has to be worth something! 93%

WOODY POP

SEGA £19.99
This may be hard to get hold of as it uses the Paddle Control, which is no longer available. Cutesy graphics, but that's about it. 47%

WORLD CLASS LEADER BOARD

US GOLD £29.99
A quality golf sim with all the bells and whistles. All you need for a round or two, including a full set of clubs, hazards galore and masses of playability. 63%

WORLD CUP ITALIA 90

SEGA £24.99
It's a lot easier to control the ball in this than Kick Off, but ultimately you feel more like you're playing a table-top pub game than the real thing. 77%

WORLD GAMES

SEGA £24.99
This old chestnut is definitely middle-of-the-road software. None of the games are truly bad, but none stand out as worth much play. 65%

WORLD GRAND PRIX

SEGA £12.99
This has the basic element - cars - but fails to have the other important things, like decent graphics, sound and opponents. 70%

WORLD TOURNAMENT GOLF

SEGA £32.99
Thankfully, this golfing sim comes across fairly well on the MS. There are many different competitions to enter and the controls are very easy to master. 75%

WORLD SOCCER

SEGA £24.99
A horizontally scrolling footer. The players are bigger than in most games, but the odd perspective makes it hard to direct the ball. 63%

XENON II

VIRGIN £29.99
You'll have great difficulty telling the difference between the 16-bit original and this version. Great stuff, but there are some dodgy collisions. 85%

Y'S: THE VANISHED OMENS

SEGA £32.99
An excellent RPG, but doesn't have the playability of Ultima, Phantasy Star and SpellCaster. Even so, it's a real puzzler. 84%

ZAXXON 3-D

SEGA £19.99
Great in the arcades, but not here. The graphics are appalling, the sound irritating and the gameplay unrecognisable. 42%

ZILLION

SEGA £24.99
The Norsa forces are expanding and you must blow them up. Some great statics and a decent storyline help create an involving atmosphere. 67%

ZILLION II

SEGA £24.99
Identical to the original, with the evil Baron Ficks up to his old tricks. He's captured your friends and you must help them soon. Gripping stuff. 67%

AERIAL ASSAULT

SEGA £25.00
On dear! A totally useless air-combat game to be avoided at all costs! Graphics offer nothing to the imagination and gameplay is virtually nonexistent. 42%

ALIEN 3

ARENA £27.99
All action platform game with superb graphics and atmospheric tunes. Alien offers these impressive qualities and challenging gameplay to match. Ideal for beginners and experts. 88%

ALIEN SYNDROME

SIMS CO IMPORT
The conversion of a really old arcade has done the Game Gear proud. It's absolutely packed with content and features some of the most inspired guardians you'll ever see. 83%

ARIEL: THE LITTLE MERMAID

SEGA £24.99
Ariel may look the business, but that's as far as it goes. A waste of a Disney licence and not much fun unless you're a beginner. 71%

AX-BATTLER

SEGA IMPORT
One of the stars of Golden Axe features in his own game. Be warned, this is a very Japanese-based RPG and nothing like the great Golden Axe. It's very unfriendly and poorly executed. 56%

BART VS THE SPACE MUTANTS

FLYING EDGE £29.99
Move over Mario, shift over Sonic, Bart and family are in town. This fine example of an arcade adventure pushes every part of the hand-held to its limits with superb graphics, great sound and wicked gameplay. 92%

BATMAN RETURNS

SEGA £24.99
Eighteen stages of repetitively easy Batman playing. Too easy for even the beginner and completely disappointing as superb graphics go to waste. 65%

BATTER UP

SEGA £24.99
The control method is extremely quirky and the computer player seemingly unbeatable. Apart from that, it's a fair version of America's (and Japan's) favourite sport. 76%

THE BERLIN WALL

KANEKO IMPORT
Mega-colourful and crammed with cutesy bad guys and Bubble Bobble style graphics. Innovative guardians, a plethora of pops and jings and over 25 packed levels. 88%

BUSTER BALL

RIVERHILL IMPORT
Speedball is a game that's not out on GG, but Buster Ball goes some way to make up for this. Graphics are of high definition, however, there's very little content making the game quickly boring. 70%

CASTLE OF ILLUSION

SEGA £24.99
Everyone's favourite game is even better on the Game Gear with shrunken graphics that make Mickey look superb. Most of the rooms from other versions are here, making it an essential purchase. 93%

CHAKAN: THE FOREVER MAN

SEGA £24.99
Dark and atmospheric setting that didn't work as well on the MD as it does on the Gear. Simplistic play suits the Gear to a tee! Outstanding graphics and great sound! 90%

CHASE HQ

TAITO IMPORT
Basically Out Run with guns in a typical Miami Vice environment. Music is ultra grim, but the superb graphics and stupendous gameplay are fast and inviting. Pity this lacks content and is far too easy. 74%

THE CHESSMASTER

SEGA £27.99
Probably the best chess game available. Everything is packed into this cart, but it is still designed to appeal to both the novice and expert alike. 83%

CHUCK ROCK

SEGA £25.00
Bright and colourful graphics and platform action at its finest will delight the most scrupulous gamesplayer. Challenging levels throughout and totally addictive. 67%

COLUMNS

SEGA £19.99
Very tough and challenging puzzle game in the style of Tetris. Excellent in one-player, but even better with two players linked up. Could become one of the all-time classic Sega games on any machine. 92%

CRASH DUMMIES

ACCLAIM £29.99
All that's here is a small compendium of very short and addictive stages that may interest the very young, but at this price, I doubt it. 49%

CRYSTAL WARRIORS

SEGA £29.99
Fantasy RPG on the Game Gear at its best. Bright and clear graphics, although a tad small at times, but very impressive overall. 79%

DEVILISH

SEGA £24.99
Far from original, but it displays good graphics and scrolling. With little else to offer, it's a wise bet to avoid it, unless you enjoyed Break-out (I) 37%

DOUBLE DRAGON

VIRGIN £27.99
A street fighting beat-'em-up where the idea of picking up baseball bats and kicking the baddies is just too dated and unoriginal. Gameplay is also far too slow and frustrating to bare. 45%

DRAGON CRYSTAL

SEGA £24.99
A very big game for such a small machine and well worth the attention of all RPG buffs. It's packed with loads of pick-ups and plenty of people to talk to. 80%

EVANDER HOLYFIELD BOXING

SEGA £24.99
Very realistic and provides a challenge for all abilities. Novel "invisible man" perspective is a nice touch. 84%

FACTORY PANIC

SEGA £24.99
Gorby is trying to distribute the goods from his Russian factories. Loads of elements try to stop you, but make this one tough and enjoyable game. 86%

FANTASY ZONE

SEGA £19.99
Play this game with your sun-glasses on. The small screen and colours make this a real eye strain. But, that's what this shoot-'em-up's about - totally OTT. 85%

FROGGER

SEGA £19.99
Frogger's attraction is to see your friend get run over on his first couple of goes. After you are familiarised with the timing, it becomes very repetitive and simplistic. 75%

G-LOC

SEGA £24.99
G-LOC moves fast on the Game Gear, but so would any game if it had no graphics to shift around. Everything is far too simple to create any sort of atmosphere. 60%

GALAGA '91

NAMCO IMPORT
A poor shoot-'em-up. The screen blurs too easily and the whole style of play rapidly repeats itself. By the time you reach level six, you've seen it all before. 63%

GALAGA 2

SEGA £27.99
Although playing that old classic Space Invaders may seem like fun, it's not that great if you're shelling out £27.99 for it. Enough said. 60%

GEORGE FOREMAN'S BOXING

ARENA £24.99
This sad boxing sim (also known as Heavyweight Champ) becomes incredibly repetitive. The graphics may look good, but there's very bad animation here. 56%

GG ALAMO

COMPILE IMPORT
Halley Wars falls into insignificance against this ultimate blaster. Smooth scrolling, original and awesome guardians and ear-busting SFX make the whole Alamo experience one you will never forget. 92%

GLOBAL GLADIATORS

VIRGIN £27.99
The MC Kids, Mick and Mack, don't seem to have made an impressive appearance and the faults lie with the tricky controls. 58%

GRIFFIN

IMPORT
A brightly coloured shoot-'em-up, and a playable one too. Big sprites, statics

HOME ALONE

SEGA £27.99
Preventing the crooks from looting the neighbourhood can start off as fun, but you'll soon become tired of the limited action with only two crooks up against you. 42%

LEMMINGS

SEGA £27.99
Take control of the Lemmings and save their skins with various constructive activities. Extra-ordinary graphics and a game which offers a real challenge. 88%

THE LUCKY DIME CAPER

SEGA £24.99
Cartoon capers with this favourite Disney psycho, Donald Duck. The gameplay is instantly compelling and there's even amazing music for each level. 93% of foxy young Japanese girls and addictive gameplay make this a great game. 86%

HALLEY WARS

SEGA £24.99
The action is fast and the weapons big, ensuring some excellent blasting action. The five levels are very different and each require special tactics to finish. 88%

HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMP

SEGA IMPORT
This sad boxing sim (also known as George Foreman Boxing) becomes incredibly repetitive. The graphics may look good but there's very bad animation here and the gameplay is even poorer. 56%

THE HUMANS

GAMETEK IMPORT
This above average puzzler may look the part, but it is lacking the playability that Lemmings offers. It's also frustrating. 75%

INDIANA JONES 3

SEGA £24.99
Exactly the same as the MS in terms of style and layout, but the graphics seem more detailed due to the closer perspective. Sound is atrocious and the game is tough. 78%

JOE MONTANA FOOTBALL

SEGA £24.99
Sega have managed to squeeze in this massive game and add a few extras to boost the fun. Everything from the MS game is here, making it one hot cookie. 85%

KINETIC CONNECTION

SEGA £24.99
Overly difficult puzzle game in which you have to rearrange the pieces of a jigsaw. It's fun for a while, but it ultimately drives you insane. 72%

KLAX

DOMARK £27.99
Klax has been described as "devastatingly addictive" 99 levels of brain-teasing, fast and furious block-building action will keep all GG players on their toes. 85%

KRUSTY'S FUN HOUSE

ACCLAIM £29.99
A good conversion that will hold the attention of Game Gear puzzle fanatics for quite a while, but it doesn't offer anything after completion. 77%

LAND OF ILLUSION

SEGA £29.99
It doesn't seem to matter which console Mickey appears on, he's always a success! This Game Gear version is no exception and carries on the high standard of previous Mickey episodes. 94%

LEMMINGS

SEGA £27.99
Take control of the Lemmings and save their skins with various constructive activities. Extra-ordinary graphics and a game which offers a real challenge. 88%

THE LUCKY DIME CAPER

SEGA £24.99
Cartoon capers with this favourite Disney psycho, Donald Duck. The gameplay is instantly compelling and there's even amazing music for each level. 93%

MEGA CD

which are great, end up being totally wasted. 23%

HEAVY NOVA

MICRONET IMPORT
A fantastic introduction, as with the majority of Mega-CD games, but little else to offer. Two fighting robots in a one-on-one battle with terrible gameplay. Hardly original and just about bearable. 34%

HOOK

SONY IMPORT
Brilliant visuals and an enchanting story line. All the right ingredients for a great game, but slightly lacking on gameplay. 60%

JAGUAR XJ220

SEGA £39.99
The first Mega-CD racer isn't too bad, but apart from the course designer and nice music, there's little in it that couldn't have been done on a cart. 72%

KRIS KROSS MAKE MY VIDEO

SONY IMPORT
A novel concept for the Mega-CD. Cut, edit and add your own little touches to Kris Kross videos. Nice release which is very different and there should be more to come from the top bands in the Sony music stable. 58%

MARKY MARK: MAKE MY VIDEO

SEGA £39.99
Despite the superb motion video while you edit Marky's video, gameplay is dull. Even if you're a fan of insipid pop music, this won't offer much! 49%

NIGHT TRAP

SEGA £49.99
One of the first CD games to use full motion video, although highlighting the usual display limitation of the Mega-CD. It's a big game and there's lots of challenging gameplay. 60%

PRINCE OF PERSIA

SEGA £39.99
Totally engrossing, but possibly too challenging. The well-known platform adventure at its toughest. The main character is well animated, but a poor choice of colours make the graphics average. 65%

ROAD AVENGER

SEGA free with Mega-CD
Unbelievably fast driving action. Superb graphics look like they've come straight out of a cartoon. However, the gameplay is repetitive and it should only be bought as a demo. 60%

SEWER SHARK

SEGA £39.99
The grainy graphics provide the feel of a futuristic adventure. The atmosphere and story are great, but the gameplay is too shallow. 62%

SHERLOCK HOLMES II

SEGA £39.99
Three more cases await Holmes in a sequel that boasts impressive film sequences that add up to one hours viewing time. It's a shame the challenge is limited. 79%

SWITCH

IMPORT
Perhaps the most bizarre Japanese game we've ever seen! This has no gameplay in the traditional sense and getting through each level relies on luck! Although this sounds very strange, the graphics and wacky sense of humour are brilliant! 67%

THE PROFILE

AFTER BURNER III

CRS IMPORT
This all-action arcade flight sim isn't very good. Poor graphics and a ridiculous, increasing difficulty level make this nothing more than an average game. Nice music, though. 45%

BATMAN RETURNS

SEGA £39.99
Worth buying for the driving scenes alone, as they're the most realistic seen on the CD. A brilliant adventure, slightly spoiled by the bland platform sections and impossible difficulty level. 86%

BLACK HOLE ASSAULT

SEGA £39.99
Superb visual sequences to see and background music is a joy to hear. However, this follow-up to Heavy Nova has no gratifying features. The tough tournament options do little to upkeep interest. 45%

CHUCK ROCK

SONY IMPORT
Not much different from the Mega Drive version. Similar graphics, but nicer intro sequence and better sound. Still playable but doesn't use the machine's capabilities. 72%

ROBO ALISTE

COMPILE IMPORT
Constantly repetitive shoot-'em-up which tries to compete with Sol-Feace. CD games should be more advanced and while this is fantastic to look at, the gameplay is totally boring. 60%

EARNEST EVANS

WOLFTEAM IMPORT
One of the first releases for the Mega-

CD. Spectacular graphics and a good storyline. Numerous soundtracks and constantly challenging stages make this platformer a real pleasure to play. 56%

DEVASTATOR

IMPORT £41.00
This shoot-'em-up has the fast and addictive action that's typical of the CD's capabilities. Opening movie sequences are great, but the graphics during the game are rather disappointing. 73%

FINAL FIGHT CD

SEGA £39.99
Seven massive levels of brutal mind-blowing graphics and sound lift this above any Mega-CD game before it. Definitely one for arcade junkies, this is the best coin-op conversion that's hit any machine as it's so true to the original, even surpassing it in minor respects. 91%

FUNKY HORROR BAND

SEGA IMPORT
Far from impressive Japanese RPG. This is mainly due to the text being in the above mentioned language. Unfortunately, the graphics and sound

THE LUCKY DIME CAPER

are great, end up being totally wasted. 23%

HEAVY NOVA

MICRONET IMPORT
A fantastic introduction, as with the majority of Mega-CD games, but little else to offer. Two fighting robots in a one-on-one battle with terrible gameplay. Hardly original and just about bearable. 34%

Perhaps the most bizarre Japanese game we've ever seen! This has no gameplay in the traditional sense and getting through each level relies on luck! Although this sounds very strange, the graphics and wacky sense of humour are brilliant! 67%

MAPPY

IMPORT
Jump around platforms collecting things. Not exactly original and not exactly good either. The graphics are really unimaginative and there's no playability. 50%
MARBLE MADNESS
DOMARK £24.99
The classic arcade game with a lot of balls. Guide your marble around an increasingly difficult tiered platform maze. Graphically superb. 79%

MONSTER WORLD II

SEGA IMPORT
A marked improvement over the original hit. This direct conversion of the MS game is fun, challenging and it even includes a much-needed password system. 84%

NINJA GAIDEN

SEGA £24.99
Gorgeous graphics and sprite animation combine with a variety of levels. If you find it too tough, dig out the import version - that includes a password system. 84%

OLYMPIC GOLD

US GOLD £27.99
Graphically superb, but failings in all other departments make this average. Control your athlete through numerous events with relative uneventful happenings. 79%

OUT RUN

SEGA £24.99
The classic racer loses nothing in translation to the small screen - except its difficulty. Even so, it's very exhilarating and miles better than Super Monaco GP. 77%

OUT RUN EUROPA

SEGA £19.99
The road racing saga lives on, but even with impressive details on the graphics and a few nice tunes, it will fail to impress the majority of games players. 64%

PAC-MAN

SEGA £24.99
What a great little game this is. Everything is just like in the coin-op - even the music brings back memories. Trouble is, after a while it soon wears off and boredom sets in. 66%

PAPERBOY

DOMARK £24.99
Die-hard Paperboy addicts will relish the challenge of yet another machine to complete it on. Comparatively good graphics and excellent challenge, but poor sound. 79%

PENGU

SEGA £19.99
This plays just like the old coin-op as you shoot blocks of ice around and try to squash or electrocute animals. It may not pass the RSPCA laws, but it sure is a gas. 79%

POP BREAKER

IMPORT
Dodgy graphics and frustrating gameplay knock this back a little. Slow shoot-'em-up action that gets a little predictable after a while. 68%

POPPIES

DOMARK £24.99
Puzzle fans everywhere should own a copy of Poppies. Totally cutesy graphics enhanced with reasonably good sound fx. Addictiveness is the key to Domark's first, but definitely not last, venture on the GG. 85%

PRINCE OF PERSIA

DOMARK £27.99
One of the best games available. Little can be found to fault such an excellent piece of software where you guide your hero through a mysterious maze of Turkish Delight. 93%

PREDATOR 2

ACCLAIM £29.99
Avoid this if you possibly can as it is complete shovel-ware from the MS version, which wasn't too inspiring itself. Very disappointing. 38%

PSYCHIC WORLD

SEGA £24.99
Blimey, this is a truly awful game. It's one of those that actually makes you cringe as you play. Anyone who has bought this has our pity. 12%

PUTT AND PUTTER

SEGA £25.99
When this zany golf simulator was released, we were pleasantly surprised. Good scrolling effects and a wide range of options make it the best available. 85%

RASTAN SAGA

SEGA £24.99
Under-rated slash-'em-up adventure game that contains loads of locations and a variety of very tough opponents. The backgrounds and sprites are very smooth. A must-buy. 91%

RC GRAND PRIX

IMPORT £29.99
Even though many find radio controlled cars a great pastime, it doesn't seem to come across too well. This has all the right elements, but doesn't manage to keep your attention. 59%

SHINOBI

SEGA £24.99
Works well on the Game Gear, although it's a little short and will soon be completed by anyone who's played any of the series before. Still, it becomes very addictive. 84%

SHINOBI II

SEGA £27.99
Totally addictive gameplay with different routes to explore everywhere. Rescue your fellow ninja and find the Elemental Crystals to enter the final battle. It's addictive, but as with the first, it may be too easy. 90%

SKWEEK

SEGA IMPORT
Also known as Slider, it has colourful graphics that are a tad on the small size. All the addictiveness of Klax with 30 password levels. 82%

Also known as Skweek, it has colourful graphics that are a tad on the small size. All the addictiveness of Klax with 30 password levels. 82%

SOLITAIRE POKER

SEGA £24.99
Yawnarama card game has nice sprites, but sound and gameplay soon become annoying. Novelty wears off, even the girl telling you how many levels you've got to go. 70%

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

SEGA £29.99
Crystal clear, super fast graphics with original zones and guardians based on the MS version. Love him or loathe him, Sonic fits in your pocket in fine style. 91%

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG 2

SEGA £24.99
As with the original, this is better than on the other formats. Excellent scrolling and sprite animation proves Sonic can be improved, but its similarity could prove too much. A fantastic game in its own right. 95%

SPACE HARRIER

SEGA £24.99
The hit conversion has been ripped to shreds here. Jerky playability and blocky sub-standard graphics make this a shambolic affair. On dear. 71%

SPIDER-MAN

FLYING EDGE £24.99
Forged the Master System, Flying Edge have based this little beauty on the Mega Drive version. It's not only packed with cartoon story statics, but also some enthralling gameplay over five massive stages. 92%

SPIDER-MAN 2

ACCLAIM £29.99
A slightly disappointing follow-up to the highly acclaimed original. However, it offers a considerable challenge and there is plenty to do. Spider fans should be suitably impressed, but not amazed. 66%

STREETS OF RAGE

SEGA £24.99
Furious beat-'em-up action at its finest. Two-player option included, but only two fighters to choose from. Graphics can prove a tad annoying at times, but the gameplay more than makes up for it. 89%

SUPERMAN

VIRGIN £27.99
Good old Superman has finally made his way on to the hand held and he's pretty good too. Novices may find this a little difficult, but at least it will keep you going for a while. 77%

SUPER GOLF

SIGMA IMPORT
Golfing made simple. Not as realistic as Leaderboard but just as much fun. Cartoon graphics, caddies with different personalities and colourful option screens make this a sim for the less serious golfer. 86%

SUPER KICK OFF

SEGA £29.99
The definitive foot game on the GG. Amazing playability makes the MS version blush with shame. Fast gameplay means frantic goal scrambles, but there is some speed blur. Totally excellent. 93%

SUPER MONACO GP

SEGA £19.99
While there's certainly speed, it lacks everything else - especially feel. The graphics are ultra simplistic, sound basic and gameplay very boring. 55%

SUPER MONACO GP II

SEGA £25.99
Nothing more than an average racing simulator. Top quality scrolling really works. Terrible sound effects and laborious backgrounds don't. Lost again. Ayrton. 71%

SUPER OFF ROAD RACER

VIRGIN £24.99
With eight stages of arcade racing madness, it is sure to be a hit. Thoroughly challenging and compelling from the word go. The graphics are as close to the original as possible. Highly recommended to all boy (or girl) racers. 90%

SUPER SMASH TV

FLYING EDGE £24.99
Remember the arcade game? Forget this then. Dire sprite animation and repetitively poor graphics totally ruin a good license. Just don't bother. 58%

TALESPIN

SEGA £24.99
Disney games are renowned for their cartoony feel and this is no exception although it fails miserably in the gameplay stakes. 35%

TAZ-MANIA

SEGA £24.99
A fantastic platform game with tremendous variety in graphics and sound. There's a tough challenge set in the opening levels, but it's well worth persevering. 84%

TENGEN'S WORLD CUP SOCCER

DOMARK £27.99
Enjoy the thrills of a World Cup tournament on the small screen. With 24 countries, a management facility and a gear-link option, this is a highly addictive and playable soccer game. 85%

THE TERMINATOR

VIRGIN £27.99
One of the finest platform blasters ever to arrive. Superb sprite animation and totally challenging missions. A few gameplay quirks may prove annoying, but everything else is tops. 91%

TOM AND JERRY

SEGA £27.99
A cat and mouse chase in search of hidden treasure takes you through six action-packed levels. Plenty of traps and fun cartoon characters make this a highly enjoyable adventure. 80%

VAMPIRE MASTER OF DARKNESS

SEGA £27.99
Victorian vampires are sweeping London like the plague. It's up to you to get rid of them! A real blood-sucking platform adventure, taking you through the heart of London in the grisly 1900s. 85%

VIKING CHILD (THE)

GAMETEK £19.99
Cuteness at its best. A platform adventure which offers a large amount of gameplay. Eight stages of immense fun coupled by totally creative backgrounds. 84%

WWF: STEEL CAGE CHALLENGE

ACCLAIM £29.99
The Gear is used to its full potential with this excellent take-off of the sport. The best wrestling game yet, but obviously it won't appeal to everyone. 84%

NAMCOT IMPORT
Cute Japanese graphics with rather impressive additional features. Nothing more so than the weapon your user friendly foe fires. 66%

WIMBLEDON

SEGA £29.99
Struggling to see the ball is not the only problem with this version. The sprites aren't too impressive either. Aside from this, the difficulty is far too challenging. 48%

WONDER BOY

SEGA £19.99
This little foray adds fun to the normal arcade adventure. The great graphic and sonic effects combined with deep gameplay, make this a very addictive game. 84%

WONDER BOY: DRAGON'S TRAP

SEGA £19.99
Far from a wonderful episode in the series. A predictable scenario appears, including a cute main character and an in-depth arcade adventure. Okay in its own right, but unoriginal. 75%

WOODY POP

SEGA £19.99
Break-Out games are two-a-penny nowadays. While this one doesn't take them to the Twilight Zone, it does add loads of neat graphics and smart gameplay features. 87%

WORLD CLASS LEADERBOARD

SEGA £24.99
Everything a golfer could want: clubs, courses and some crackly speech! Gameplay is limited and sometimes very slow, but two-player mode is appealing. 80%

MASTER SYSTEM

If you've been struggling on this superb game, we have put together this guide. Where to find the power-ups, how to find your way out of a level and what everything and anything does – it's all here! Jason "pony tail" Johnson proves that you don't need the force (or the power for that matter) when you've got the pro!

TATOOINE

This planet features seven separate ports of call, each hiding a shield for the Millennium Falcon. Before you can leave the god-forsaken place you must find these shields. Go to each of the seven areas and find the hidden bounty. This short guide will help you find the exit and tell you what – or who – to look for and which direction to go.

Your task in Star Wars, as in the movie, is to destroy the Death Star. To do this you must search every corner of the desert planes of Tatooine, recruit a suitable accomplice to pilot you out of numerous sticky situations, rescue the princess from prison and finally destroy the Death Star.

A small band of comrades help you through these situations, but they must be recruited along the way. Obi-Wan Kenobi, R2-D2, Han Solo and Princess Leia are all hidden somewhere and you must find them.

Our story begins on a hostile desert planet, Tatooine. Hidden bunkers are situated in each direction and you must find the shields within the bunkers to take the Falcon safely through the later flight sections. Various weapons are concealed and energy power-ups are added bonuses.

NAME: Cave One LOCATION: Central
BOUNTY: Laser Gun

Take your time when jumping over the spike pits as one slip can result in a loss of a life. Watch out for the lava falling from the ceiling and wait

NAME: Sandcrawler
LOCATION: North West
BOUNTY: R2D2

The exit is in the top-right corner, but before you find your way out you must tackle numerous jumps and Jawas. Ladders enable you to move around the levels, but one or two long jumps will be needed. Two energy power-ups are in the top half of the level and R2D2 is by the exit.

NAME: Cave Two
LOCATION: East
BOUNTY: One Shield

Shoot the creatures that crawl along the ground before they are given a chance to attack you. There is a shield directly below the entrance platform and two energy power-ups are to be found in the bottom half of the level. The exit is at the bottom-right corner and there's an energy power-up waiting should you need it.

NAME: Cave Three LOCATION: South
BOUNTY: One Shield

Walk off the top platform and drop down to find the exit and a shield. Don't bother with the Tuscan Raiders, but if you come across one, zap it straight away. No energy power-ups are available in this cave, so ensure that you're boosted up before trying to find the shield.

NAME: Cave Four
LOCATION: South West
BOUNTY: Two Shields

This is the largest cave with two shields that are located at the bottom and two energy power-ups can be found in the central area. The exit can be found in the bottom right. Before this, you must take on numerous guards and some long jumps. Use the small platforms to clear jumps and if you want an extra life there is a secret room in the middle of the cave.

NAME: Cave Five
LOCATION: North
BOUNTY: One Shield

Numerous rats need to be killed before you go anywhere. If you're the kind hearted type maybe a swift jump over them will suffice. Walk to the far right and drop off the end, the exit is below and a shield is there too. There are no energy power-ups to help you, but it's a fairly simple stage.

NAME: Kenobi Cave
LOCATION: North East
BOUNTY: Obi-Wan Kenobi, Light Saber

A little cheat on this level gives you plenty of lives to make your quest easier. Go right and drop down until you're near the middle section. The blocks to the right hide a secret room with two extra lives. Re-enter the level to find these extra lives and build up a store of them.

Having ventured through each of the caves and sand bunkers it is time to zoom off into the darkness. Your exit is at the bottom right of the map so drive the hover craft outta there! After a couple of in-flight sequences you land at Mos Eisley.

MOS EISLEY

Use the Light Saber that was given to you by Obi-Wan Kenobi to kill the storm troopers. There are numerous life power-ups along the way, so take your time and you should get

USE THE FORCE!

Weapons and power-ups are to be found throughout the game, the most common of these being energy power-ups. Find another character and you are rewarded with a weapon, or if you're lucky, a partner. Here's a short guide to how each of the power-ups can be of help.

EXTRA LIFE

You will occasionally find a valuable extra life for Luke Skywalker. The rest of the team have just one rechargeable energy capsule.

LASER GUN

You'll find this at the exit of the first level and it is your basic weapon from start to finish.

SHIELD

Your Millennium Falcon space craft needs to be protected from asteroids and a shield is ideal.

TIPS

- It's time to make a quick exit from the Cantina Bar so run left and you'll arrive back where you started, but with the invaluable assistance of Han Solo, good eh? Watch out for the laser shots that are flying through the air as you make your escape.

CANTINA BAR

A simple, but rewarding addition to the Mos Eisley section is the Cantina Bar. You may remember the hilarious punters from the film. Well, they make a guest appearance here and must be dealt with accordingly. You battle to the right and find the ever-helpful, egotistic Han Solo at the end of the bar. He gives you a helping hand along the way and has a useful laser gun. Go back and exit where you originally entered.

Having exited the Cantina Bar, kill the storm trooper on the left and proceed right. Collect the power-ups and kill anything that shoots at you – it's simple enough! At the far end, you must perform a running jump from the last platform (holding B to run faster) to exit through the Hangar 94 gate.

HANGAR 94

This is another easy level with no more than a few storm troopers to take care of. You must use the suction tubes to reach the upper levels and avoid the laser fire from the guns in the walls. Watch their firing pattern before making your move. There are three energy power-ups to collect, so use them to build up your team.

ASTEROID FIELD

It's more a matter of luck than skill avoiding all of the asteroids on this clever sub-level. Keep your eyes peeled and use the D-pad to steer you and your buddies out of trouble. If successful, you'll land safely on Hangar One. If you are destroyed, your shields run out and it's end of game and time to use another continue.

HANGAR ONE

You land on Hangar One and are immediately attacked by a few unwelcoming storm troopers. Take care of them and continue to the far right where you'll come across the first of many neat suction tubes. In case you need a little energy replenishment, there's an energy power-up on the right as you go up. Use the platform to reach the top and exit after jumping right from the suction tube at the top left.

DEATH STAR

There are three energy power-ups to be found on this level and by all accounts you will probably need

- Kneel, aim and fire! Stormtroopers tend to pop up at the most awkward times. As you can see Luke was in the process of tying his shoe laces when this plastic-armoured mutant ran onto the screen – proceed with care along this section.

them. Storm troopers, and the like, have it in for you now and it is best to proceed with caution; with your Light Saber to the ready at all times. Don't forget to go into the port section – the third door from the Death Star if you follow these directions after locating the princess' position:

Left to second lift, up lift, right to lift, up, right to lift, down twice to lowest level, right to first lift, up, right to lift, up, left, small jump, up lift, right, three small jumps, up lift, three long jumps to the left, up lift, right, up lift, right, up lift to top of Death Star, two long jumps left, down lift, right to exit.

TRACTOR BEAM

In the style of a sub-level guardian you must hit the Tractor Beam generator until it explodes. It's very easy to make too much of this section and end-up losing plenty of lives. The easiest way of destroying the generator is to stand to the left or right and wait at the side until the beams are aimed down the other ladder. Jump on the ladder as it fires, drop to the side and fire at the generator. It's a hit-or-miss situation, but it only takes four or five direct hits to blow it up.

immediately to the right – by plugging in R2D2.

Long jumps must be attempted and you must avoid falling or face the deadly consequences. You will find an exit

PRISON

From the entrance you must rescue Leia. To do this follow these directions:

walk to the second lift and go down to the lower level, left and down the lift, right, down the first lift, right to the far end and up the lift, right and down the lift, right and into second prison chamber to rescue Princess Leia.

Now that you are reunited, it's time to get out of there. Follow these directions and you'll soon be in the safety of...the compactor!

Exit the prison cell and go left, up the lift and left again, down the lift, left to the third lift, down, right to first lift, up, right to first lift, down, right. Take a long running jump from the ledge, go down the lift and exit to the right.

There are other bonus pick-ups to be found in the Prison, including an extra life and numerous energy power-ups. The extra life is hidden in the bottom left corner and finding your way back to the exit from there is tricky. To get to the exit from here, follow this path:

After collecting the extra life go right, up lift, right, up lift, left to first lift, down, right, up lift, right to first lift, down, right, over gap, down lift, exit to the right.

TRASH COMPACTOR

Welcome to one of the more teasing levels, featuring the elusive Dia Noga Trash Compactor Monster. This stage is infuriating and will probably take you a while to master. The best advice is to take your time on the jumps and avoid the spikes at all costs – they'll knock your energy down very quickly. Make your way to the top-left corner using the conveyor belts to take on the monster.

It's a good idea to stay on the platform and shoot Dia Noga when it appears. Be very quick when you shoot it, else you might find yourself being eaten for breakfast, or, perhaps, stored in its secret den to be eaten alive later in the day! You must hit it several times before the next level is ready for you.

FINAL HANGAR

This is the last platform section, and is a tough one at that. Before long, you'll have to clear tricky jumps over spiked pits. Use the suction tubes to reach higher platforms and watch out for the stalactite on the ceiling. The exit is in the top-right corner and the only way of reaching it is practise at jumping over the spikes. Good luck, you're going to need it to finish this one.

FIGHTER CHASE

The penultimate battle takes you back into the Millennium Falcon and instead of a few asteroids the screen is full of missiles. Shoot them down or avoid them to make it to the next section. Continuing the film story line, the tie-fighters take control as Darth Vader senses the force. Shoot them down as and when they appear on-screen and you'll be onto the final level.

TRENCH CHASE

As in the movie, there is nothing more to do than kiss Darth Vader goodnight. Shoot the exhaust port at the end and viola, end of game! Be careful to avoid contact with the sides of the trench and watch out for enemy craft attacking from behind – use the torpedo does to kick them into touch.

THE SEQUEL TO

PART 2

The later campaigns in Jungle Strike proved to be tough for budding war hero, Mark "in a minute" Hill. Nevertheless, he's now completely pulled apart the rest of the campaigns to bring you the completion of the comprehensive and detailed guide to one of the biggest and best warfare releases this year!

MISSION 2 – RADAR SITES

From the camp, fly southwest to the three radar sites. Each is guarded by a Gatling gun.

When you approach the targets, attack the guns when they face the other way. Now shoot the vans – the radar dishes will explode with them. Avoid flying into the fence enclosure as it's lethal!

MISSION 3 – MISSILE DEPOT

The missile depot has two M1 battle tanks that hit you quick, hard and often! You must use rockets for these (it takes two) and attack when their guns are pointing the other way. Take out the towers from outside the fence – then you won't have to worry about the tanks.

When the area is clear, use the chain gun to uncover and destroy the missiles.

MISSION 4 – SCOUT GENERAL

You'll need to fly northeast to rescue the Soviet weapons' specialist. He knows the location of the missile launchers. The area is surrounded by tanks and, again, you'll need to attack when they face the other way.

The General is hiding in one of the huts, so use the yellow dot on the map to locate the actual hut. Uncover ammo from other huts in the area. There are quite a few supplies hidden about here.

MISSION 5 – LAUNCHERS

Launchers are dotted around the area. Each missile launcher has an M1 tank nearby and they'll close in on you as you attack. The best method is to quickly fire two rockets at each missile launcher before the tanks reach you. If you're not as fast, take out the tanks with the usual surprise attack when they're not looking. Only five of the six launchers need be destroyed for the mission to be successful.

MISSION 6 – POWER LINES

Knock out the four power towers and the sub station. M1 tanks guard each tower and must be destroyed first. These mothers take a lot of ammo, so you'll need to be patient. Get the ammo crate by blasting the M1 tank guarding the east tower. By the sub station, a small hut will reveal some fuel when destroyed. Armour repair is also available underneath the sub station.

MISSION 7 – FORTRESS

Finding these underground fortresses can be difficult. You should look for a small rock in the snow. Shoot it and a chamber should be revealed. They are in a pattern and once you've found one, another will be either above or below it. There's six in all and they form a grid. Check the snow mounds nearby. They uncover smaller chambers with ammo, fuel and armour repair kits.

When it comes to a spot of deep-freeze action then life becomes tricky. Snow will hide many of your targets and despite the pretty scenery, warfare can be more intense than ever with very dangerous tanks and a cluster of nearby enemy Apaches.

CAMPAIGN 6

Snow Fortress

MISSION 1 – WILD BILL

From base, fly directly west to the POW camp. The camp is surrounded by Gatling guns, troops and watch towers. Approach with caution and don't cross the wall until the area is cleared. To destroy the enemies, skirt the wall in an anti-clockwise direction. Keep moving using hell-fires and guns to destroy the towers. When the area is clear, rescue five prisoners including Wild Bill. You'll know when you've picked up Wild Bill from the info message. There is also an armour repair to be uncovered after you've rescued Bill.

Whenever you cross an electric fence then it's guaranteed you'll end up in the thick of things. A rapid warning bleep represents the danger zone where you can expect some pretty rapid firing in all directions. Approach such areas with care and don't dive in!

CAMPAIGN 7

River Raid TMHPGCFDYRL

MISSION 1 - F-117 STEALTH FIGHTER

From the top of the map, you'll need to fly almost directly south to find the Stealth Fighter hidden by camouflage and guarded by three twin-gun AAAs and some ground troops. Use AIM-92s on the AAAs and keep moving whilst you attack them. You'll only need four of five AIM-92s to destroy each AAA. Use your chain gun to uncover the Stealth Fighter when the area has been cleared. Land on the helipad next to it and you'll automatically take off!

ground forces in the area before attempting to demolish the depots. Use iron bombs and AIM 92s for the tanks and ground troops, then use the AIMs for the depots themselves. This mission is tough because it's so easy to

 In the true green haze of a dense jungle in South America you find the Stealth Fighter a tough aircraft to handle. Controls are tricky and crashing into a stone structure is very easy if you are not careful. You may have unlimited weapons but aiming can be difficult.

MISSION 3 - DRUG FIELDS

You'll need to fly north-west to the drug fields where some naughty people are growing cannabis. Burn out the fields and greenhouses using iron bombs and remember to keep a high altitude. In the Stealth Fighter, you can press UP and DOWN on the D-Pad to adjust your height; if you're too low then it's very easy to hit a watch tower or greenhouse and instantly lose a life.

crash into the depots and very difficult to pull away in time. The best method is to fly slightly to the left or right of the depots and launch iron bombs or AIMs as you fly by. Patience is the key to this mission.

MISSION 6 - NUKE MISSILES

You need to fly north and blast open the pyramids that conceal the nuclear weapons. Again, the Stealth Fighter can prove to be frustrating to control as it's so easy to crash into the pyramids whilst firing at them. Find the ancient ruins and clear all ground forces using AIMs. When the area is safe, use your gun to break open the monuments. Make sure the weapons inside are inactive!

MISSION 4 - PATRIOTS

This mission is very tricky and you'll need to pilot the Stealth with some skill. First, clear the area around each patriot located on the map using any weapon. Don't forget that your ammo is unlimited for this mission so fire at will.

The difficulty comes in actually hitting the patriots. The best method is to fly in low, release and a few iron bombs, then quickly gain height so you don't crash into the missile launcher. The higher you are, the more difficult it is to direct your fire.

MISSION 5 - FUEL DEPOT

Sheridan tanks guard many of these fuel depots and it's advised that you take out all

MISSION 2 - TROOP BRIDGES

Due to the nature of your Stealth Fighter, you'll find turning the aircraft can be frustrating and tricky because of the wide arc. The troop bridges are located over the rivers on the map, so use the river as an easy guide for approaching each bridge. Just two or three AIM-92s will take out a bridge, so fly past and release them as you pass over. Most bridges will have tanks nearby, but they shouldn't be a problem as you should keep moving. If you miss a bridge, allow yourself time to turn in the arc and backtrack in a straight line. You'll only need to blow up six of them.

 Troop bridges are easy targets to destroy as they take just a couple of Iron Bombs. Use the rivers as a guide for this mission and you can't go wrong. Only the tanks pose a threat and it's safe just to go for the bridges and swerve to avoid any fire.

MISSION 8 - WARHEADS

When you blast a chamber, the nuclear warhead must be picked up. To uncover this, you must shoot the container. Get the troops inside, then pick up the warhead and remember not to shoot it! If you do, you'll have to return to base. The chain gun should lock onto the troops first, but be careful.

Once six warheads have been picked up, return to the base you started from and the campaign will be complete!

CAMPAIGN 8

Mountains

7PGCZJYK3XM

MISSION 1 – CONTROL TOWER

From the far northwest corner of the map, you must make a short trip south where there are four towers. The first pair are easy to destroy as only a bazooka-wielding soldier guards them. Knock the troops out then use your chain gun to destroy the two towers. The second pair, just south, are guarded by mobile battle cannons that will hit you until it hurts. Clear these beasts using rockets or hellfires, then blow up the remaining towers with your chain gun. If you can cope with the tanks then this mission is easy.

With every terr

MISSION 2 – TOMAHAWKS

Just south of the towers, you'll find three rocks that can be precisely located using the yellow dots on the map as a guide. Get rid of the two tanks in the area using hellfires, then chain gun the rocks to reveal a missile exit cut-out in the rock at the top. Reveal all three to complete the mission.

MISSION 3 – POWER SUPPLY

Fly almost directly east from the Tomahawks and you'll arrive at a very heavily guarded power station. You must first deal with the four gatling guns.

The power building that supplies the area with energy is heavily guarded by the tough-skinned AAAs that shoot quick and often. They're easy to blow into fragments if you are quick and clever, so make sure you approach from behind and surprise them with lead!

Try to approach when they point the other way and surprise them by releasing the one needed rocket that will do the job. When they are destroyed, take out the ground troops and enemy Apache helicopter, then you can use the chain gun to finish off the power station. Now you'll be able to safely approach the Madman's villa!

MISSION 4 – VILLA

Fly northwest and you'll come to the impressive villa where tactical trucks, tanks, ground troops and gatling guns are in abundance. Take a look at your armour status as it's well worth circling the villa and blasting everything on the ground with rockets and hellfires. Nearby pyramids will reveal more ammo and fuel. There's also an armour repair hidden just to the east of the villa.

When the initial forces are destroyed, hammer away with rockets and hellfires. Be careful, as more tanks approach later on and midway through your attack on the villa, more troops will run out and shoot at you. Clear these with hellfires, then continue villa-blasting until you run out of ammo.

MISSION 5 – DRUG LORD

No, this guy is not in the villa! He's situated just to the east on the river network shown on the map. Locate the boat house, which you'll find on the west end of the river, then blow it up to reveal the drug lord in his boat. Clear surrounding tanks and troops with hellfires, then chase the boat up river. Once you've destroyed the boat, the drug lord will appear in a small dinghy where you can pick him up as a hostage!

MISSION 6 – AIR STRIP

Head south and find the airstrip that must be destroyed to prevent the Madman's escape. You'll need to use rockets on the enemy's Apache helicopter and tanks. Make sure you destroy the aircraft on the strip and don't forget the tanker just to the north.

MISSION 7 – BUNKER

From the airstrip, fly directly east to the bunker where you must destroy the four gatling guns on each corner. Get the armour repair from the ruins of the gatling gun on the northeast corner, then take out any nearby tanks and ground troops.

Now, blast the outer shield of the bunker with all the hellfires and rockets you have. Then fly slightly south-east and you'll see a tactical truck and three ammo crates together. Destroy the truck then find the nearby helipad. Land here and your co-pilot will get into the truck and drive up to the bunker with explosives. He'll get out the truck and run away from the bunker so you can pick him up. The truck next to be bunker can be fired upon. The explosives burst open the bunker and penetrate the inner layer.

MISSION 8 – MAD-MAN

It's time to capture Kilbaba. He'll escape from the bunker in a helicopter and it's up to you to chase the Apache until it lands on the airstrip, forcing the Madman to flee. When he tries to escape, pick him up as a hostage and justice will be done! Return to base for the completion of the penultimate campaign.

This is how not to become a war hero. Washington is suffering enough structural damage and it could do without a maniac, with a touch of trigger fever, blasting whatever he sees. Stick to the designated targets to avoid the humiliation of returning to base!

CAMPAIGN 9 Washington DC Return NCZJFD3BRWC MISSION 1 - AIR FORCE ONE

Back in Washington, your first mission involves escorting the President and his chopper to safety. There are a few ground troops around that only require a few hellfires and the two tanks along the route can be dealt with using rockets. The key is to keep cars that look like tanks, but carry generals that need rescuing for mission three. You can kill two birds with one stone and pick up the generals if you happen to come across them.

Your first mission on campaign nine is fairly straight forward if you keep moving whilst making sure there is no pausing which can often lead to a costly lapse in rotor control. Fly with confidence and Mr President will exit safely.

moving and fire with confidence – just like the situation during campaign one where the President's limo had to be protected. You'll find this mission fairly short and not too difficult.

MISSION 2 – ENEMY WEAPONS

This can be a long and frustrating where you have to search for 12 enemy tanks. They are not shown on the map, so you'll have to roam the area until you find them! The best method is to fly over the roads as this is where they'll be close to. There are two armoured

MISSION 3 – GENERALS

If you find and destroy all 12 tanks before finding the armoured command cars, they'll show up on the map. Don't shoot the generals, but capture them as they know where the drug lord and madman are making their escape. For some reason the captured men from campaign eight seem to be on the loose and the reason lies behind the fact that originally there was only going to be eight campaigns!

MISSION 4 – DRUG LORD

This is, by far, the easiest mission you'll ever come across. Simply locate Ortega's truck in the northeast corner of the area and fire two rockets to destroy it. The only challenge here comes in being quick, as you can't exactly miss the large road vehicle!

MISSION 5 – MADMAN

This mission simply involves locating the tanker just southwest of Ortega's truck. Use two rockets to blow it up. You won't have to worry about any other enemies as there aren't any protecting Kilbaba.

MISSION 6 – NUKE MISSILES

The final mission requires quick reactions as the nuke missiles will head for the embassy buildings. Make sure you have plenty of ammo before tackling each of the four trucks as once they appear on the screen they will not stop until they reach the safety of the embassies. Use hellfires and rockets on each truck and attack from the side to give you a wider area to target your fire. Once all four have been destroyed, you must return to the White House helipad. Now you'll be congratulated and then the final credits will roll with a final screen that commends your success.

These tips are a tribute to a brave hero of the desert and jungle.

No, it's not the Ghostbusters riding down Big Apple's Broadway (I), but two pilots who have done the business in Jungle Warfare and become US War Heroes. I rather think the flashy and very red car is more suited to a smoothy with his bimbo.

There can only be one champion in the Mortal Kombat tournament from the seven contestants in the MD version and six in the 8-bit versions. The idea is to master each of the characters moves, attack and defence combinations and special attributes. You'll find that characters have at least one opponent that they have superiority over, so you are well advised to learn all the moves and all the specialities of each.

Rayden is a master of special moves and combining them with clever attack methods may appeal to certain games players. Sonya Blade is the toughest opponent for Rayden because of her Leg Toss. It regularly catches him out due to his regenerating period (the time it takes for Rayden to recover from a hit) and it is sometimes impossible for him to block.

The Master System and Game Gear versions of Mortal Kombat are very different to that of the Mega Drive. As blocking is more difficult, you have to be very quick on the controls and they are, believe it or not, a bigger challenge than the MD version. Even the Easy level on the 8-bit takes more time to finish than the Normal on the Mega Drive.

Mortal Kombat* is the best fighting game available on the Mega Drive, Master System and Game Gear. So, after playing it for the past two months we decided it was high time the superb game should receive the ProTips treatment. Jason "green man" Johnson gladly took the challenge.

LIZARD MAN

The lizard man appears at times throughout the game. To find him you must win a fight with a perfect bonus in each bout, and use the fatality death blow. When you find him, he'll prove to be one of the toughest opponents in the game mainly because he uses the block so well.

GAURDIANS

GORO

This is the toughest opponent you will face, but he is easily defeated if you follow a few simple guidelines. Firstly, stay a fair distance away from him and always be prepared to duck or block as he often fires his weapon that is difficult to spot. Launch a few Special Weapons moves of your own and try a couple of Flying Kicks and punches. You will find it very difficult to defeat him using close contact methods.

SHANG TSUNG

Far easier than the penultimate Goro, but still a tricky character to defeat. Avoid Shang's fireballs because he throws several in succession. It is advisable to attack from the air or with a Special Weapon. As Shang Tsung has the power to change into any character that he chooses, be prepared.

Shang Tsung even has the audacity to take the form of Goro, often causing problems. Treat each of the fighters in the normal manner and keep that block button at the ready. Win the tournament and you're given a couple of screen shots of your star fighter and told how the world is destroyed after the tournament.

FIGHTING FIT

Here is a short guide to each of the fighters with their strengths and weaknesses. It's a good idea to play with one fighter until you have mastered their moves before moving onto the next.

SONYA BLADE

Agility is Sonya's main strength and blocking her Leg Toss can be tough. Keep a reasonable distance away from her unless you're prepared to block. She often fires her Energy Wave from a distance, but the Flying Punch can seldom be blocked. If you choose to use Rayden against her, take extra care as his lack of speed is a serious burden.

JOHNNY CAGE

Be careful of Johnny's Shadow Kick, it's lethal and he uses it fairly often on the Difficult setting. Block and follow-up with a Leg Sweep and Uppercut which is devastating. Because Johnny is one of the least played characters, his moves should be mastered because human opponents may not be familiar with them. Then again, to be a master at MK you must learn everyone's moves.

RAYDEN

Regeneration is a problem for Rayden and if he's vulnerable, it's just after a Special Move blow. If you're using Scorpion, use the Spear weapon and follow-up with an uppercut. Any of the other characters can give Rayden a tough time, but he's one of the best fighters to use overall because of his brilliant Special Moves and a useful energy-zapping weapon.

SCORPION

The spear gives Scorpion an extra edge against most opponents, but it takes quite a while from the time it is thrown until it hits. These valuable split seconds can be used by opponents to block and counter-attack. Kano comes in for rough treatment when using his Super Spin as he is often speared mid-flight. Scorpion's teleport punch can cause a few problems, but the biggest problem you'll encounter against him is blocking the spear. Tread with care, especially when using a slower fighter.

SUB-ZERO

Every time you Leg Sweep, Sub-Zero retaliates with a Power Slide. This isn't the most powerful move, but a follow-up such as the Uppercut will knock your power down substantially. Use aerial attacks with care as Sub-Zero, more often than not, freezes you mid-flight; leaving you totally defenceless. Press the joypad to block just in case he reaches you just as the ice melts.

LIU KANG

His easy-to-execute Special Moves are useful, but fighting against him brings its own set of problems. The Concorde Kick is very tough to block and Liu often follows it up with a lethal Flame Bolt, which is very difficult to block after being knocked down. Attacking from the air is likely to give you an advantage over him.

TEST YOUR MIGHT

Between stages there are bonus screens where you must smash through a block of various materials. By pressing A and B rapidly, much like in those tedious sporting sims, you build up the force bar on the screen. When the meter reaches the indicator, press START and your character's hand should smash through the block. There's no special method to doing this, but make sure you can reach the start button without losing any power.

LIU KANG BYE, BYE NOW!

The oddest of all the Death Blows is made up of two parts. The first is a weird spinning kick that knocks the opponent further into unconsciousness. Liu, not content with near death, follows-up with a viscous Upper-cut that sends opponents flying off the screen. Execute this move when you're close to an opponent or the kick may miss.

SUB-ZERO HEADS, I WIN

This has to be the most violent and stomach churning Death Blow of them all. Sub-Zero reaches over and tears off the loser's head and holds it in the air, much as Kano does with his opponent's heart. However, Sub has ripped the spinal cord out at the same time and this dangles below as the blood spills onto the floor.

Gee. We get an Everest of mail every day so much so that a large part of our time is spent sorting it into correct bundles.

Send all submissions to the proper department (see below) at:

Paragon Publishing,
Durham House,
124 Old Christchurch Road,
Bournemouth BH1 1NF.

PROTEST

The letters sent here are usually some silly git rabbiting on about how jealous they are of someone else, or of some poor guy needing help with their console and even of anyone who needs advice on console specific problems.

You can ask what games will be available or how to get in contact with a company, but don't ask for game help (see ProHelp for that). The best letter AND the best ProDebate submission wins a SEGAPro T-shirt, but only witty, cheeky or lively submissions are even considered – you can't win a T-shirt by asking for some advice!

PRODEBATE

In addition to letters, we sometimes have ProDebates, which should be addressed like such: TV Debate, ProTest. Get your views into the open and state your case. SEGAPro T-shirts are awarded if we consider a point to be particularly valid. If you want to start a debate, write in and let us know about it!

PROART

Far too much artwork is missed out because it has been addressed to ProTest. Send your art to ProArt for speedy attention. If you want it returned, don't forget to include a SAE and remember to always write your name, address and age on the back of your art. The best art, each month, wins a stupendously brilliant SEGAPro T-shirt.

PROTIPS

There are so many types of tips which can be sent in. Action Replay codes, small cheats, small tips, part solutions, whole game guides and maps. Lots of carts and T-shirts are won every month! So, there you are! Get sending.

PROHELP

Our revitalised section is bigger and better than ever! If you are stuck on a level, can't kill the boss or are totally lost, drop the Pros a line with details of your problem.

PROSCORES

No prizes here, but you get your high score branded around the country. If you supply a photograph, you can then show all your friends how clever you are.

GAME OVER

If you have finished a game recently, why not tape it and, if it is published, you could win a cart. When the Pros receive a Game Over, we pick out selected screenshots and add a witty storyline.

CARTS FOR GRABS

I am writing to you because I sent some Sonic 2 tips in over three months ago. When will they be printed and when do I receive my two free carts? Please send me Ecco (is this pronounced Eeko or Ekko?) and Bubsy.

By the way, I saw you all at the opening of Sega World. I was the one wearing the Sonic T-shirt. I was also the second person to go on the R360. Do you remember me? Please print this, as otherwise no-one will believe that I wrote to you.

Daniel Jones, Sussex

Get Off! Do you think we're stupid. Get a life together! We all had a pretty good time at Sega World at the press launch – and even more since then – even though Jason managed to break the R360 in a matter of minutes! We don't remember you, there were loads of kids wearing Sonic gear!

P.S. The Eeko/Ekko causes as many arguments here as it does everywhere else!

Astrid Castle, age 10

THE CASE OF THE MISSING TIP

I am writing in to complain about your ProTips section. Although the rest of your magazine is great (especially the Mortal Kombat feature), ProTips was especially disappointing this month. On the index page it stated that Rings Of Power would be tipped. I couldn't find it anywhere and am extremely disappointed, as this is a really tough game. I've had it for ages, so when I saw that you were going to print a tip, I was really excited. Please tell me what happened!

George Breatly, Essex

The only thing we can think of is that there wasn't enough space to fit the tip in. However, Jason promises to try and fit in a Rings of Power tip soon. Look out for it!

FINAL FIGHT FOR CD

I am writing with my opinion on the Mega-CD. I don't own a Mega-CD yet, but I soon will! In SEGAPro #22, Ashley Price said there were no decent games for the Mega-CD. Well, what do you call Final Fight? Sega have already started to make some great games such as Silpheed and Sonic for the Mega-CD. I think the CD is the future of gaming and I can't wait to get my hands on one!

Jacqueline Harper, Scotland

Sega are currently developing many great games for the CD, but current releases have been very disappointing. You're right, Final Fight is one of the best titles to date. You'd think that with such a bad start, a few good games would have surfaced by now. I'm sure Sega are trying, because they know that unless they start releasing something good soon, they may be in a lot of trouble.

BUY IT, YOU'LL LIKE IT

I feel compelled to write in with my opinions on the Mega-CD. I have just four things to say to the people who are slagging off the Mega-CD – Final Fight, Silpheed, Batman Returns and Switch.

So, the first batch of games weren't very good. Cobra Command was an improvement and had great graphics too. What people should remember is that it takes a while to get good software on to the market. When the Mega Drive first came out, it was packaged with Golden Axe. This was appalling, but games soon improved. After a while, we were treated to carts such as Sonic and Streets of Rage.

The cartridge has come a long

Karl Booth, age 10

Omar Srouyi, age 10

THE SONIC OF THE NEXT GENERATION

Russell Lammyman, age 12 way, but it's now time for it to stand down. With games like Final Fight in the shops, it will certainly be hard pushed to produce anything better. I suggest that potential CD owners should buy it, play it and learn to love it. Better games will be with us by Christmas, so start saving your money now. Incidentally, there is one point everyone seems to have forgotten. Companies will always cash in on games that aren't up to scratch. It's up to you to choose your games wisely.

Russell Vint, age 12

Julian Watkins, Halifax

Although the Mega-CD is capable of producing better graphics and sound than the Mega Drive, it doesn't mean that cartridges are doomed! When Sega launched the Mega Drive, everyone said that the Master System would become obsolete. Well, the Master System is still thriving today! Even big companies, such as Acclaim, US Gold, Domark and Virgin still make games for the 8-bit! Although Mega Drive popularity may dwindle in time, the cartridge is still far more popular than CD. However, it's good to see a satisfied Mega-CD owner at last!

MEGA-CD BITES BACK

I am writing in reply to the question posed in last month's Protest. It is my duty as a Mega-CD owner to tell you my story.

After months of saving and mugging old ladies, I finally saved enough to buy a Mega-CD. When I switched it on, I expected to be blasted with jaw dropping graphics and animation. Unfortunately, what I got was five old Mega Drive games. There were also two supposed CD quality games, which were extremely boring.

I thought that I had wasted nearly £300 until about one month ago, when I discovered the CDX. It allowed me to play games like Switch and Batman Returns. Now I hardly ever leave my bedroom! Both of these games show off the Mega-CD's potential and restored my faith in the machine!

I think that Sega should repackage the Mega-CD and give away a CDX with every purchase, as well as a good import game. That way, they would sell more CDs and it would be much better than seven sad games.

Chris Stevens, Merseyside

Although it would be brilliant to give away a free CDX with every Mega-CD, the impracticalities of it would be enormous. Dattel are producing the cartridges without Sega's official endorsement. There aren't many good CDs around as it's taking longer to convert games from NTSC to PAL than was originally anticipated! Anyway, If Sega wanted you to play every import game, they wouldn't have devised country locking codes in the first place and you wouldn't need the CDX.

Problems and Procures, SegaPro, Paragon Publishing, Durham House, 124 Old Christchurch Road, Bournemouth BH1 1NF.

Joseph Cassidy of Glasgow writes in with a few problems. Firstly, he'd like to know whether Sonic Chaos will be released on the Master System. We know that Sonic Chaos will definitely be released on the Game Gear, but have an idea that Sonic 3 on MS will be Sonic Chaos. Look out for it in October.

Joseph also asks if Mortal Kombat on the Master System, will incorporate the pit. Unfortunately, the Master System version doesn't have as many moves or features as that of the Mega Drive. Although it has some of the gory scenes, it doesn't include the spiked pit.

Finally, Joseph asks when Cool Spot and Hook will appear on the Master System. Hook should be in the shops very soon while Cool Spot will be released in November.

MC Milner of Hampshire wonders if Konami will release any more adventures like Tiny Toon Adventures. He's seen Buster Busts Loose and Babs Big Break on the Nintendo and would like to see them on the Mega Drive too. Konami haven't announced any plans to produce these titles for the Mega Drive, although it's highly possible that they may be converted in the future.

Damian Muirgridge of Hants is curious about The Edge game enhancer. He wants to know if he buys one, can he communicate with people who don't have one. Oh dear. How on Earth would you communicate with another person if they don't own the device?

Chris Durant of Essex has a few questions. He wants to know the differences between the Mega Drive and the Mega Drive 2. The

GAMES ARE RUBBISH

I think Sega are being very unfair with their licensing controls. They say they want to control software standards, but half of the games they bring out are rubbish. The only reason they want to control all the companies is so that they can control cart prices. Carts cost about £10 too much and Sega would sell a lot more games if they sold at around £30. Some carts cost up to £50 – who can afford these prices? If Sega didn't control the licenses, companies would be able to charge less for games.

Mick Sharpe, Cambs

Cartridge prices have been controlled by the whole industry and not Sega. Yes, they set the precedence for their games, but independent publishers, such as Acclaim and Accolade have not reduced prices. If it was to their benefit, they probably would have done so by now. Sega have tried to control software quality and release dates, and they still do to a large extent, but many games have been deliberately released just to make up the numbers. Sega know that many of their games don't meet a fair standard, but need to get new games onto the shelf.

MARVEL-OUS!

In reply to your exit competition, I have written this little lot:

According to Jason, Mr Marvel started up Marvel Comics with ten cents and a phone box, which he promptly stepped into. He inserted his ten cents into the coin slot and phoned a lycra shop. They quickly delivered him a bright blue body stocking. Jason then stepped back into the phone box, changed into his skin tight lycra, pulled a stocking over his head and masquerading as Marvel Man, robbed the bank across the road. After escaping with millions of dollars, he started up a comic empire! After all these years, no one knew who he really was! Sorry for blowing the secret, Jase!

Anyway, this is a bit of a sad effort, but it was the best I could do.

Andrew Stockwell, Fife

Somehow, we can't really imagine Jason leaping about in a blue body stocking, but it's possible! We've always been suspicious about his strange fetish for lycra and this has confirmed our worst fears.

NOT SO MARVEL-OUS

Mr Marvel started up Marvel Comics with ten cents and with the change he invented powdered water, but didn't know what to do with it. He also put instant coffee in the microwave and nearly went forward in time!

By the way, if you've ever got an itchy spot on your brain, think of sandpaper – it just might work!

Wayne Russell, Aberdeen

Erm. We think you may have had one too many in the pub last night.

Michael Ross, age 12

ADVERTISING SUCKS

I think it is okay for companies to advertise within games, but it may be a double edged sword. On one side, it will help them to pay for game production and keep down cart prices (although Sega will always have some excuse to keep them high). On the other side, advertising companies may want too much say in game production. This may mean that they ruin a game by making it a blatant piece of advertising (a la Global Gladiators).

Anyway, onto a different subject. CD games have to get a bit better and as they do, cart prices may drop. I know that the production of a cart is more than a CD, but the CD can hold more information. I think that CD games should stay at around £45 (for the best ones) and carts should drop to around £20. I doubt this will happen, but we can dream!

Ashley Price, East Sussex

Ashley Price is back! After causing a storm over his views on the Mega-CD, he can't help commenting on other issues too! Perhaps we should turn this slot into the Ashley Price letters page, or give him a column all of his own! What do you think? Is Asshers right? Or will carts always stay the same price they've always been? Send us your opinions and if you're lucky, you may win a SEGAPRO T-shirt!

PAGE CONFUSION

I am a regular, satisfied reader of your magazine, but I do have one problem. In numerous issues, I have found that the pages and numbers have been incorrectly placed. This is making it very hard to keep track of reviews and other features. Please could you make sure that it is more organised in future issues.

Damian Mugridge, Hants

Oh, dear! Those printers are at it again! Seriously, many pages are designed early on and, for one reason or another, have to be moved from one position to another. As the pages have already been printed, it is unlikely that we would change the page numbers. It is a bad feature of the video game magazine business. For instance, if a hot exclusive came in at the last minute, we would reshuffle pages to fit it in. That's how it happens and we are very sorry for the inconvenience.

only difference between the two machines is that the Mega Drive 2 has no TV or headphone socket. This also means that the leads for the old Mega Drive will not be compatible. Chris also wants to know the release date for Sonic 3 and if a cricket game will appear on the MD. Sonic 3 should be released in January 1994 and although it's unlikely that a cricket game will appear on the MD, a rugby game has!

Jonathan Place of Sunderland wonders whether the Mega Drive 2 and the Mega-CD 2 will be cheaper than existing models. The two consoles may be more expensive than existing models, although Sega haven't fixed an official price at the moment.

Joe Clarke of Wolverhampton asks if it is worth buying the Mega-CD, or if waiting for Sega's 32-bit system would be better value. No, the Mega-CD isn't worth buying at the moment! The Saturn (32-bit system) won't reach the shops until Christmas 1994 or even 1995, so that's not worth waiting for. I'd save your money and see what new games appear for the Mega-CD.

Alex Pritchard of Weymouth enquires about the Sega TV channel reported in SEGAPRO#22. He wonders whether the TV channel will ever be available in the UK and, if not, is it possible to use it through satellite. The Sega TV channel operates through cable TV. To use it, you must pay a monthly subscription fee. It's unlikely that you will be able to use it in the UK – even if you have satellite, as cable TV is not the same. Sega are planning to develop the channel over here too! It's unlikely that the channel will appear until cable TV is more popular, but as soon as it is, you'll see Sega TV!

Lastly, Daniel Waters of Northampton would like to know where he can get hold of ancient Master System games. The best place to get old games is from a shop that deals in second hand titles. If you can't find what you want, you could try phoning the company that made the game.

That's all there's time for this month, but we'll be back soon to answer your queries! Keep writing in – it may be your problem that's answered next month!

PROTEST!

You can really tell that Mario's not always a game star.

Leo Koorh, age 11

ILLEGAL ACCESSORIES

I own a Mega Drive, but am finding it hard to buy new games every month. A games shop in my area told me that if I bought a special accessory, costing over £100, they would sell me multi-game cartridges at £2.40 each. Each cartridge has 24 games on it, but I'm wondering if this is illegal. If it isn't, why doesn't everyone buy one?

Scott Logie, Fife

This sounds extremely dodgy! The shop owners are trying to sell you a Magidrive, although they usually cost more than £100. The multi-game cartridges are most definitely illegal and you never know what games you'll be getting on them. It's unlikely that you'll get anything that's any good, as the cart/disk only costs £2.40 for 24 games. That's ten pence each! SEGAPRO don't use any illegal machines to get their games and we suggest that you don't either!

PROQUOTES

A selection of the best, the worst and the down right bizarre comments of the month!

Just a little note to say how brill the cheat book, given free last month, was and how it didn't work the only time I needed it.

Susan White, Dunfermline

Your mag is the best. I don't write in to the others because they're too inferior.

Alan Crombie, Stratford

Please send me a copy of Mortal Kombat as I am bored with my games collection.

John Campbell, Coventry

Anyone who complains about games for the Mega-CD should go back and play on a Spectrum. Then they would have something to moan about.

Paul Ashwell, Halifax

Please send me a signed photo of ProGirl as I miss her.

Martin Langley, Isle of Wight

MORE SPACE FOR THE GEAR

I thought I'd write to you about your Game Gear reviews. I've been buying SEGAPRO since issue two because they are excellent, but I've noticed that you've recently allocated tiny half page spaces for them. Only a few issues before that, you told us that you would try and make the Game Gear reviews bigger. If they don't increase in size, I may go and buy another magazine. It doesn't seem worth buying SEGAPRO for a few half-page reviews! I find this hard to say, as I have 20 issues of your mag and it's the only one I buy.

Sean McFadden, Ireland

Jake Greenwood

We try to give every game a fair amount of review space. If a game isn't very good, then we want to save space for something better. For instance, Land of Illusion on the Game Gear was allocated one page, but Double Dragon was only allocated a column. If a Game Gear title is good, then obviously we want to show it. It's not just hand held titles that get a small amount of space, though, it happens with other games too. We want to show you the best of

LESS OF THE VIOLENCE

I am writing in as a parent of two children who are totally obsessed with their Mega Drive. Although I was aware of the aggressive nature of video games, I did not realise just how violent they could be. I approve of games such as World of Illusion and Lemmings, because they require some thought from the player. However, my kids (age 10 and 12) want me to buy them Mortal Kombat and Street Fighter II when they are released. Now, I'm not the sort of parent that will buy their children anything they want. Apart from anything else, I like to play games! So, when I read the preview of Mortal Kombat, I was totally shocked. According to your report, the game has a special code that gives you access to gory scenes not normally shown. You may think that this is all fair and square, as the violence is hidden deep within the game. However, I think that this just encourages kids to become more violent. Why incorporate these cheats in the first place? All the companies are doing is feeding our children a diet of blood and guts.

There is already too much violence on the TV, without irresponsible software houses producing even more. Lets see more games that rely on brain power, not sheer shock value.

Helena Blakesley, Oldham

It's well known that some games have a violent nature, even if it's not totally blatant. Personally, we think you have little to worry about. If kids aren't playing violent video games, they're usually playing other types of violent games, such as stealing cars and real fighting.

Mortal Kombat is not an original console product - it has been converted from an arcade coin-op. If your kids have ever played arcade machines, they have had access to violent games, such as Mortal Kombat - and that doesn't have the parental safety code! Do you want everyone to suffer because some parents can't teach their kids between right and wrong? Violence is the fault of society, not the fault of video games that, incidentally, appeared long after unruly kids!

Personally, I haven't seen many kids decapitating their friends. They may play-fight as Street Fighter characters, but when you were young didn't you play Cowboys and Indians or were you more interested in Doctors and Nurses?

what's on offer and not waste space on games that aren't worth it.

LESS OF THE ARCADE ACTION

I have had a Game Gear for some time now and have many brilliant games. I However, apart from the odd RPG and sports simulation, there only seem to be arcade games available. I would like to see Sim City, Civilization, Eye of the Beholder and a simplified flight simulator like Wings.

How about it? Let's see some more strategy or proper RPG on the Game Gear (instead of cop outs like Axe Battler and Dragon's Crystal). I'm sure that there are many players w h o would like to see something other than arcade games on their hand held.

Shona, Robert, Andrew and Fiona

Will any of these games be released on the Game Gear or am I doomed to Sonic and Mickey Mouse on those lonely nights under the bedclothes?

Richard Scratcher, Essex

It would be very difficult to incorporate any of your suggestions on to the Game Gear. Apart from obvious problems such as lack of space on the screen, the Game Gear doesn't have enough memory to run massive RPGs. Sim City hasn't even been released on the Mega Drive let alone the hand held. Imagine trying to cram all that information into the Game Gear!

However, the Game Gear lacks decent strategy games, but a full blown RPG will surface later this year. DaemonsGate is being developed by Imagitec and will be released by Gametek. Shining Force is also under development, although it may only be available on import from Japan.

As Game Gear carts have recently increased in size to 4Mbit capacity, there is more potential for bigger and more complicated portable games.

ECHO THROUGHOUT THE VAST OCEAN...

Ever since Ecco the Dolphin was reviewed in SEGAPro #16, people haven't stopped ranting about its cool graphics and animation! We think that it's definitely one of the best Mega Drive titles around and after playing it for what seemed like weeks, we finally reached the end. Hurrah! At last little Ecco can roam the oceans in peace!

Till next month!

What have you done with my hot water bottle?!

Ecco and the lads don't waste any time getting away from the defeated guardian. Speeding down the tube, the dolphins swim in a formation the Red Arrows would find difficult to match! Ecco leads the rest back in style to the friendly, shallow waters they've missed for so long.

You'll get it back after our analysis team have finished with it.

That's it Ecco, knock his brains out. This guardian is just an oversized jelly monster who can't find someone his own size to pick on. I mean come on, who'd pick on such a cute little dolphin? I think he's lost his marbles!

I'm off to lunch!

I tell you it's an aqua security helmet...

Nah, no way, it's definitely a lamp shade.

Last one out buys the round...

At last the dolphins are free. Ecco has done a magnificent job saving his friends. The underwater horrors are now a thing of the past. Everyone leaps out the water in celebration against a welcoming blue sky. Now it's time for some synchronised swimming displays!
